Borderlands Gesellschaft für die Neuen Englischsprachigen Literaturen. Conference, 1999 Boundaries borderlines limits on the one hand and rites of passage contact zones in between spaces on the other have attracted renewed interest in a broad variety of cultural discourses after a long period of decenterings and delimitations in numerous fields of social psychological and intellectual life Anthropological dimensions of the subject and its multifarious ways of world making represent the central challenge among the concerns of the humanities The role of literature and the arts in the formation of cultural and personal identities theoretical and political approaches to the relation between self and other the familiar and the foreign have become key issues in literary and cultural studies forms of expressivity and expression and question of mediation as well as new enquiries into ethics have characterized the intellectual energies of the past decade The aim of Borderlands is to represent a variety of approaches to questions of border crossing and boundary transgression approaches from different angles and different disciplines but all converging in their own way on the post colonial paradigm Topics discussed include globalization cartography and ontology transitional identity ecocritical sensibility questions of the application of post coloniality gender and sexuality and attitudes towards space and place As well as studies of the cinema of the settler colonies the films of Neil Jordan and Othering in Canadian sports journalism there are treatments of the Nigerian novel South African prison memoirs and African women s writing Authors examined include Elizabeth Bowen Bruce Chatwin Mohamed Choukri Nuruddin Farah Jamaica Kincaid Pauline Melville Bharati Mukherjee Michael Ondaatje and Leslie Marmon Silko The Lamp , 1904 Identity and Image Jutta Vinzent, 2006-06-22 This book explores the image and identity of migr painters sculptors and graphic artists from Nazi Germany in Britain between 1933 and 1945 It focuses on a neglected field of Exile Studies that of exiled artists in Britain Methodologies used in this study have been developed by Exile Studies and History of Art but also by Postcolonialism scholars of which usually apply their ideas to the Afro Asian emigration of the second part of the twentieth century Thus this study represents methodologically a new way of looking at the emigration from Nazi Germany Identity and Image is divided into five chapters After an introductory Chapter One historiography of the topic methodology of the study structure of the book Chapter Two establishes socio political patterns of emigration and provides an historical framework for Chapters Three and Four which concentrate on the image and identity of the refugee artist the former based on written sources and the latter on visual material In detail Chapter Three analyses the British image of the refugee artists and their works on the one hand and the migr s self representations on the other the latter exemplified by refugee organisations the Free German League of Culture Freier Deutscher Kulturbund the Austrian Centre the Anglo Sudeten Club and the Czech Institute and institutions founded by migr artists Jack Bilbo s Modern Art Gallery and Arthur Segal s Painting School Chapter Four examines the works produced in internment and those exhibited and produced for the refugee organisations discussed in Chapter Three Chapter Five discusses the results of this study in the light of three postcolonial concepts diaspora communities the notion of home and the gendered identity of the refugee The appendix lists all painters sculptors and graphic artists from Nazi Germany in Britain with biographical details Apart from visual and written sources discussed for the first time there are two major results of the study First although the artists were united as refugees this unity did not lead to a unity in art refugee art is a construction put forward by the British press and the refugee organisations particularly the Free German League of Culture Second contrary to claims that modern art was international and formed a universal unity that transgressed nationality neither the West Europe nor modernism form unities instead in the 1930s and 1940s cultures in Europe constructed conceptions of other European cultures on the basis of nation state identities

James Joyce and the Exilic Imagination Michael Patrick Gillespie, 2015-05-04 In this book Michael Gillespie provides new readings of James Joyce's main oeuvre through the lens of exile studies and in doing so challenges the tendency in Joyce criticism to give more weight to reading that stress his negative view of Ireland

Hélène Cixous Nicholas Royle, 2020-07-28 A lucid original and inventive critical introduction to Helene Cixous 1937 Royle offers close readings of many of her works from Inside 1969 to the present He foregrounds Cixous's importance for English literature as well as creative writing autobiography narrative theory psychoanalysis ecology gender studies and queer theory

The Cavaliers in Exile 1640-1660 G. Smith, 2003-11-03 As a consequence of their support for the royalist cause in the English civil wars several hundred Cavaliers often accompanied by their families went into exile in Europe for periods ranging from a few weeks to twenty years This is an original ground breaking study that identifies which Cavaliers went into exile and explains how they coped with the wide range of circumstances that they encountered in the different countries in which they settled

The Medici: Portraits and Politics 1512-1570 Keith Christiansen, Carlo Falciani, Andrea Bayer, Elizabeth Cropper, Davide Gasparotto, Sefy Hendler, Antonella Fenech Kroke, Tommaso Mozzati, Elizabeth Pilliod, Julia Siemon, Linda Wolk-Simon, 2021-04-19 Between 1512 and 1570 Florence underwent dramatic political transformations As citizens jockeyed for prominence portraits became an essential means not only of recording a likeness but also of conveying a sitter's character social position and cultural ambitions This fascinating book explores the ways that painters including Jacopo Pontormo Agnolo Bronzino and Francesco Salviati sculptors such as Benvenuto Cellini and artists in other media endowed their works with an erudite and self consciously stylish character that made Florentine portraiture distinctive The Medici family had ruled Florence without interruption between 1434 and 1494 Following their return to power in 1512 Cosimo I de Medici who became the second Duke of Florence in 1537 demonstrated a particularly shrewd ability to wield culture as a political tool in order to transform Florence into a dynastic duchy and give Florentine art the central position it has held ever since Featuring more than ninety remarkable paintings sculptures works on paper and medals this volume is written by a team of leading international authors and presents a sweeping penetrating exploration of a crucial and vibrant period in Italian art

Handbook to the Reception of Ovid John F. Miller, Carole E. Newlands, 2014-09-23 A Handbook to the Reception of Ovid presents more than 30 original essays written by leading scholars revealing the rich diversity of critical engagement with Ovid's poetry that spans the Western tradition from antiquity to the present day Offers innovative perspectives on Ovid's poetry and its reception from antiquity to the present day Features contributions from more than 30 leading scholars in the Humanities Introduces familiar and unfamiliar figures in the history of Ovidian reception Demonstrates the enduring and transformative power of Ovid's poetry into modern times Art and Love in Renaissance Italy Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Kimbell Art Museum, 2008 Many famous artworks of the Italian Renaissance were made to celebrate love marriage and family They were the pinnacles of a tradition dating from early in the era of commemorating betrothals marriages and the birth of children by commissioning extraordinary objects maiolica glassware jewels textiles paintings that were often also exchanged as gifts This volume is the first comprehensive survey of artworks arising from Renaissance rituals of love and marriage and makes a major contribution to our understanding of Renaissance art in its broader cultural context The impressive range of works gathered in these pages extends from birth trays painted in the early fifteenth century to large canvases on mythological themes that Titian painted in the mid 1500s Each work of art would have been recognized by contemporary viewers for its prescribed function within the private domestic domain BOOK JACKET The Museum on the Roof of the World Clare E. Harris, 2012-10-30 For millions of people around the world Tibet is a domain of undisturbed tradition the Dalai Lama a spiritual guide By contrast the Tibet Museum opened in Lhasa by the Chinese in 1999 was designed to reclassify Tibetan objects as cultural relics and the Dalai Lama as obsolete Suggesting that both these views are suspect Clare E Harris argues in The Museum on the Roof of the World that for the past one hundred and fifty years British and Chinese collectors and curators have tried to convert Tibet itself into a museum an image some Tibetans have begun to contest This book is a powerful account of the museums created by for or on behalf of Tibetans and the nationalist agendas that have played out in them Harris begins with the British public's first encounter with Tibetan culture in 1854 She then examines the role of imperial collectors and photographers in representations of the region and visits competing museums of Tibet in India and Lhasa Drawing on fieldwork in Tibetan communities she also documents the activities of contemporary Tibetan artists as they try to displace the utopian visions of their country prevalent in the West as well as the negative assessments of their heritage common in China Illustrated with many previously unpublished images this book addresses the pressing question of who has the right to represent Tibet in museums and beyond Exiles in a Global City Clare Lois Carroll, 2017-11-06 In Exiles in a Global City Clare Carroll explores Irish migrants' experiences in early modern Rome 1609 1783 and interprets representations of their cultural identities in relation to their interaction with world wide Spanish and Roman institutions This study focuses on some sources in Roman archives not previously considered by Irish historians The book examines a wide array of cultural productions Cian in s account of O'Neill's progress from Ireland to Rome Luke

Wadding's history of the Franciscan order the portraits at S Isidoro the first printed Irish grammar the letters of Oliver Plunkett the records of a hospice for converts Charles Wogan's memoir and reports on the national college for how they transformed emerging senses of an Irish nation Looking Back for Jehoiachin James R. Critchlow, 2013-01-15 Looking Back for Jehoiachin examines the life and legacy of the last living Davidic king during the Babylonian captivity It investigates the names Yehoyachin Yeconiah and Coniah in the Hebrew Bible Yechonias in the Septuagint Intertestamental literature and the New Testament It also surveys those extrabiblical inscriptions that contribute to a thorough account of this king The ninety to one hundred day evil tenure of Jehoiachin and his exile to Babylon should have finalized the evaluation of his reign but the revision of his legacy into a thoroughgoing hagiography in Josephus the rabbinic writings and the New Testament is notable Jehoiachin's is the linking name between Abraham David and Jesus Christ in the genealogy list of Matthew 1 Jehoiachin's captivity provides a fascinating study on the longevity of the promises of the Old Testament for a future eternal King of Judah and Israel
