Rhetoric And Roses:

Rhetoric and Roses Edwinna Von Baeyer, 1984 In a land as fertile and rich with the bounty of its farm and timberlands it is not surprising that the history of gardening and gardening movements in Canada is a story at once as colourful and fascinating as that of the country itself And at no time in the history of Canada was the subject more closely intertwined with the recreational educational and social fabrics of our own daily lives than in the early years of the present century Here is the uniquely Canadian story of the development of ornamental and civic gardens of public parks and parkways that goes hand in hand with the growth of towns and cities across the land of Canada's railway gardens championed by the Canadian Pacific as a beckoning floral advertisements of the fertility and hospitality of the Canadian west Dust jacket Landmark Essays on Aristotelian Rhetoric Richard L. Enos, Lois P. Agnew, 2020-11-25 There is little doubt that Aristotle's Rhetoric has made a major impact on rhetoric and composition studies This impact has not only been chronicled throughout the history of rhetoric but has more recently been contested as contemporary rhetoricians reexamine Aristotelian rhetoric and its potential for facilitating contemporary oral and written expression This volume contains the full text of Father William Grimaldi's monograph studies in the philosophy of Aristotle's Rhetoric The eight essays presented here are divided into three rubrics history and philosophical orientation theoretical perspectives and historical impact This collection provides teachers and students with major works on Aristotelian rhetoric that are difficult to acquire and offers readers an opportunity to become active participants in today's deliberations about the merits of Aristotelian rhetoric for contemporary teaching and research

Literature, Rhetoric and Values Randy Allen Harris, Shelley Hulan, Murray McArthur, 2014-07-24 The essays in this collection combine cutting edge literary and rhetorical scholarship to investigate the evolving values of the modern world confronting such issues as torture genocide environmental apocalypse and post traumatic stress syndrome First delivered as part of the vibrant ideas exchange of an international conference they are the product of rigorous selection and review undertaken with an emphasis on their complementarity The authors include established scholars such as gr Rhetoric and Storytelling within the U.S. Asylum Process Mónica Reyes, 2024-09-20 This book explores the U S asylum process and how those seeking shelter deal with the rhetorical pressures of compelling asylum narratives they need to write in order to stay Centered around a study conducted at a shelter on the U S border this book moves beyond this context to demonstrate how liminal sites provide opportunities for displaced communities to employ distinct shared rhetorical practices of daily life like silence and routine that both safeguard vulnerabilities and enact agency for individuals within precarious spaces Placing people who seek asylum and those who work with them as rhetorical and socio cultural experts on this issue the study adds to the emerging importance of rhetoric within discussions of asylum and forced migration and demonstrates the significance of rhetorical ecology theory as part of a blended methodology in understanding people seeking asylum as a group in a perpetual and explicit state of ethos development Highlighting the need for support which is sensitive to the narrative struggles people seeking asylum face this book will have important findings for scholars and upper level students of cultural rhetorics feminist rhetoric migration studies political science and intercultural communication Internal Difference and Meanings in the Roman de la Rose Douglas Kelly,1995 Argues that the 13th century French poem can best be understood not by trying to resolve or choosing among the diverse meanings within it or among the myriad of interpretations by scholars and medieval and modern readers but to accept those differences and reflect on our own willingness to accept to reject those meanings as a guide for a love or morality Paper edition unseen 17 95 Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

Fragments of Rationality Lester Faigley,2014-07-12 In an insightful assessment of the study and teaching of writing against the larger theoretical political and technological upheavals of the past thirty years Fragments of Rationality questions why composition studies has been less affected by postmodern theory than other humanities and social science disciplines

Unruly Rhetorics Jonathan Alexander,Susan C. Jarratt,Nancy Welch,2018-10-26 What forces bring ordinary people together in public to make their voices heard What means do they use to break through impediments to democratic participation Unruly Rhetorics is a collection of essays from scholars in rhetoric communication and writing studies inquiring into conditions for activism political protest and public assembly An introduction drawing on Jacques Rancière and Judith Butler explores the conditions under which civil discourse cannot adequately redress suffering or injustice The essays offer analyses of unruliness in case studies from both twenty first century and historical sites of social justice protest The collection concludes with an afterword highlighting and inviting further exploration of the ethical political and pedagogical questions unruly rhetorics raise Examining multiple modes of expression embodied print digital and sonic Unruly Rhetorics points to the possibility that unruliness more than just one of many rhetorical strategies within political activity is constitutive of the political itself The 'Roman de la Rose' and Thirteenth-Century Thought Jonathan Morton,Marco Nievergelt,2020-07-16 The thirteenth century allegorical dream vision the Roman de la Rose transformed how medieval literary texts engaged with philosophical ideas Written in Old French its influence dominated French English and Italian literature for the next two centuries serving in particular as a model for Chaucer and Dante Jean de Meun's section of this extensive complex and dazzling work is notable for its sophisticated responses to a whole host of contemporary philosophical debates This collection brings together literary scholars and historians of philosophy to produce the most thorough interdisciplinary study to date of how the Rose uses poetry to articulate philosophical problems and positions This wide ranging collection demonstrates the importance of the poem for medieval intellectual history and offers new insights into the philosophical potential both of the Rose specifically and of medieval poetry as a whole Rhetoric and Composition As Intellectual Work Gary A. Olson,2002 In response to those who insist that rhetoric and composition should remain only a service discipline editor Gary A Olson's Rhetoric and Composition as Intellectual Work demonstrates that it already is an intellectual discipline that for at least a quarter of a century the field has developed an impressive tradition of intellectual work in a remarkable assortment of subject areas Rhetoric and Composition as Intellectual Work suggests the diversity of intellectual projects that have and will continue to make rhetoric and composition more than a service to the university more than a field devoted solely to improving writing pedagogy and more than a preliminary to literary studies This collection of nineteen essays by some of the most distinguished scholars in the discipline illustrates that rhetoric and composition has much to contribute to the intellectual milieu of the contemporary university as the field continues to push its disciplinary borders and discover new sites of investigation Publisher's description Ancient Rhetoric and Poetic Charles Sears Baldwin, 1924 Forty Thousand Sublime and Beautiful Thoughts Gathered from the Roses, Clover Blossoms, Geraniums, Violets, Morning-glories, and Pansies of Literature, 1915 'The Jew' in Late-Victorian and Edwardian Culture E. signature literary style and her progression as a writer Lauters s introduction reveals the flow of Lane s life and career offering key insights into women s history the literary journalism genre and American culture in the first half of the twentieth century Through these works readers will discover a writer whose cultural identity was quintessentially American middle class midwestern and simplistic and who assumed the mantle of custodian to Americanism through women s arts The Rediscovered Writings of Rose Wilder Lane traces the extraordinary relationship between one woman and American society over fifty pivotal years and offers readers a treasury of writings to enjoy and discuss Nineteenth-Century American

Activist Rhetorics Patricia Bizzell,Lisa Zimmerelli,2020-12-15 Essays cover nineteenth century American activists rhetorics and their echoes in contemporary American activism using a variety of theoretical lenses such as classical rhetorical tropes feminism gender and race In addition to texts such as letters sermons and speeches a variety of rhetorical contexts such as monuments strikes protests and theater are considered Reason to Believe Hephzibah Roskelly,Kate Ronald,1998-01-01

Explores current theories of teaching and demonstrates that English studies can benefit from the work of nineteenth century American romanticism and pragmatism both of which affirm the possibility of growth and development The book argues eloquently for the importance of hope and relies extensively for its theoretical underpinnings on the influential writings of Cornel West and Paulo Freire Disability Rhetoric Jay Timothy Dolmage,2014-01-22 Disability Rhetoric is the first book to view rhetorical theory and history through the lens of disability studies Traditionally the body has been seen as at best a rhetorical distraction at worst those whose bodies do not conform to a narrow range of norms are disqualified from speaking

Yet Dolmage argues that communication has always been obsessed with the meaning of the body and that bodily difference is always highly rhetorical Following from this rewriting of rhetorical history he outlines the development of a new theory affirming the ideas that all communication is embodied that the body plays a central role in all expression and that greater attention to a range of bodies is therefore essential to a better understanding of rhetorical histories theories and possibilities

The Problem with Grace Vincent Lloyd,2011-04-04 The Problem with Grace develops a post secular post sectarian political theology and shows how a series of religious concepts such as love faith liturgy and revelation can be constructively used today in both political theory and political practice Aristotelēs Peri Psychēs Ἀριστοτέλης,1882 Psychology Aristotle,1882
