Pope And Revolution John Paul II Confronts Liberation Theology:

The Pope and Revolution Pope John Paul II, 1982 Liberation Theology at the Crossroads Paul E.

Sigmund, 1992-09-03 Liberation theology originated in Catholic Latin America at the end of the 1960s in response to prevalent conditions of poverty and oppression. Its basic tenet was that it is the primary duty of the church to seek to promote social and economic justice. Since that time it has grown in influence spreading to other areas of the Third World along with bitter controversy about its ties to Marxist ideology and violent revolution. Drawing on both English and Spanish sources, this critical study examines the history, method, and doctrines of liberation theology. Sigmund considers the movement's origins in political circumstances in Latin America and provides case studies of its role in such events as the revolution and counter-revolution in Chile and in the revolutionary movements in El Salvador and Nicaragua. Examining the thought of major liberation theologians as well as the critical responses of the Vatican, Sigmund shows that liberation theology is a complex phenomenon comprising a variety of kinds and degrees of radicalism. He discerns a general trend away from the Marxist rhetoric that has often characterized the movement in the past and towards the kind of grassroots populist reform typified by the Basic Christian Communities Movement.

Catholicism and Politics in Communist Societies Sabrina P. Ramet, 1990

This book is volume two of a three-volume work, Christianity Under Stress, which focuses on the experiences of Christian churches in contemporary communist and socialist societies. In this volume, a distinguished group of experts examines the changing relationship of the Catholic church to contemporary communist and socialist societies in Eastern Europe, Latin America, and Asia. Catholicism has, on the one hand, traditionally regarded earthly life as of secondary importance as an instrument of spiritual transformation, and on the other, has ascribed great value to the early institutions of the church, taking great interest in temporal matters that affect its institutional concerns. Against the backdrop of this duality, the church has changed over the centuries, adapting to local and national conditions. Catholicism and Politics in Communist Societies surveys these local and national adaptations in their historical contexts, linking the past experience of the church to its present circumstances. Organized around themes of tradition vs. modernity, hierarchy vs. lower clergy and institutional structure vs. grass roots organization, this comprehensive volume presents a detailed country-by-country portrait of the political and social status of the church today in communist and socialist settings. Contributors: Pedro Ramet, Arthur F. McGovern, Roman Solchanyk, Ivan Hvat, Robert F. Goeckel, C. Chrypinski, Milan J. Reban, Leslie Laszlo, Janice Broun, Eric O. Hanson, Stephen Denney, Thomas E. Quigley, Humberto Belli, Hansjakob Stehle, George H. Williams.

The Emergence of Liberation Theology Christian Smith, 1991-08-27 Liberation theology is a school of Roman Catholic thought which teaches that a primary duty of the church must be to promote social and economic justice. In this book, Christian Smith explains how and why the liberation theology movement emerged and succeeded when and where it did.
