Society and Culture in Early Modern France

Natalie Zemon Davis, 1975 These essays three of them previously unpublished explore the competing claims of innovation and tradition among the lower orders in sixteenth century France The result is a wide ranging view of the lives and values of men and women artisans tradesmen the poor who because they left little or nothing in writing have hitherto had little attention from scholars The first three essays consider the social vocational and sexual context of the Protestant Reformation its consequences for urban women and the new attitudes toward poverty shared by Catholic humanists and Protestants alike in sixteenth century Lyon The next three essays describe the links between festive play and youth groups domestic dissent and political criticism in town and country the festive reversal of sex roles and political order and the ritualistic and dramatic structure of religious riots The final two essays discuss the impact of printing on the quasi literate and the collecting of common proverbs and medical folklore by learned students of the people during the Ancien R gime The book includes eight pages of illustrations Arts, Portraits and Representation in the Reformation Era Patrizio Foresta, Federica

Meloni, Zsombor Tóth, Christopher B. Brown, Günter Frank, Bruce Gordon, Barbara Mahlmann-Bauer, Tarald Rasmussen, Violet Soen, Günther Wassilowsky, Siegrid Westphal, 2019-07-15 The role played by artistic literary historical and theological representations in the establishment of the European Reformation has attracted scholarly attention over the years While they were generally regarded as a significant means of conveying the evangelical message particularly in a society with a low average literacy rate this scholarly consensus was then seriously challenged by objecting that their meaning must have remained opaque to those who couldn t read and interpret their sometimes multilayered imagery and their verbal and figurative messages This volume which publishes some of the papers delivered at the Fourth Reformation Research Consortium Conference held in Bologna May 15th 17th 2014 is an attempt to examine the visual intelligibility of the European Reformation by a comparative multiconfessional and multidisciplinary analysis of examples taken from both the Catholic and the Protestant world in the Early Modern and Modern Era with particular reference to the figurative arts but also to history and theology All the case studies included here examine their peculiar subjects with regard to their religious and artistic contexts in order to understand their historical significance in a new fashion combining approaches from political history history of arts historiography anthropology philosophy and theology Thus the volume offers a very rich outline of how visual culture and representation through arts was embodied in very different cultural portraits and images The Image

der Welt des Islam vom Mittelalter bis in die Gegenwart vergegenwärtigt wurde History's Beauties Lara Perry, 2006 The beauties women of note who were welcomed to the National Portrait Gallery's early collection were those whose lives and portraits were recognized as significant to the civil ecclesiastical and literary history of the nation This brief was interpreted to include figures as diverse as the devout Lady Margaret Beaufort and the entertaining Lady Emma Hamilton History's Beauties the first detailed study of this collection maps a culture of femininity that reframes the Victorian fascination with women's domestic and sentimental presence by locating it within a Parliament-centred national culture Canones: The Art of Harmony Alessandro Bausi, Bruno Reudenbach, Hanna Wimmer, 2020-11-23 The so-called Canon Tables of the Christian Gospels are an absolutely remarkable feature of the early late antique and medieval Christian manuscript cultures of East and West the invention of which is commonly attributed to Eusebius and dated to first decades of the fourth century AD Intended to host a technical device for structuring organizing and navigating the Four Gospels united in a single codex and in doing so building upon and bringing to completion previous endeavours the Canon Tables were apparently from the beginning a highly complex combination of text numbers and images that became an integral and fixed part of all the manuscripts containing the Four Gospels as Sacred Scripture of the Christians and can be seen as exemplary for the formation development and spreading of a specific Christian manuscript culture across East and West AD 300 and 800 In the footsteps of Carl Nordenfalk's masterly publication of 1938 and few following contributions this book offers an updated overview on the topic of Canon Tables in a comparative perspective and with a precise look at their context of origin their visual appearance their meaning function and their usage in different times domains and cultures The Reinvention of Obscenity Joan DeJean, 2002-06 The concept of obscenity is an ancient one But as Joan DeJean suggests its modern form the same version that today's politicians decry and savvy artists exploit was invented in seventeenth-century France The Reinvention of Obscenity casts a fresh light on the mythical link between sexual impropriety and things French Exploring the complicity between censorship print culture and obscenity DeJean argues that mass market printing and the first modern censorial machinery came into being at the very moment that obscenity was being reinvented that is transformed from a minor literary phenomenon into a threat to society DeJean's principal case in this study is the career of Molière who cannily exploited the new link between indecency and female genitalia to found his career as a print author the enormous scandal which followed his play Lecole des femmes made him the first modern writer to have his sex life dissected in the press Keenly alert to parallels with the currency of obscenity in contemporary America The Reinvention of Obscenity will concern not only scholars of French history but anyone interested in the intertwined histories of sex publishing and censorship Modern Philology, 1925 Vols 30-54 include 1932-1956 of Victorian bibliography prepared by a committee of the Victorian Literature Group of the Modern Language Association of America Rewriting the Self Roy Porter, 2002-09-09 Rewriting the Self is an exploration of ideas of the self in the western cultural tradition from the Renaissance to the Present The contributors analyse
