Rhetorica Vol 1 Libros De Oratore Tres:

Disputationes Metaphysicae Francisco Suarez, 2021-06-11 Francisco Suarez 1548-1617 was one of the most important philosophers and theologians of Early Modern Scholasticism. Although Suarez spent most of his academic career as a professor of theology, he is better known today for his Metaphysical Disputations (Salamanca, 1597). The present volume contains a facing-page English translation of Metaphysical Disputation I, which is introductory and devoted to the nature of metaphysics itself. In it, Suarez first specifies this science's object and nature (Sections 1 and 2) and then discusses its unity (Section 3), its end, utility, and functions (Section 4), its status as the most perfect natural science and true wisdom (Section 5), and finally the thesis that it is the science most of all desired by means of a natural appetite (Section 6). Those interested in late scholastic conceptions of metaphysics and their influence on the better-known metaphysical systems of the seventeenth century (e.g., Descartes) will find the volume especially useful. The Latin text contained in this volume introduces a significant number of corrections to the text of the Vivanti edition, the one standardly used by scholars of Suarez, and thus more faithfully reproduces the text of the first edition. The volume also contains a lengthy introduction that provides a detailed survey of the disputation's principal claims and arguments.

Volume 20: The Auction Catalogue of Kierkegaard's Library Dr Gerhard Schreiber, Dr Jon Stewart, Ms Katalin Nun, 2015-04-28 This volume is a revised and improved edition of the auction catalogue of Kierkegaard's private library. The catalogue has long served as one of the most valuable tools in Kierkegaard studies and has been actively used by commentators, translators, and researchers for tracing the various sources of Kierkegaard's thought. With the catalogue in hand, one can determine with some degree of probability what books he read and what editions he used for his information about specific authors. The present volume represents the fourth printing of the catalogue and it differs from its predecessors in many respects. The previous editions contained incomplete, erroneous, and inconsistent bibliographical information about the works in the catalogue. The primary goal of the present edition was to obtain all of the books and check their title pages for the precise bibliographical information. The result is an accurate and reliable edition of the catalogue that conforms to the needs of Kierkegaard studies in the digital age.

Brill's Companion to Cicero James M. May, 2002-09-01 This volume is intended as a companion to the study of Cicero's oratory and rhetoric for both students and experts in the field. For the neophyte, it provides a starting point; for the veteran Ciceronian scholar, a place for renewing the dialogue about issues concerning Ciceronian oratory and rhetoric for all. A site of engagement at various levels with Ciceronian scholarship and bibliography. The book is arranged along roughly chronological lines and covers most aspects of Cicero's oratory and rhetoric. The particular strength of this companion resides in the individual, often very original, approach to sundry topics by an array of impressive contributors, all of whom have spent large portions of their careers concentrating upon the oratorical and rhetorical oeuvre of Cicero. A bibliography of relevant items from the past 25 years, keyed to specific Ciceronian works, completes the volume. Brill's Companion to Cicero will become the standard reference work on Cicero for
