Reigelman,Zuzanna Szatanik,2011-01-01 The present book explores a variety of fundamental questions that all of us secretly share Its twenty one chapters written by some of the world s leading Melville and Conrad scholars indicate possible directions of comparativist insight into the continuity and transformations of western existentialist thought between the 19th and 20th centuries The existential philosophy of participation so mistrustful of analytical categories is epitomized by the lives and oeuvres of Melville and Conrad Born in the immediacy of experience this philosophy finds its expression in uncertain tropes and faith based actions rather than muffle the horror vacui with words it plunges head first into liminality where logos dissolves into a positive nothing Unlike analytical philosophers both Melville and Conrad refrain from talking about reality they expose those who would listen to a first hand experience of participation in an interpretive act Employing literary tropes to denude the essence of the human condition they allow their readers to transgress the limitations of language Mistrustful of language they accept the necessity of discourse which to make sense must be actively reshaped endlessly questioned and constantly revised And if uncertainty is the only certainty available to us our lowly human condition also necessitates
