Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1974 National Defense Resources Conference Industrial College of the Armed Forces (U.S.), 1975 Background Readings, 1976 National Security Seminar Industrial College of the Armed Forces

Or Reaction? Jack L. Nelson, 1970 EPIE Report EPIE Institute, 1975 Population Wars Greg Graffin, 2024-05-01 The evolution lecturer and front man for the punk band Bad Religion discusses how the mainstream view of evolutionary theory has led us astray Population Wars is a paradigm shifting look at why humans behave the way they do and the ancient history that explains that behavior In this eye opening book Greg Graffin points to where the mainstream view of evolutionary theory has led us astray Through tales of mass extinctions developing immune systems human warfare the American industrial heartland and our degrading modern environment Graffin demonstrates how that misunderstanding has allowed humans to justify war even when other solutions may be available Along the way he reveals a paradox When we challenge conventional definitions of war we are left with a new problem how to define ourselves Drawing Morals Thomas Hurka, 2011-07-18 This volume contains selected essays in moral and political philosophy by Thomas Hurka The essays address a wide variety of topics from the well rounded life and the value of playing games to proportionality in war and the ethics of nationalism They also share a common aim to illuminate the surprising richness and subtlety of our everyday moral thought by revealing its underlying structure which they often do by representing that structure on graphs More specifically the essays all give what the first in the volume calls structural as against foundational analyses of moral views Eschewing the grander ambition of grounding our ideas about say virtue or desert in claims that use different concepts and concern some other allegedly more fundamental topic they examine these ideas in their own right and with close attention to their details As well as illuminating their individual topics the essays illustrate the insights this structural method can yield Fear Itself Nancy Lusignan Schultz, 1999 This collection contains twenty seven new essays on American paranoia drawn from a range of disciplines including American studies film studies history literature religious studies and sociology It s arranged by topic and largely in chronological order explore manifestations of fear throughout the history of the United States Approaching the topic from a variety of perspectives and methodologies contributors to the collection explore theoretical constructions of fear religious intolerance in early American culture racial discrimination literary expressions of paranoia and Cold War anxieties as well as phobias of the modern age and about the future Together these essays cover topics from nearly every period of U S history offering a remarkable picture of the nameless unreasoning unjustified terror that Roosevelt discerned as such a paralyzing threat on the eve of the Second World War and which continues to haunt American culture even as we shape our perceptions of the future Thomas D. Turner, 2011-05 Duncan an archeologist finds a satellite city of Atlantis inside a mountain After his team excavates the site the archeologist becomes ill and he goes into a coma While unconscious Duncan experiences the last days of the Atlantian Empire In Duncan s adventures he sees the political struggles which lead to the demise of Atlantis The Atlantians have to fight for their race as their competing empires have different religions politics and greed Honor duty friendship and religion are the only things that can keep them from being completely wiped off the face of the Earth Day gun the Atlantian emperor s son sees what his friends and family will do to for their empire Daygun has to make hard decisions for his homeland When Duncan comes back from his adventures he looks at the world differently In his mind it is not his discovery of the lost city but what he sees in the similarities of today s world
