Pornography, Psychedelics and Technology (Routledge Revivals) E. Mishan, 2013-02-01 First published in 1980 Pornography Psychedelics and Technology Essays on the Limits to Freedom focuses on the crucial connections between technological growth and the more salient features of social malaise in the latter part of the twentieth century Professor Mishan is one of the few economists absorbed by the larger social questions and does not believe that the growth in state intervention and the decline of social liberty are simply the result of intellectual confusion and bureaucratic momentum He sees them as unavoidable consequences of scientific and technical progress While agreeing with many of his fellow economists in acknowledging the virtues of a competitive market economy Professor Mishan is acutely aware of its limitations Following the growth of self styled liberation movements seen as manifestations of a move towards a world of greater individual emancipation and fulfilment the author nevertheless groups such movements together with the rising indices of violence suicide family breakdown and hooliganism which have become indicative of a growing disorientation and social disintegration These developments and the hazards they entail however are bound up with the rapid scientific and technological progress of the post war world Pornography, Psychedelics, and Technology E. Mishan, 1980-01-01 The Fourth Wave Herman Maynard, Susan E. Mehrtens, 1996-08-31 Applying the concept of historical waves originally propounded by Alvin Toffler in The Third Wave Herman Maynard and Susan Mehrtens look toward the next century and foresee a fourth wave an era of integration and responsibility far beyond Toffler's revolutionary description of third wave postindustrial society Whether we attain this stage of global well being however will depend on how well our business institutions adapt and change The Fourth Wave examines the ways business has changed in the second and third waves and must continue to change in the fourth The changes concern the basics how an institution is organized how it defines wealth how it relates to surrounding communities how it responds to environmental needs and how it takes part in the political process Maynard and Mehrtens foresee a radically different future in which business principles concern for the environment personal integrity and spiritual values are integrated The authors also demonstrate the need for a new kind of leadership managers and CEOs who embrace an attitude of global stewardship who define their assets as ideas information creativity and vision and who strive for seamless boundaries between work and private lives for all employees The

Kaufman,2016-06-22 This book compares two competing theories of human nature the more traditional theory espoused in different forms by centuries of western philosophy and the newer Darwinian model In the traditional view the human being is a hybrid being with a lower animal nature and a higher rational or spiritual component The competing Darwinian account does away with the idea of a higher nature and attempts to provide a complete reduction of human nature to the evolutionary goals of survival and reproduction Whitley Kaufman presents the case that the traditional conception regardless of one s religious views or other beliefs provides a superior account of human nature and culture We are animals but we are also rational animals Kaufman explores the most fundamental philosophical questions as they relate to this debate over human nature for example Is free will an illusion Is morality a product of evolution with no objective basis Is reason merely a tool for promoting reproductive success Is art an adaptation for attracting mates Is there any higher meaning or purpose to human life Human Nature and the Limits of Darwinism aims to assess the competing views of human nature and present a clear account of the issues on this most pressing of questions It engages in a close analysis of the numerous recent attempts to explain all human aims in terms of Darwinian processes and presents the arguments in support of the traditional conception of human nature

demonstrates how the mass media constructs a politics of fear in America He argues that politicians and decision makers bear much of the blame for the promotion of fear among citizens resulting in the loss of civil liberties in return for greater protection From a social interactionist perspective Altheide presents his thesis that fear as entertainment informs the production of popular culture and news generates profits enables political decision makers to cynically manipulate citizens and can lead to major institutional changes even war The author dissects in turn a modern propaganda campaign in the justification of the invasion of Iraq to the American people the expansion of control and surveillance on the Internet and the construction of a hero fighting terrorism to promote patriotism in the story of a promising young Arizona sports hero Pat Tillman who joined the Army and was killed by his fellow Rangers in Afghanistan This thoughtful treatment of a timely subject will be indispensable to teachers and students of sociology media politics and criminology studies     The Jersey Effect Hunter Smith,Darrin Gray,2012 The Jersey Effect takes a look into the hearts and minds of athletes who achieved Super Bowl success and examines the battles they faced It presents the stories of champions who desired to reflect glory back to God by using their jersey and the platform God gave them to make a positive difference in the world Even so sometimes their great intentions were hijacked by pride materialism distractions and deficiencies within their own character that were never truly understood until the ultimate success came their way Intended for players coaches and parents who want to learn and in turn teach important lessons about how to properly align a love of sports with God s heart The Jersey Effect demonstrates how to pursue the ultimate prize a goal that has little to do with winning a championship ring and everything to do with how we can have a positive effect on those around us through the sports we love     Index of Economic Articles in Journals and Collective Volumes ,1985     Subject Catalog, 1982 Library of Congress,1982
