Populism and Imperialism Nathan Jessen, 2017-07-14 In the final years of the nineteenth century as a large scale movement of farmers and laborers swept much the country the United States engaged in an ostensibly anti colonial war against Spain and a colonial war of its own in the Philippines How one related to the other the nature of the activists involvement in foreign policy debates and the influence of these wars upon the prospects for domestic reform is what Nathan Jessen explores in Populism and Imperialism American reformers at the turn of the twentieth century have long been misrepresented as accomplices of empire Rather as Populism and Imperialism makes clear they were imperialism s chief opponents and that opposition contributed to their ultimate defeat Correcting the record Jessen charts the fortunes of the Populists through the nineteenth century s last decade He shows that contrary to the standard narrative Populists remained powerful in West after the election of 1896 they only suffered their final political reverses in 1900 after being branded as unpatriotic traitors by their opponents In fact the Populists and Democrats in the West favored war with Spain for humanitarian reasons some among them led the opposition to Hawaiian annexation and as leaders of the anti imperialists in Congress from 1899 on the occupation of the Philippines Jessen also addresses the little studied money power conspiracy theory that explains a key element of the Populist worldview This theory linking European imperialism and the growing economic and political power of financiers stirred Populist opposition to American imperialism as well Populism and Imperialism revises a critical chapter in US history and offers lessons for the present as well as insights into the nation s past

Ficken,2022-01-24 Rufus Woods editor and publisher of the Wenatchee Daily World for more than forty years has been called the High Priest of the Columbia River From his editorial platform Woods tirelessly promoted Wenatchee and north central Washington and advocated for Columbia River development He pegged his brightest hopes on a huge dam to be built in the isolated Grand Coulee region A founding member of the Dam University Woods through the World helped to keep the drive for the structure alive From 1918 through Grand Coulee s completion in 1941 he was the leading promoter of the largest dam building project in American history Utilizing his newspaper and his extensive political contacts at state and national levels Woods helped convince President Franklin Roosevelt Congress and the Bureau of Reclamation that the grandiose scheme was attainable Where others despaired he never faltered Speaking before the 1942 Grand Coulee High School graduating class Woods proudly boasted of the accomplishment that he helped see to reality So here it stands a monument to the idea and the power of an idea a monument to an organization a monument to cooperation You class of 1942 could you come back here in a thousand years hence you would hear the sojourners talking as they behold this slab of concrete and you would hear them say Here in 1942 indeed there once lived a great people Woods got his dam but not the Wenatchee boom he desired Possible only because of federal financing those in control imposed a vast maze of power lines emanating from the dam s huge hydroelectric plant Cities like Portland and Seattle benefited from its power much more than Wenatchee Even so Woods s beloved adopted home grew tremendously during his lifetime and much of that economic development can be attributed to his single minded efforts
