Revolutions Trilogy:

Bloomsbury Good Reading Guide Nick Rennison, 2009-11-23 Deciding what to read next when you've just finished an unputdownable novel can be a daunting task. The Bloomsbury Good Reading Guide features hundreds of authors and thousands of titles with navigation features to lead you on a rich journey through some of the best literature to grace our shelves.

The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater Fran Mason, 2009-07-23 Postmodernist literature embraces a wide range of forms and perspectives including texts that are primarily self-reflexive texts that use pastiche, burlesque, parody, intertextuality, and hybrid forms to create textual realities that either run in opposition to or in parallel with an external reality. Fabulations that develop both of these strategies, texts that ironize their relationship to reality, works that use the aspects already noted to more fully engage with political or cultural realities, texts that deal with history as a fiction, and texts that elude categorization even within the variety already explored. For example, in fiction a postmodernist novel might tell a story about a writer struggling with writing, only perhaps to find that he is a character in a book by another writer struggling to write a book. The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater examines the different areas of postmodernist literature and the variety of forms that have been produced. This is accomplished through a chronology, an introductory essay, a bibliography, and several hundred cross-referenced dictionary entries on individual postmodernist writers, the important postmodernist aesthetic practices, significant texts produced throughout the history of postmodernist writing, and important movements and ideas that have created a variety of literary approaches within the form. By placing these concerns within the historical, philosophical, and cultural contexts of postmodernism, this reference explores the frameworks within which postmodernist literature of the late twentieth and early twenty-first century operates.

Historical Dictionary of Postmodernist Literature and Theater Fran Mason, 2016-12-12 The main aim of the book has been to include writers, movements, forms of writing, and textual strategies, critical ideas, and texts that are significant in relation to postmodernist literature. In addition, important scholars, journals, and cultural processes have been included where these are felt to be relevant to an understanding of postmodernist writing. This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Postmodernist Literature and Theater contains a chronology, an introduction, and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has over 400 cross-referenced entries on postmodernist writers, the important postmodernist aesthetic practices, significant texts produced throughout the history of postmodernist writing, and important movements and ideas that have created a variety of literary approaches within the form. This book is an excellent access point for students, researchers, and anyone wanting to know more about the postmodernist literature and theater.

The Revolutions Trilogy John Banville, 2000 This trilogy of novels concerned with outstanding Renaissance scientists appears for the first time in one volume: DR COPERNICUS KEPLER and THE NEWTON LETTER.

Philosophy, Science, and History Lydia Patton, 2014-06-27 Philosophy, Science, and History: A Guide and Reader is a compact overview of the history and philosophy of science that aims to introduce students to the groundwork of the field and to stimulate innovative research The general introduction focuses on scientific theory change assessment discovery and pursuit Part I of the Reader begins with classic texts in the history of logical empiricism including Reichenbach's discovery justification distinction With careful reference to Kuhn's analysis of scientific revolutions the section provides key texts analyzing the relationship of HOPOS to the history of science including texts by Santayana Rudwick and Shapin and Schaffer Part II provides texts illuminating central debates in the history of science and its philosophy These include the history of natural philosophy Descartes Newton Leibniz Kant Hume and du Châtelet in a new translation induction and the logic of discovery including the Mill Whewell debate Duhem and Hanson and catastrophism versus uniformitarianism in natural history Playfair on Hutton and Lyell de Buffon Cuvier and Darwin The editor's introductions to each section provide a broader perspective informed by contemporary research in each area including related topics Each introduction furnishes proposals including thematic bibliographies for innovative research questions and projects in the classroom and in the field

Elemental Encounters in the Contemporary Irish Novel Claire McGrail Johnston, 2019-12-19 The underlying premise of this book is that reading is touching Words leap out of their beds and pierce flesh like a knife Storytelling breathes within the dynamic of encounters with air fire earth and water permeated by emotion imagination and touch These ideas are contextualized within ancient community rituals social justice gatherings pedagogical practices and map making The four elements are retrieved from exile as imaginative corporeal and generative substances that operate within stories like medicine bundles Reading becomes a Deleuzian enterprise of health a challenging experience that grasps Paulo Freire's generative themes and is simultaneously thought provoking and valuable The capacious literary space capable of housing this sensual ferment is the novel More verb than noun the novel is an elemental bundle that engages with flesh in all its manifestations This book spotlights Irish novels by John Banville and Mary Morrissy exploring how they revitalise the elements with sensual social and tactile textures

The End of the Charter Revolution Peter J. McCormick, 2014-12-15 The Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms became an entrenched part of the Canadian Constitution on April 17 1982 The Charter represented a significant change in Canadian constitutional order and carried the courts and the Supreme Court in particular decisively into some of the biggest controversies in Canadian politics Although the impact of the Charter on Canadian law and society was profound a new status quo has been established Even though there will be future Charter surprises and decisions that will claim news headlines Peter J McCormick argues that these cases will be occasional rather than frequent and that the Charter revolution is over Or as he puts it in his introduction I will tell a story about the Charter about the big ripples that have gradually but steadily died away such that the surface of the pond is now almost smooth The End of the Charter Revolution explores the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms beginning with a general historical background followed by a survey of the significant changes brought about as Charter decisions were made The book addresses a series of specific cases made before the Dickson Lamer and McLachlin Courts and then provides empirical data to support the argument that the Charter revolution has ended The Supreme Court has without question become a national institution of the first order but even though the Charter is a large part of why this has happened it is not Charter decisions that will showcase the exercise of this power in the future

Migrant Revolutions Valerie Kaussen, 2008-01-01 Migrant Revolution offers an overview of twentieth century Haitian literature placing its rich tradition in the context of transnational anti colonial politics Kaussen argues that the anti colonial politics of Haitian modernist literature is based on the philosophies of human rights that drove the Haitian Revolution and further that Haitian literary modernity has continually challenged the world colonial order including the contemporary era of globalization

J.M. Coetzee's Austerities Graham Bradshaw, Michael Neill, 2016-05-06 Representing a wide range of critical and theoretical perspectives this volume examines J M Coetzee's novels from Dusklands to Diary of a Bad Year The choice of essays reflects three broad goals aligning the South African dimension of Coetzee's writing with his late modernist aesthetic exploring the relationship between Coetzee's novels and his essays on linguistics and paying particular attention to his more recent fictional experiments These objectives are realized in essays focusing on among other matters the function of names and etymology in Coetzee's fiction the vexed relationship between art and politics in apartheid South Africa the importance of film in Coetzee's literary sensibility Coetzee's reworkings of Defoe the paradoxes inherent in confessional narratives ethics and the controversial politics of reading Disgrace intertextuality and the fictional self consciousness of Slow Man Through its pronounced emphasis on the novelist's later work the collection points towards a narrato political and linguistic reassessment of the Coetzee canon

Cormac McCarthy Erik Hage, 2010-03-16 Cormac McCarthy the author of such works as Blood Meridian All the Pretty Horses No Country for Old Men and The Road is one of America's greatest living writers an uncompromising examiner of the depths of human depravity the nature of evil and the bonds that endure This companion is intended for both the scholar and lay reader seeking a comprehensive understanding of

McCarthy's body of work Alphabetically ordered entries offer analysis of novels characters motifs allusions plays and themes as well as commentary on events people and places related to McCarthy scholarship Most entries include a selected bibliography for further reading A biographical introduction provides information on the life of this reclusive author and discussion topics are provided as an aid for instructors 100 Must-read Historical Novels Nick Rennison,2009-09-21 Historical fiction is a hugely popular genre of fiction providing fictional accounts or dramatizations of historical figures or events This latest guide in the highly successful Bloomsbury Must Reads series depicts 100 of the finest novels published in this sector with a further 500 recommendations A wide range of classic works and key authors are covered Peter Ackroyd Margaret Atwood Sarah Waters Victor Hugo and Robert Louis Stevenson to name a few If you want to expand your reading in this area or gain a deeper understanding of the genre this is the best place to start Inside you'll find An extended Introduction to historical fiction 100 titles highlighted A-Z by novel with 500 Read on recommendations Read on a theme categories Award winners and book club recommendations Women's Liberation and the Dialectics of Revolution Raya Dunayevskaya,1996 This collection of 35 years of Dunayevskaya's writings based on active participation interviews and meetings develops the dialectics of revolution which emerges from masses in motion including not only women and men but the forces of labour youth the black dimension and women's liberation Brushing History Against the Grain Qingxin Lin,2005-01-01 This book explores some essential features of the Chinese new historical fiction NHF and its socio cultural implications It argues that the NHF constitutes an oppositional discourse that rejects both the grand narrative of linear revolutionary history which dominates Chinese official historiography and naïve confidence in Chinese modernity The Problem of Slavery in the Age of Revolution Duncan Money,Jason Xidas,2017-07-05 How was it possible for opponents of slavery to be so vocal in opposing the practice when they were so accepting of the economic exploitation of workers in western factories many of which were owned by prominent abolitionists David Brion Davis's The Problem of Slavery in the Age of Revolution 1770-1823 uses the critical thinking skill of analysis to break down the various arguments that were used to condemn one set of controversial practices and examine those that were used to defend another His study allows us to see clear differences in reasoning and to test the assumptions made by each argument in turn The result is an eye opening explanation that makes it clear exactly how contemporaries resolved this apparent dichotomy one that allows us to judge whether the opponents of slavery were clear eyed idealists or simply deployers of arguments that pandered to their own base economic interests Revolution and Form Jianhua Chen,2018-07-10 In Revolution and Form Jianhua Chen offers a detailed analysis of several early works by Mao Dun focusing in particular on their engagement with themes of modernity and revolution gender and desire One of the leading authors of the early twentieth century May Fourth period Mao Dun had a complicated relationship with both the Communist Party and the women's liberation movement and his fictional works reflect these twin concerns with revolution and gender Chen's study examines Mao Dun's early fiction in relationship to the biographical and historical conditions under which it was produced Translated by Max Bohnenkamp Todd Foley FU Poshek Nga Li LAM LI Meng and Carlos Rojas Conversations with John Banville Earl G. Ingersoll, John Cusatis, 2020-04-20 John Banville b 1945 is a distinguished novelist and winner of several prestigious awards including the Man Booker Prize for his novel The Sea As a teenager Banville hoped to be a painter and although he ultimately decided he lacked the talent for it his passion for painting continues to influence and inform his work Banville conceives the novel as a work of art aimed not at the present but for the ages He aspires to create narratives that offer readers a sense of what it is to be conscious human and feeling and aims to convey his conviction that the familiar is always unfamiliar the ordinary extraordinary Conversations with John Banville is the first interview collection with this esteemed writer and includes eighteen interviews that reflect on nearly five decades of work from his first book Long Lankin to his novel Mrs Osmond and memoir Time Pieces The collection also includes discussions about and with in the case of James Gleick s 2014 interview Banville s alter ego Benjamin Black who writes crime novels Highly engaging and insightful Banville s interviews offer a variety of writerly autobiography regarding what he has aimed to do in his work and how he continues to pursue perfection which he has known from the beginning must be impossible Neo-Calvinism and the French Revolution James Eglinton, George Harinck, 2014-08-28 The French Revolution was the scene of much intellectual and social upheaval Its impact touched a wide range of subjects the relationship of the church to the state social relationships science literature fashion philosophy and theology Although the French Revolution s momentum was felt across Europe and North America it met a particularly interesting response in the Netherlands at that time the scene of a burgeoning neo Calvinist movement In that context the likes of Groen van Prinsterer Abraham Kuyper and Herman Bavinck responded to the French Revolution s ideals and influence in a variety of intellectual and practical ways This book approaches that Dutch response from a range of historical and theological perspectives and in so doing explores the relationship between the French Revolution and the development of neo Calvinism Beginning with historical portraits of Bavinck and Kuyper in relation to the Revolution the perspectives offered also include amongst others the place of multilingualism in neo Calvinism and the Revolution neo Calvinist and Revolutionary approaches to fashion a dialogue between Kuyperian theology and Kieskowski s Three Colours trilogy and a contemporary neo Calvinist critique of French la cit This book forms part of a wider Project neo Calvinism supported by the Theologische Universiteit Kampen and the VU University Amsterdam Red Alert Ewa Mazierska, Alfredo Suppia, 2016-05-02 Scholars and students of film science fiction and Marxist culture will enjoy Red Alert Scripting Revolution Keith Michael Baker, Dan Edelstein, 2015-10-07 The Arab Spring was heralded and publicly embraced by foreign leaders of many countries that define themselves by their own historic revolutions The contributors to this volume examine the legitimacy of these comparisons by exploring whether or not all modern revolutions follow a pattern or script Traditionally historians have studied revolutions as distinct and separate events Drawing on close familiarity with many different cultures languages and historical transitions this anthology presents the first cohesive historical approach to the comparative study of revolutions This volume argues that the American and French Revolutions provided the genesis of the revolutionary script that was rewritten by Marx which was revised by Lenin and the Bolshevik Revolution which was revised again by Mao and the Chinese Communist Revolution Later revolutions in Cuba and Iran improvised further This script is once again on display in the capitals of the Middle East and North Africa and it will serve as the model for future revolutionary movements
