Popular European Cinema:

Popular European Cinema Richard Dyer, Ginette Vincendeau, 2013-04-15 Popular European Cinema examines the reasons why films that are most popular with audiences in any one European country are seldom successful elsewhere. Audiences themselves represent diverse class, gender, and ethnic identities that complicate the question of national cinema, not least with recent developments in formerly communist Eastern Europe and post colonialist Western Europe. Through their individual studies, the contributors have opened up a new area of study using the medium of film to focus a wider discussion of popular European culture.

Popular European Cinema Richard Dyer, Ginette Vincendeau, 2013-04-15 Popular European Cinema examines the reasons why films that are most popular with audiences in any one European country are seldom successful elsewhere. Audiences themselves represent diverse class, gender, and ethnic identities that complicate the question of national cinema, not least with recent developments in formerly communist Eastern Europe and post colonialist Western Europe. Through their individual studies, the contributors have opened up a new area of study using the medium of film to focus a wider discussion of popular European culture.

Popular Cinemas of Europe Dimitris Eleftheriotis, 2002-01-25 This book challenges the established conceptual and historical paradigm in Anglo American film studies that perceives European cinema as essentially high art. Through a study of the specific contexts in which popular European films are produced, distributed, and exhibited, the book proposes new analytical and critical frameworks for their study. Films analyzed in the book include Cinema Paradiso, Mediterraneo, Bhaji on the Beach, Until the End of the World, Underground, and Jam n Jam n.

The Europeanness of European Cinema Mary Harrod, Mariana Liz, Alissa Timoshkina, 2014-12-19 From The Artist to The White Ribbon, from Oscar to Palme d'Or, winning productions, European filmmaking is more prominent world wide than ever before. This book identifies the distinctive character of European cinema both in films and as a critical concept, asking what place does European cinema have in an increasingly globalized world. Including in-depth analyses of production and reception contexts as well as original readings of key European films from leading experts in the field, it re-negotiates traditional categories such as auteurism, art cinema, and national cinemas. As the first publication to explore Europeanness in cinema, this book refocuses and updates historically significant areas of study in relation to this term. Leading scholars in European cinema, including Thomas Elsaesser, Tim Bergfelder, Anne Jackel, Lucy Mazdon, and Ginette Vincendeau, acknowledge the transnational character of European filmmaking whilst also exploring the oppositions between European and Hollywood filmmaking, considering the value of the European label in the circulation of films within and beyond the continent. The Europeanness of European Cinema makes a lively, timely intervention in the fields of European and transnational film studies.

European Cinema Thomas Elsaesser, 2005 European Cinema in Crisis examines the conflicting terminologies that have dominated the discussion of the future of European film making. It takes a fresh look at the ideological agendas from avant-garde cinema to the high/low culture debate and the fate of popular European cinema.

European Cinema Jill

Forbes, Sarah Street, 2017-03-05 The survival of cinema in Europe and the analysis of its heritage are key issues for the new century This book asks how we can define European cinema and how it should be studied It provides an overview of the problems traditions and key questions that have informed the study of European cinema investigating the links and tensions between Europe and Hollywood and exploring the different experiences of national identities within a common European framework Twelve case studies of individual European films ranging from The Battleship Potemkin and The Lodger to La Haine and Trainspotting illustrate the distinctiveness and variety of cinema in Europe as well as the various critical methods by which it can be studied With its detailed analysis of films from several European countries including Britain and Russia the book encourages a comparative approach and raises urgent questions about the future of European cinema in the context of globalization It will be of interest to students in Film Studies European Studies and Modern European Languages and Cultures

World Cinema W. John Hill, Pamela Church Gibson, Richard Dyer, E. Ann Kaplan, Paul Willemen, 2000 The contributors supply skilful overviews of the major critical approaches Sight and Sound May 1998 international coverage ranges from pre 1930s Europe to contemporary Bollywood musicals first class range of contributors from North America Europe Australia and Asia many chapters specially commissioned emphasis throughout on critical concepts methods and debates learning aids include chapter summaries critiques of individual films and further reading This text is an ideal course companion for undergraduate students studying film media studies cultural studies and literary theory It is especially relevant to 2nd and 3rd year students taking options in World cinema European cinema and the impact of changing technologies

The Routledge Companion to European Cinema Gábor Gergely, Susan Hayward, 2021-12-29 Presenting new and diverse scholarship this wide ranging collection of 43 original chapters asks what European cinema tells us about Europe The book engages with European cinema that attends to questions of European colonial racialized and gendered power seeks to decentre Europe itself not merely its putative centres and interrogate Europe's various conceptualizations from a variety of viewpoints It explores the broad complex and heterogeneous communities produced in and by European films taking in Kurdish Hollywood and Singapore cinema as comfortably as the cinema of Poland Spanish colonial films or the European gangster genre Chapters cover numerous topics including individual films film movements filmmakers stars scholarship representations and identities audiences production practices genres and more all analysed in their contexts so as to construct an image of Europe as it emerges from Europe's film corpus The Companion opens the study of European cinema to a broad readership and is ideal for students and scholars in film European studies queer studies and cultural studies as well as historians with an interest in audio visual culture nationalism and transnationalism and those working in language based area studies

European Cinema in Motion D. Berghahn, C. Sternberg, 2010-08-10 This collection brings together international experts on the cinema of migration and diaspora in postcolonial and postnational Europe It offers a comprehensive theoretical and analytical discussion of a highly productive creative sector and documents the spectrum of this area of exploration in European transnational and World Cinema studies Pop Culture in Europe Juliana Tzvetkova, 2017-10-12 A fascinating survey of popular culture in Europe from Celtic punk and British TV shows to Spanish fashion and Italian sports From One Direction and Adele to Penelope Cruz and Alexander Skarsgard many Europeans are becoming household names in the United States This ready reference guide covers international pop culture spanning music literature movies television and radio the Internet sports video games and fashion from the mid 20th century through the present day The organization of the book with entries arranged alphabetically within thematic chapters allows readers to quickly find the topic they are seeking Additionally indexing allows for cross cultural comparisons to be made between pop culture in Europe to that of the United States An extensive chronology and lengthy introduction provide important contextual information such as the United States influence on movies music and the Internet the effect of censorship on Internet and social media use and the history of pop culture over the years Topics feature key musicians songs books actors and actresses movies and television shows popular websites top athletes games clothing fads and designers and much more The New European Cinema Rosalind Galt, 2006 Rosalind Galt offers innovative readings of some of the most popular and influential European films of the 1990s including Emir Kusturica's Underground Lars Von Trier's Zentropa and Giuseppe Tornatore's Cinema Paradiso The European Cinema Reader Catherine Fowler, 2002 This comprehensive introduction to national cinemas in Europe brings together classic writings by key filmmakers such as Sergei Eisenstein Luis Buñuel and John Grierson and critics from Andre Bazin to Peter Wollen The Figure of the Migrant in Contemporary European Cinema Temenuga Trifonova, 2020-07-09 The Figure of the Migrant in Contemporary European Cinema explores contemporary debates around the concepts of Europe and European identity through an examination of recent European films dealing with various aspects of globalization the refugee crisis labour migration the resurgence of nationalism and ethnic violence neoliberalism post colonialism with a particular attention to the figure of the migrant and the ways in which this figure challenges us to rethink Europe and its core Enlightenment values citizenship justice ethics liberty tolerance and hospitality in a post national context of ephemerality volatility and contingency that finds people desperately looking for firmer markers of identity The book argues that a compelling case can be made for re orienting the study of contemporary European cinema around the figure of the migrant viewed both as a symbolic figure representing post national citizenship urbanization the gap between ethics and justice and as a figure occupying an increasingly central place in European cinema in general rather than only in what is usually called migrant and diasporic cinema By drawing attention to the structural and affective affinities between the experience of migrants and non migrants Europeans and non Europeans Trifonova shows that it is becoming increasingly difficult to separate stories about migration from stories about life under neoliberalism in general

Women at Work in Twenty-First-Century European Cinema Barbara Mennel, 2019-01-30 From hairdressers and caregivers to reproductive workers and power suited executives images of women's labor have powered a fascinating new movement within twenty first century European cinema Social realist dramas capture precarious working conditions Comedies exaggerate the habits of the global managerial class Stories from countries battered by the global financial crisis emphasize the patriarchal family debt and unemployment Barbara Mennel delves into the ways these films about female labor capture the tension between feminist advances and their appropriation by capitalism in a time of ongoing transformation Looking at independent and genre films from a cross section of European nations Mennel sees a focus on economics and work adapted to the continent's varied kinds of capitalism and influenced by concepts in second wave feminism More than ever narratives of work put female characters front and center and female directors behind the camera Yet her analysis shows that each film remains a complex mix of progressive and retrogressive dynamics as it addresses the changing nature of work in Europe

Classical Masculinity and the Spectacular Body on Film D. O'Brien, 2014-10-29 The muscle bound male body is a perennial feature of classically inflected action cinema This book reassesses these films as a cinematic form focusing on the depiction of heroic masculinity In particular Hercules in his many incarnations has greatly influenced popular cultural interpretations of manliness and the exaggerated male form

European Cinema after 1989 L. Rivi, 2007-12-09 The book examines cinema in post 1989 Europe by looking at how the new post Cold War cinematographic co productions articulate the political and cultural objectives of a new Europe as they redefine a European identity

Euro-Visions Mariana Liz, 2016-09-22 Examines the meaning of Europe in contemporary art house and popular films from across the continent

European Film Music Miguel Mera, David Burnand, 2006 Miguel Mera and David Burnand present a volume that explores specific European filmic texts composers and approaches to film scoring that have hitherto been neglected Films involving British French German Greek Irish Italian Polish and Spanish composers are considered in detail Important issues that permeate all the essays involve the working relationship of composer and director the dialectic between the diegetic and non diegetic uses of music in films the music image synergism and the levels of realism that are created by the audio visual mix

Spanish Cinema in the Global Context Samuel Amago, 2013-09-11 Across a broad spectrum of media markets and national contexts self reflexivity continues to be a favored narrative mode with wide ranging functions In this book Amago argues that in addition to making visible industry and production concerns within the film text reflexive aesthetics have a cartographic function that serves to map the place of a film geographic and cultural within the global cinemascape and thus to bring into sharper relief images of the national Focusing on films in the contemporary Spanish context that in some way reflect back on themselves and the processes of their own production that purposefully blur the distinction between reality and fiction or that draw attention to the various modes of cinematic exhibition and reception Amago proposes ways in which these movies can be employed to understand Spanish national cinemas today as imbedded within a dynamic global system
