A Colourful Presence Maryam Ghorbankarimi, 2015-10-13 This book analyzes the changes in the representation of women in Iranian cinema since the 1960s and investigates the reasons and motives for this Iranian cinema both before and after the Islamic Revolution has been closely monitored by the ruling power and has been utilized to relay messages and information that comply with the ruling ideology However it was only after the 1979 Revolution and the subsequent legitimization of cinema by the Islamic rule that cinema became widely accessible to the general public Within this context this book explores the changing roles of women in film production and their representation in films made between the 1960s and 2000s Although some aspects of women s lives became stricter after the revolution it was in the late 1980s that women took a prominent role both behind and in front of the camera for the first time It is demonstrated here that such shifts were due to several factors including factionalism within the Islamic Republic shifts in the Iranian film industry and the emergence of a group of highly educated film production teams in addition to the fuller integration of women into the film industry which is analyzed in particular detail This study explores a number of representative female centric films with a focus on their cultural social and cinematic contexts Discussing these films with respect to the representation of women it uses textual analysis as its base methodology Interviews conducted with filmmakers and people active in the industry also serve to place the films into their historical social and political context Marlene Dietrich Steven Bach,2013-11-30 From the stages of Berlin to anti Nazi efforts and silver screen stardom Steven Bach reveals the fascinating woman behind the myth surrounding Marlene Dietrich in a biography that will stand as the ultimate authority on a singular star Based on six years of research and hundreds of interviews including conversations with Dietrich this is the life story of one of the century s greatest movie actresses and performers an icon who embodied glamour and sophistication for audiences around the globe

The Films of Delmer Daves Douglas Horlock,2022-03-25 Delmer Daves 1904 1977 was an American screenwriter director and producer known for his dramas and Western adventures most notably Broken Arrow and 3 10 to Yuma Despite the popularity of his films there has been little serious examination of Daves s work Filmmaker Bertrand Tavernier has called Daves the most forgotten of American directors and to date no scholarly monograph has focused on his work In The Films of Delmer Daves Visions of Progress in Mid Twentieth Century America author Douglas Horlock contends that the director s work warrants sustained scholarly attention Examining all of Daves s films as well as his screenplays scripts that were not filmed and personal papers Horlock argues that Daves was a serious distinctive and enlightened filmmaker whose work confronts the general conservatism of Hollywood in the mid twentieth century Horlock considers Daves s films through the lenses of political and social values race and civil rights and gender and sexuality Ultimately Horlock suggests that Daves s work through its examination of bigotry and irrational fear and depiction of institutional and personal morality and freedom presents a consistent innovative and progressive vision of America Ninth Street Women Mary Gabriel,2018-09-25 Five women revolutionize the modern art world in postwar America in this gratifying generous and lush true story from a National Book Award and Pulitzer Prize finalist Jennifer Szalai New York Times Set amid the most turbulent social and political period of modern times Ninth Street Women is the impassioned wild sometimes tragic always exhilarating chronicle of five women who dared to enter the male dominated world of twentieth century abstract painting not as muses but as artists From their cold water lofts where they worked drank fought and loved these pioneers burst open the door to the art world for themselves and countless others to come Gutsy and indomitable Lee Krasner was a hell raising leader among artists long before she became part of the modern art world s first celebrity couple by marrying Jackson Pollock Elaine de Kooning whose brilliant mind and peerless charm made her the emotional center of the New York School used her work and words to build a bridge between the avant garde and a public that scorned abstract art as a hoax Grace Hartigan fearlessly abandoned life as a New Jersey housewife and mother to achieve stardom as one of the boldest painters of her generation Joan Mitchell whose notoriously tough exterior shielded a vulnerable artist within escaped a privileged but emotionally damaging Chicago childhood to translate her fierce vision into magnificent canvases And Helen Frankenthaler the beautiful daughter of a prominent New York family chose the difficult path of the creative life Her gamble paid off At twenty three she created a work so original it launched a new school of painting These women changed American art and society tearing up the prevailing social code and replacing it with a doctrine of liberation In Ninth Street Women acclaimed author Mary Gabriel tells a remarkable and inspiring story of the power of art and artists in shaping not just postwar America but the future

Film Study Frank Manchel,1990-10 The four volumes of Film Study include a fresh approach to each of the basic categories in the original edition Volume one examines the film as film volume two focuses on the thematic approach to film volume three draws on the history of film and volume four contains extensive appendices listing film distributors sources and historical information as well as an index of authors titles and film personalities Shot/Countershot Lucy Fischer,2014-07-14 Do films made by women comprise a counter cinema radically different from the dominant tradition Feminist film critics contend that women filmmakers do present from a distinctive vision or countershot and Lucy Fischer argues persuasively for this view In rich detail this book relates the idea of a counter cinema to theories of intertextuality and locates it in the broad context of recent feminist film literary and art criticism Fischer also employs an original critical model of the dialogue between women s cinema and film tradition in the very organization of the book Each chapter discusses a theme or genre such as the musical the double the myth of womanhood and the figure of the actress counterposing two or more works from the feminist and from the dominant cinema What emerges is a fascinating picture of a women s film tradition that not only addresses but reworks and remakes the mainstream cinema Fischer successfully combines two main strains of feminist criticism the deconstructive critique of the dominant culture from a feminist standpoint and the study of a feminist counterculture Examining films from Persona and The Lady from Shanghai to Girlfriends and Sisters or the Balance of Happiness the book offers fresh interpretations of individual works and can incidentally serve as an introduction to the field of feminist film criticism Originally published in 1989 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Antonio Pietrangeli, The Director of Women Emma Katherine Van Ness,2020-04-30 One of the founding fathers of neorealism in the postwar period in Italy Antonio Pietrangeli went on to focus his lens upon the female subject Eight of his ten full length films feature female protagonists This study seeks to better understand both his achievements and his failings as a feminist auteur as well as analyse his films by applying new critical and theoretical approaches Pietrangeli s representations of women struggling with questions of identity was a revolutionary act in the 1950s and 1960s The book makes a case why we should recuperate these films today since the standards for representing women in film continue to fall behind the reality of women s lives off screen

Pink-Slipped Jane M Gaines,2018-02-23 Women held more positions of power in the silent film era than at any other time in American motion picture history Marion Leonard broke from acting to cofound a feature film company Gene Gauntier the face of Kalem Films also wrote the first script of Ben Hur Helen Holmes choreographed her own breathtaking on camera stunt work Yet they and the other pioneering filmmaking women vanished from memory Using individual careers as a point of departure Jane M Gaines charts how women first fell out of the limelight and then out of the film history itself A more perplexing event cemented their obscurity the failure of 1970s feminist historiography to rediscover them Gaines examines how it happened against a backdrop of feminist theory and her own meditation on the limits that historiography imposes on scholars Pondering how silent era women have become absent in the abstract while present in reality Gaines sees a need for a theory of these artists pasts that relates their aspirations to those of contemporary women A bold journey through history and memory Pink Slipped pursues the still elusive fate of the influential women in the early years of film All that Hollywood Allows Jackie Byars, 2003-09-02 All that Hollywood Allows explores the representation of gender in popular Hollywood melodramas of the 1950s Both a work of feminist film criticism and theory and an analysis of popular culture this provocative book examines from a cultural studies perspective top grossing film melodramas such as A Streetcar Named Desire From Here to Eternity East of Eden Imitation of Life and Picnic Stereotypically viewed as a complacent and idyllic time the 1950s were actually a time of dislocation and great social change Jackie Byars argues that mass media texts of the period especially films provide evidence of society's consuming preoccupation with the domestic sphere the nuclear family and its values and she shows how Hollywood melodramas interpreted and extended societal debates concerning family structure sexual divisions of labour and gender roles Her readings of these films assess a variety of critical methodologies and approaches to textual analysis some central to feminist film studies and some previously bypassed by scholars in the field
