Rhetorics Of Self Making:

Rhetorics of Self-Making Debbora Battaglia, 2023-09-01 Departing from an essentialist concept of the self this highly original volume advances the cross cultural study of selfhood with three contributions to the literature First it approaches the self as an ideological process arguing that selfhood is culturally situated and emergent in social practices of persuasion Second it demonstrates how postmodernity problematizes the experience and concept of the self Finally the book challenges the pervasive practice of equating an individuated self with the Western world and a relational self with the non Western world Contributions cover a broad range of topics from the development of the eccentric self to the ritual circumcision of Jewish males Departing from an essentialist concept of the self this highly original volume advances the cross cultural study of selfhood with three contributions to the literature First it approaches the self as an ideological process arguing that selfhood is cul

American Indian Rhetorics of Survivance Ernest L. Stromberg, 2006-07-30 American Indian Rhetorics of Survivance presents an original critical and theoretical analysis of American Indian rhetorical practices in both canonical and previously overlooked texts autobiographies memoirs prophecies and oral storytelling traditions Ernest Stromberg assembles essays from a range of academic disciplines that investigate the rhetorical strategies of Native American orators writers activists leaders and intellectuals The contributors consider rhetoric in broad terms ranging from Aristotle s definition of rhetoric as the faculty of discovering in the particular case what are the available means of persuasion to the ways in which Native Americans assimilated and revised Western rhetorical concepts and language to form their own discourse with European and American colonists They relate the power and use of rhetoric in treaty negotiations written accounts of historic conflicts and events and ongoing relations between American Indian governments and the United States This is a groundbreaking collection for readers interested in Native American issues and the study of language In presenting an examination of past and present Native American rhetoric it emphasizes the need for an improved understanding of multicultural perspectives

Crafting 'The Indian' Petra Tjitske Kalshoven, 2012-04-01 In Europe Indian hobbyism or Indianism has developed out of a strong fascination with Native American life in the 18th and 19th centuries Indian hobbyists dress in homemade replicas of clothing craft museum quality replicas of artifacts meet in fields dotted with tepees and reenact aspects of North American Indian lifeworlds using ethnographies travel diaries and museum collections as resources Grounded in fieldwork set among networks of Indian hobbyists in Germany the Netherlands Belgium France and the Czech Republic this ethnography analyzes this contemporary practice of serious leisure with respect to the general human desire for play metaphor and allusion It provides insights into the increasing popularity of reenactment practices as they relate to a deeper understanding of human perception imagination and creativity

Unorthodox Kin Naomi Leite, 2017-02-28 Unorthodox Kin is a groundbreaking exploration of identity relatedness and belonging in a global era Naomi Leite paints an intimate portrait of Portugal's urban Marranos who trace their ancestry to fifteenth century Jews forcibly converted to Catholicism as they seek to rejoin the Jewish people Focusing on mutual imaginings and direct encounters between Marranos Portuguese Jews and foreign Jewish tourists and outreach workers Leite tracks how visions of self and kin evolve over time and across social spaces ending in a surprising path to belonging A poignant evocation of how ideas of ancestry shape the present how feelings of kinship arise among far flung strangers and how some find mystical connection in a world said to be disenchanted this is a model study for anthropology today

Between Femininities

Marnina Gonick,2012-02-01 Arguing for a recognition of the contradictory and ambivalent identifications that both attract and repel those who live the social category girl Marnina Gonick analyzes the discourses and practices defining female sexuality embodiment relationship to self and other material culture use of social space and cultural political agency and power Based on a school community project involving collaborative production of a video which tells the stories of several fictional girl characters Gonick examines the contradictory and textured structure of the discourses available to girls through which their identities are negotiated Woven throughout the book is the integral concern with the way in which ethnographic writing as a discursive practice is also implicated in the production and signification of social identities for girls
