Bunt, 2018-09-25 Gary R Bunt is a twenty year pioneer in the study of cyber Islamic environments CIEs In his new book Bunt explores the diverse and surprising ways digital technology is shaping how Muslims across vast territories relate to religious authorities in fulfilling spiritual mystical and legalistic agendas From social networks to websites essential elements of religious practices and authority now have representation online Muslims embracing the immediacy and general accessibility of the internet are increasingly turning to cyberspace for advice and answers to important religious questions Online environments often challenge traditional models of authority however One result is the rise of digitally literate religious scholars and authorities whose influence and impact go beyond traditional boundaries of imams mullahs and shaikhs Bunt shows how online rhetoric and social media are being used to articulate religious faith by many different kinds of Muslim organizations and individuals from Muslim comedians and women s rights advocates to jihad oriented groups such as the

Islamic State and al Qaeda which now clearly rely on strategic digital media policies to augment and justify their authority and draw recruits This book makes clear that understanding CIEs is crucial for the holistic interpretation of authority in contemporary Islam Teaching Islam Jenny Berglund, Freedom of Religion, Apostasy and Islam Abdullah Saeed,2017-03-02 Debate on freedom of religion as a human right takes place not only in the Western world but also in Muslim communities throughout the world For Muslims concerned for this freedom one of the major difficulties is the punishment for apostasy death for those who desert Islam This book argues that the law of apostasy and its punishment by death in Islamic law is untenable in the modern period Apostasy conflicts with a variety of foundation texts of Islam and with the current ethos of human rights in particular the freedom to choose one's religion Demonstrating the early development of the law of apostasy as largely a religio political tool the authors show the diversity of opinion among early Muslims on the punishment highlighting the substantial ambiguities about what constitutes apostasy the problematic nature of some of the key textual evidence on which the punishment of apostasy is based and the neglect of a vast amount of clear Qur'anic texts in favour of freedom of religion in the construction of the law of apostasy Examining the significant challenges the punishment of apostasy faces in the modern period inside and outside Muslim communities exploring in particular how apostasy and its punishment is dealt with in a multi religious Muslim majority country Malaysia and the challenges and difficulties it faces there the authors discuss arguments by prominent Muslims today for an absolute freedom of religion and for discarding the punishment of apostasy Islam: The Key Concepts Kecia Ali,Oliver Leaman,2007-10-10 Islam The Key Concepts is a clear and concise guide to the religion and culture of Islam Kecia Ali and Oliver Leaman explore this highly topical subject focusing on key issues including the Qur'an faith theology gender fundamentalism martyrdom Jihad Islam in America Islam in Europe and Islamic Law This is the ideal study resource and includes a comprehensive introduction an alphabetical list of relevant terms fully cross referenced a short bibliographical guide bibliography and index A glossary of all non English terms is also provided Routledge Revivals: The Challenge of Islam (2005) Douglas Pratt,2016-10-04 First published in 2005 this book addresses the challenges arising from Christian Muslim encounter and attempts to enable outsiders to understand the religion of Islam The author offers distinctive perspectives that compliment much other literature in the study of Islam and in particular Christian Muslim relations and the relation of Islam and the west The book is divided into three parts Part I constitutes an introduction to Islam Part II delves into aspects of the wider encounter with Islam and Part III explores issues in regard to the prospect of engaging in dialogue with Islam The author argues that in the post 9 11 world the imperative to understand and engage with Islam is urgent and intends this work to assist the reader in doing so Social Justice in Islam Deina Abdelkader,2000-01-01 Western theoretical approaches of modernization development social progress and interaction have failed to understand the dynamics of the Islamic revival Deina Abdelkader in this seminal work argues that questions of social justice are indelibly tied to the phenomenon of contemporary Islamic resurgence as the quest for social justice is in fact motivated by the Shari'ah hence an integral part of Islamic life and weltanschauung Using the two tools of maqasid and maslahah and through the examination of the dialectical link between fiqh and reality the author shows their indispensability as important methodological tools for the study of the social sciences and indeed of social phenomena

Islam, Christianity and Tradition Ian Richard Netton, 2006-12-22 Offers a unique comparative exploration of the role of tradition in Islam and Christianity The idea of tradition has enjoyed a variety of senses and definitions in Islam and Christianity but both have cleaved at certain times to a supposedly golden age of tradition from the past The author suggests there has been a chain of thinkers from classical Islam to the twentieth century who share a common interest in ijtihad or independent thinking Drawing on past and present evidence and using Christian tradition as a focus for contrast and comparison the author highlights the seemingly paradoxical harmony between tradition and ijtihad in Islam The author draws on a variety of primary and secondary sources including contemporary
