The Spanish Civil War, the Soviet Union, and Communism Stanley G. Payne, 2008-10-01 In this compelling book Stanley G Payne offers the first comprehensive narrative of Soviet and Communist intervention in the revolution and civil war in Spain He documents in unprecedented detail Soviet strategies Comintern activities and the role of the Communist party in Spain from the early 1930s to the end of the civil war in 1939 Drawing on a very broad range of Soviet and Spanish primary sources including many only recently available Payne changes our understanding of Soviet and Communist intentions in Spain of Stalin's decision to intervene in the Spanish war of the widely accepted characterization of the conflict as the struggle of fascism against democracy and of the claim that Spain's war constituted the opening round of World War II. The author arrives at a new view of the Spanish Civil War and concludes not only that the Democratic Republic had many undemocratic components but also that the position of the Communist party was by no means counterrevolutionary revolución española vista por una republicana Clara Campoamor, Neus Samblancat Miranda, 2002 Se describen las impresiones de Clara Campoamor de los sucesos acaecidos en Madrid entre julio y agosto de 1936 que corresponden a los prolegomenos de la Revolución y al estallido de la Guerra Civil Española. Margarita Nelken Pelayo Jardón Pardo de Santayana, 2013-01-01 Con ocasión de la política feminista que tuvo lugar en las primeras décadas del siglo XX la periodista madrileña Margarita Nelken 1894-1968 preconizó la reforma de aquellas normas jurídicas y usos sociales que por su carácter androcentrico discriminaban a la mujer española. En aras de mejorar la condición femenina y por ende de equilibrar las relaciones de poder entre ambos sexos promovió la formación intelectual y laboral de la mujer su incorporación al mercado de trabajo su independencia económica y su emancipación moral y política respecto al varón. A pesar de tal bagaje tras ser elegida diputada en 1931 apenas proyectó su actividad política en la salvaguardia de los intereses feministas a los que antepuso otra clase de objetivos como la revolución social según el modelo comunista y la defensa de la República durante la Guerra Civil. On the occasion of the feminist polemic that took place in the first decades of the twentieth century the Madrilenian journalist Margarita Nelken 1894-1968 advocated the reform of those judicial norms and social uses that for their androcentric perspective discriminated against Spanish women. In order to improve the feminine condition and hence to balance the relations of power between both sexes she promoted the intellectual and technical formation of women their incorporation into the work market their economic independence and their moral and political emancipation with respect to the male. Despite having such a large amount of acquired knowledge after being elected a Member of Parliament in 1931 she hardly projected her political activity in the safeguard of feminist interests giving precedence to other classes of objectives such as the social revolution according to the communist model and the defence of the Republic during the Civil War.
