Death in a Delphi Seminar Norman N.

Holland,1995-08-10 In this detective novel set in a small intense seminar eight students study what their professor regards as the central mystery of human nature the uniqueness of the individual One morning a woman student who has been fighting this idea and disrupting the seminar keels over poisoned The detective who takes charge is himself a writer who finds this tight little world of academic criticism and theory fascinating baffling yet somehow sympathetic Together he and the professor explore the minds and writings of the people in the seminar in order to track the murderer then another body is found pointing them in a different direction New York Times Book Review and Magazine ,1969 The Publishers Weekly ,1909 The Oxford Magazine ,1889 Unitarian Universalism Zondervan,2009-12-15 Fast informed answers to the challenges of false religions This is an age when countless groups and movements new and old mark the religious landscape in our culture As a result many people are confused or uncertain in their search for spiritual truth and meaning Because few people have the time or opportunity to research these movements fully the Zondervan Guide to Cults and Religious Movements series provides essential information and insights for their spiritual journeys The second wave of books in this series addresses a broad range of spiritual beliefs from non Trinitarian Christian sects to witchcraft and neo paganism to classic non Christian religions such as Buddhism and Hinduism All books but the summary volume Truth and Error contain five sections A concise introduction to the group being surveyed An overview of the group s theology in its own words Tips for witnessing effectively to members of the group A bibliography with sources for further study A comparison chart that shows the essential differences between biblical Christianity and the group Truth and Error the last book in the series consists of parallel doctrinal charts compiled from all the other volumes Three distinctives make this series especially useful to readers Information is carefully distilled to bring out truly essential points rather than requiring readers to sift their way through a sea of secondary details Information is presented in a clear easy to follow outline form with menu bar running heads This format greatly assists the reader in quickly locating topics and details of interest Each book meets the needs and skill levels of both nontechnical and technical readers providing an elementary level of refutation and progressing to a more advanced level using arguments based on the biblical text The writers of these volumes are well qualified to present clear and reliable information and help readers to discern truth from falsehood The Commonwealth and Restoration Stage Leslie Hotson,1928 BBC Empire Broadcasting ,1936 The Congregationalist and Christian World ,1902 Risk Intelligence David Apgar,2006-07-06 Too many executives think risk management is strictly for technical specialists In Risk Intelligence Learning to Manage What We Don t Know David Apgar challenges this misconception The author explains how to raise the quality of your risk analysis thus enhancing your risk IQ by applying four simple rules 1 Recognize which risks are learnable and reduce their uncertainty by discovering more about them 2 Identify risks you can learn about the fastest The higher your learning speed the more a project is worth pursuing 3 Take on risky projects one at a time learning about the risks underlying each before moving to the next 4 Build networks of business partners suppliers and customers who can collectively manage new ventures risks by playing distinct roles The book provides two tools for improving your risk IQ the Risk Intelligence Audit and the Risk Scorecard and concludes with a 10 step action plan for systematically raising your managerial and organizational risk IQ Your reward Smarter business decisions over time Asia in the Making of Christianity ,2013-04-23 Drawing on first person accounts Asia in the Making of Christianity studies conversion in the lives of Christians throughout Asia past and present Fifteen contributors treat perennial questions about conversion continuity and discontinuity conversion and communal conflict and the politics of conversion Some study individuals An Chungg n of Korea Liang Fa of China Nehemiah Goreh of India while others treat ethnolinguistic groups or large scale movements Converts sometimes appear as proto nationalists while others are suspected of cultural treason Some transition effortlessly from leadership in one religious community into Christian ministry while others re convert to new forms of Christianity The accounts collected here underscore the complexity of conversion balancing individual agency with broader social trends and combining micro with macrocontextual approaches Printed Salesmanship ,1928 *A Classical Dictionary ...
