

dominated by their shining truths. In adhering to the restriction of space, the number of titles selected corresponded to the number of weeks in a year. For many, this may facilitate the devotional use of this writing.

After I had embarked on this intriguing Bible study, the question posed itself to me, "Why are there so many names and titles for Christ?" No other personage of history seems to have more than one main title, for example Alexander the Great, William the Conqueror, Washington the Father of His Country. But Jesus Christ had over one hundred names and titles. Why this polysyllabic quality of our Lord?

Is it not because although a name is descriptive it is also restrictive? It states that a person is this or not that. A name or a title has a self-imposed limitation and no one could begin to describe or define Jesus Christ by one name. He is the Unnamable One. His glory and His greatness defy description and definition.

One of the best ways to know and understand Christ is to perceive the portrait that is put together by the mosaic of names and titles revealed in Scripture. Each name and title reveals some unique aspect of His person and His purpose. These names and titles are an index to the nature of Christ.

Thus a study of the names and titles of Christ can prove most salutary to the Christian. May this study lead us to know Christ better, and knowing Him to love Him, and loving Him to serve Him and reveal His love and power to a world in crisis.
