A Rhetoric of Silence and Other Selected Writings Lisa Block de Behar, 1995 No detailed description available for A Rhetoric of Silence and Other Selected Writings

International Law's Collected Stories Sofia Stolk, Renske Vos, 2020-12-19 This edited volume presents a collection of stories that experiment with different ways of looking at international law By using different literary lenses namely storytelling the novel the drama the collage the self portrait and the museum the authors shed light on elements of international law that usually remain unseen or unheard and expose the limits of what international law can do We inquire into who the storytellers of international law are the stages on which they tell their stories and who are absent in these tales We present it as a collection a set of different essays that more or less deal with the same subject matter Alternatively we would like to call it a potpourri of stories since the diversity of topics and approaches is eclectic and unconventional By placing multiple perspectives alongside each other we aim to compare and contrast to allow for second thoughts and to rediscover In doing so we engage with the ambiguities of international law s characters and spaces and with the worldviews they reflect and worlds they create

Vanishing Voices Katarzyna Dudek, 2020-01-15 The nature of silence is hard to grasp This book serves to systematize this concept and explore it in the works of three major poets of religious experience namely Gerard Manley Hopkins T S Eliot and R S Thomas Since these poets worked within a Christian framework the silences they refer to are mainly those emerging in the context of the relationship between God and man in a post Christian climate The book s textual analyses place special attention on the dynamics between thematic and structural manifestations of silence and are situated at the crossroads of the poetics philosophy and theology In this first study bringing together the poetry of Hopkins Eliot and Thomas the three poets each in his unique way emerge as poetic ministers practitioners and producers of silence who try to find a new language to talk about the Ineffable God and one s experience of the divine

The Limits of Identity Charles Hatfield, 2015-11-15 The Limits of Identity is a polemical critique of the repudiation of universalism and the theoretical commitment to identity and difference embedded in Latin American literary and cultural studies Through original readings of foundational Latin American thinkers such as Jos Mart and Jos Enrique Rod and contemporary theorists such as John Beverley and Doris Sommer Charles Hatfield reveals and challenges the anti universalism that informs seemingly disparate theoretical projects The Limits of Identity offers a critical reexamination of widely held conceptions of culture ideology interpretation and history The repudiation of universalism Hatfield argues creates a set of problems that are both theoretical and political Even though the recognition of identity and difference is normally thought to be a form of resistance The Limits of Identity claims that in fact the opposite is true

Off the edge : experiments in cultural analysis Orvar Löfgren, Richard Wilk, 2006 Ethnologia Europaea has set itself the task of breaking down not only the barriers which divided research into Europe from general ethnology but also the barriers between the various national schools within the continent With this manifesto Ethnologia

Europaea was started in 1969 Since then it has acquired a central position in the international co operation between ethnologists in the various European countries in the East as well as the West It is however a journal of topical interest not only for ethnologists but also for anthropologists social historians and others studying the social and cultural forms of everyday life in recent and historical European societies

Relational Designs in Literature and the Arts ,2012-01-01

This collection focuses on texts that address the other arts from painting to photography from the stage to the screen and from avant garde experiments to mass culture Despite their diversity of object and approach the essays in Relational Designs coalesce around the argument that representations are defined by relations and dynamics rather than intrinsic features This rationale is supported by the discourses and methodologies favoured by the book s contributors their approaches offer a cross section of the intellectual and critical environment of our time The book illustrates the critical possibilities that derive from the broad range of modes of inquiry poststructuralist criticism gender studies postcolonial studies new historicism that the book s four sections bring to bear on a wealth of intermedial practices But Relational Designs compounds such critical emphases with the voice of the practitioner the book is rounded off by an interview in which a contemporary novelist discusses her attraction to the other arts in terms that extend the book s insights and bridge the gap between academic discourse and artistic practice

The Afterlife of Texts in Translation Edmund Chapman,2019-11-14

The Afterlife of Texts in Translation Understanding the Messianic in Literature reads Walter Benjamin s and Jacques Derrida s writings on translation as suggesting that texts exist within a process of continual translation Understanding Benjamin s and Derrida s concept of afterlife as overliving this book proposes that reading Benjamin s and Derrida s writings on translation in terms of their wider thought on language and history suggests that textuality itself possesses a messianic quality Developing this idea in relation to the many rewritings and translations of Don Quijote particularly the multiple rewritings by Jorge Luis Borges Edmund Chapman asserts that texts consist of a structure of potential for endless translation that continually promises the overcoming of language history and textuality itself

The Truth about Crime Jean Comaroff,John L. Comaroff,2016-12-05

In this book renowned anthropologists Jean and John L Comaroff make a startling but absolutely convincing claim about our modern era it is not by our arts our politics or our science that we understand ourselves it is by our crimes Surveying an astonishing range of forms of crime and policing from petty thefts to the multibillion dollar scams of too big to fail financial institutions to the collateral damage of war they take readers into the disorder of the late modern world Looking at recent transformations in the triangulation of capital the state and governance that have led to an era where crime and policing are ever more complicit they offer a powerful meditation on the new forms of sovereignty citizenship class race law and political economy of representation that have arisen To do so the Comaroffs draw on their vast knowledge of South Africa especially and its struggle to build a democracy founded on the rule of law out of the wreckage of long years of violence and oppression There they explore everything from the fascination with the supernatural in policing to the extreme measures people take to prevent home invasion drawing illuminating comparisons to the United States and United Kingdom Going beyond South Africa they offer a global criminal anthropology that attests to criminality as the constitutive fact of contemporary life the vernacular by which politics are conducted moral panics voiced and populations ruled The result is a disturbing but necessary portrait of the modern era one that asks critical new questions about how we see ourselves how we think about morality and how we are going to proceed as a global society Borges and Plato Shlomy Mualem,2012 This comparative approach shows how the Platonic viewpoint sheds new light on Borges essayistic and fictional work Analyses to which extent his thought is deeply rooted in classical philosophical doctrines Comparative Literature: Sharing Knowledges for Preserving Cultural Diversity - Volume I Lisa Block de Behar,Paola Mildonian,Jean-Michel Djian,Djelal Kadir,Alfons Knauth,Dolores Romero Lopez and Marcio Seligmann Silva,2009-10-29 Comparative Literature Sharing Knowledges for Preserving Cultural Diversity theme is a component of Encyclopedia of Social Sciences and Humanities in the global Encyclopedia of Life Support Systems EOLSS which is an integrated compendium of twenty one Encyclopedias The Theme on Comparative Literature Sharing Knowledge s for Preserving Cultural Diversity provides six different topics 1 Language literature and human sustainability 2 Relationships among literature and other artistic activities and discourses 3 Comparative literature and other fields of knowledge 4 Comparative literature criticism and media 5 Comparative literature in the age of global change 6 Translatio studii and cross cultural movements or Weltverkehr These three volumes are aimed at a wide spectrum of audiences University and College Students Educators and Research Personnel Semiotics Continues to Astonish Paul Cobley,John Deely,Kalevi Kull,Susan Petrilli,2011-07-27 Peirce s 1906 proposal that the universe as a whole even if it does not consist exclusively of signs is yet everywhere perfused with signs is a thesis that better than any other sums up the life and work of Thomas A Sebeok inventor of semiotics as we know it today Semiotics the doctrine of signs has a long and intriguing history that extends back well beyond the last century two and a half millennia to Hippocrates of Cos It ranges through the teachings of Augustine Scholastic philosophy the work of Peirce and Saussure Yet a fully fledged doctrine of signs with many horizons for the future was the result of Sebeok s work in the twentieth century The massive influence of this work as well as Sebeok s convening of semiotic projects and encouragement of a huge number of researchers globally which in turn set in train countless research projects is difficult to document and has not been assessed until now This volume using the testimonies of key witnesses and participants in the semiotic project offers a picture of how Sebeok through his development of knowledge of endosemiotics phytosemiotics biosemiotics and sociosemiotics enabled semiotics in general to redraw the boundaries of science and the humanities as well as nature and culture Migrant Masculinities in Women's Writing Ashwiny O. Kistnareddy,2021-09-17 This book examines the representation of masculinities in contemporary texts written by women who have immigrated into France or Canada from a range of geographical spaces Exploring works by L onora Miano Cameroon Fatou Diome Senegal Assia Djebar Malika Mokeddem

Algeria Ananda Devi Mauritius Ying Chen China and Kim Th y Vietnam this study charts the extent to which migration generates new ways of understanding and writing masculinities It draws on diverse theoretical perspectives including postcolonial theory affect theory and critical race theory while bringing visibility to the many women across various historical and geographical terrains who write about im migration and the impact on men even as these women too acquire a different position in the new society

Adolfo Bioy Casares Karl Posso,2012-11-15 This volume reconsiders the work and cultural import of Adolfo Bioy Casares 1914 1999 who is best known for his collaborations with Jorge Luis Borges

All in the Family Kennan Ferguson,2012-06-19 Ferguson starts with the commonplace assumption within political philosophy that the family provides the ideal model for political association Yet families are not necessarily harmonious units Ferguson takes up several situations to think about how familial attachments can offer insight into the creation of a pluralistic and democratic society

Borges, Second Edition Lisa Block de Behar,2014-03-11 Borges cites innumerable authors in the pages making up his life s work and innumerable authors have cited and continue to cite him More than a figure then the quotation is an integral part of the fabric of his writing a fabric made anew by each reading and each re citation it undergoes in the never ending throes of a work in progress Block de Behar makes of this reading a plea for the very art of communication a practice that takes community not in the totalized and totalizable soil of pre established definitions or essences but on the ineluctable repetitions that constitute language as such and that guarantee the expansiveness through etymological coincidences of meaning through historical contagions through translinguistic sharings of particular experiences of a certain index of universality This edition includes a new introduction by the author and three entirely new chapters as well as updated images and corrections to the original translation

Marketing Literature and Posthumous Legacies Yuri Leving,Frederick H. White,2013-09-12 Literature is not only about aesthetics but also almost equally about economics The successful marketing of an author and his literary works is more dependent on the activities of cultural merchants than on the particular words and phrases found in the author s prose Marketing Literature and Posthumous Legacies focuses on the creation of symbolic capital for the literary legacies of Leonid Andreev and Vladimir Nabokov that was eventually exchanged by cultural merchants for financial and ideological profit Yuri Leving and Frederick H White discuss the ways in which certain cultural merchants created symbolic meaning for these two authors through a process of collusion consecration and the marketing of tangible and intangible products that lead to some sort of transaction The promotion and maintenance of posthumous legacies involves an intricate network of personal interests that drive the preservation of literary reputations

Francophone Post-colonial Cultures Kamal Salhi,2003-01-01 A collection of discussions of literary texts from areas as diverse as Europe and North Africa the Caribbean and South Asia regions of the world that seem to have only their language in common But despite enormous differences among all the countries where French is spoken Francophone literatures tend to deal with a smiliar spread of issues This volume positions the study of the Francophone world and its cultures as a
