Rhyme, Rhythm, and Reason John Leach, L. iv, John L.

Leach, 2005-05-01 Rhyme Rhythm and Reason is a form or style of poetic writing consisting of English words that rhyme possess rhythm and have reason to their style as well as containing reason within the message itself This book does not follow or copy any other style but rather attempts to achieve its own style and or form of poetic writing with words that rhyme have a rhythmic overtone and portray a brief message with reason in each and every short poetic writing The stretching of the imagination and creativity with the use of everyday ordinary English words are implemented in the author's own use of the English language The overall message being portrayed by the writings contained in this book is a message with an attempt to inspire and encourage others with hope even during the most difficult times of life and an attempt to offer some comical writings to bring laughter to the reader
