Revolutionary Soviet Film Posters Mildred Constantine, Alan Fern, 1974      Revolutionary Soviet Film Posters Mildred Constantine, Alan Maxwell Fern, 1974      Revolutionary soviet film-posters Mildred Constantine, 1972      Revolutionary Soviet Film Posters Mildred Constantine, Alan Maxwell Fern, 1974      Historical Dictionary of Russian and Soviet Cinema Peter Rollberg, 2016-07-20 Russian and Soviet cinema occupies a unique place in the history of world cinema. Legendary filmmakers such as Sergei Eisenstein, Vsevolod Pudovkin, Dziga Vertov, Andrei Tarkovsky, and Sergei Paradjanov have created oeuvres that are being screened and studied all over the world. The Soviet film industry was different from others because its main criterion of success was not profit but the ideological and aesthetic effect on the viewer. Another important feature is Soviet cinema's multinational Eurasian character, while Russian cinema was the largest. Other national cinemas such as Georgian, Kazakh, and Ukrainian played a decisive role for Soviet cinema as a whole. The Historical Dictionary of Russian and Soviet Cinema provides a rich tapestry of factual information together with detailed critical assessments of individual artistic accomplishments. This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Russian and Soviet Cinema contains a chronology, an introduction, and a bibliography. The dictionary section has over 600 cross-referenced entries on directors, performers, cinematographers, composers, designers, producers, and studios. This book is an excellent access point for students, researchers, and anyone wanting to know more about Russian and Soviet Cinema.

The Russian Revolution and Civil War 1917-1921 Jonathan Smele, 2006-04-15 The Russian Revolution and Civil War in the years 1917 to 1921 is one of the most widely studied periods in history. It is also somewhat inevitably one that has generated a huge flow of literature in the decades that have passed since the events themselves. However, until now, historians of the revolution have had no dedicated bibliography of the period and little claim to bibliographical control over the literature. The Russian Revolution and Civil War 1917-1921 offers for the first time a comprehensive bibliographical guide to this crucial and fascinating period of history. The Bibliography focuses on the key years of 1917 to 1921, starting with the February Revolution of 1917 and concluding with the 10th Party Congress of March 1921, and covers all the key events of the intervening years. As such, it identifies these crucial years as something more than simply the creation of a communist state.

The Politics of the Soviet Cinema 1917-1929 Richard Taylor, 2008-10-30 The book provides an illuminating background of the political history of the Soviet cinema in the twenties.

The Silent Film Poster Nina Ivanovna Baburina, 2001 Includes a comprehensive introductory essay on the history of the film poster. Presents 161 full-page color posters. Includes biographies of the designers featured. The film poster, the youngest in the poster family, inherited many generic features of the commercial advertisement: the drive and energy and the abundance of information. However, it was necessary for the film poster to distinguish itself from the collage of advertisements as an announcement of a motion picture. Its artistic design had to imply the most characteristic and easily recognizable features of the film: what impressed the audience most, the very idea of the motion picture. This intriguing
