Rhubarb Rhubarb And Other Noises:

Rhubarb, Rhubarb, and Other Noises Keith Waterhouse, 1981 Rhubarb, Rhubarb, and Other Noises Keith Waterhouse, 1979 A Dictionary of Writers and their Works Christopher Riches, Michael Cox, 2015-01-29 Over 3 200 entries An essential guide to authors and their works that focuses on the general canon of British literature from the fifteenth century to the present There is also some coverage of non fiction such as biographies memoirs and science as well as inclusion of major American and Commonwealth writers This online exclusive new edition adds 60 000 new words including over 50 new entries dealing with authors who have risen to prominence in the last five years as well as fully updating the entries that currently exist Each entry provides details of a writer s nationality and birth death dates followed by a listing of their titles arranged chronologically by date of publication

The Politics of Speech in Later Twentieth-Century Poetry William Fogarty, 2022-07-30 The Politics of Speech in Later Twentieth Century Poetry Local Tongues in Heaney Brooks Harrison and Clifton argues that local speech became a central facet of English language poetry in the second half of the twentieth century It is based on a key observation about four major poets from both sides of the Atlantic Seamus Heaney Gwendolyn Brooks Tony Harrison and Lucille Clifton all respond to societal crises by arranging reproducing and reconceiving their particular versions of local speech in poetic form The book s overarching claim is that local tongues in poetry have the capacity to bridge aesthetic and sociopolitical realms because nonstandard local speech declares its distinction from the status quo and binds people who have been subordinated by hierarchical social conditions while harnessing those versions of speech into poetic structures can actively counter the very hierarchies that would degrade those languages The diverse local tongues of these four poets marshaled into the forms of poetry situate them at once in literary tradition in local contexts and in prevailing social constructs

The Gray Notebook Josep Pla,2014-04-08 Josep Pla's masterpiece The Gray Notebook is one of the most colorful and unusual works in modern literature In 1918 when Pla was in Barcelona studying law the Spanish flu broke out the university shut down and he went home to his parents in coastal Palafrugell Aspiring to be a writer not a lawyer he resolved to hone his style by keeping a journal In it he wrote about his family local characters visits to cafés the quips quarrels ambitions and amours of his friends writers he liked and writers he didn't and the long contemplative walks he would take in the countryside under magnificent skies Returning to Barcelona to complete his studies Pla kept up his diary scrutinizing life in the big city with the same unflagging zest and humor Pla one of the great Catalan writers held on to this youthful journal for close to fifty years reworking and adding to it until he finally published The Gray Notebook as both the first volume and the capstone of his collected works It is a beautiful entrancing delightful book at once a distillation of the spirit of youth and the work of a lifetime

Abroad in Lesotho Francis R Denson,2012 The book describes some intensely human events in which the author was involved during a period of working in Lesotho Southern Africa It provides a collection of interesting and often humorous personal anecdotes which though based upon his own factual experience are in many respects remarkably fiction like in their content All the people described are real people and the events are real events Nevertheless it has been thought prudent in most cases to substitute fictional names for those of the individuals involved in order not to embarrass those people who after all this time may still be around in Lesotho or elsewhere
