Poverty in Modern Chinese Realism Keru Cai,2025-04-28 Poverty in Modern Chinese Realism shows that early twentieth century Chinese writers drew upon Russian texts about the socially downtrodden to describe poverty in a bid to enrich Chinese culture by creating a syncretic new realism Modern Chinese realist writers turned to the topic of material poverty peasants suffering from famine exploited urban laborers homeless orphans to convey their sense of textual poverty and national backwardness The combination of a radically new subject matter and experimentation with diverse literary resources indigenous and foreign generated major innovations in narrative technique Depicting poverty allowed writers to revolutionize the nascent forms of modern Chinese narrative innovating strategies of representing the nation the social other time and space while problematizing their deployment of squalor for aesthetic purposes This book examines why Russian literature itself long preoccupied with a problem of belatedness vis vis Western Europe occupied a privileged place for Chinese intellectuals of this era Comparing Chinese fiction about poverty to Russian intertexts by Gogol Andreiev Chekhov Turgenev and others the book shows how Chinese writers drew and innovated upon themes such as madness or human animality and formal elements such as metonymy Keru Cai's multi scalar approach emphasizing close textual analysis situates modern Chinese realism in the trans Eurasian axis of world literature In the Party Spirit ,2022-03-28 The A to Z of Modern Chinese Literature Li-hua Ying,2010-04-01 Modern Chinese literature has been flourishing for over a century with varying degrees of intensity and energy at different junctures of history and points of locale An integral part of world literature from the moment it was born it has been in constant dialogue with its counterparts from the rest of the world As it has been challenged and enriched by external influences it has contributed to the wealth of literary culture of the entire world In terms of themes and styles modern Chinese literature is rich and varied from the revolutionary to the pastoral from romanticism to feminism from modernism to post modernism critical realism psychological realism socialist realism and magical realism Indeed it encompasses a full range of ideological and aesthetic concerns The A to Z of Modern Chinese Literature presents a broad perspective on the development and history of literature in modern China It offers a chronology introduction bibliography and over 300 cross referenced dictionary entries on authors literary and historical developments trends genres and concepts that played a central role in the evolution of modern Chinese literature A Selective Guide to Chinese Literature 1900-1949 Milena Doleželová-Velingerová,2023-11-27 A Selective Guide to Chinese Literature Milena Doleželová-Velingerová,1988 From May Fourth to June Fourth Ellen Widmer,Te-wei Wang,2009-06-30 What do the Chinese literature and film inspired by the Cultural Revolution 1966 1976 have in common with the Chinese literature and film of the May Fourth movement 1918 1930 This new book demonstrates that these two periods of the highest literary and cinematic creativity in twentieth century China share several aims to liberate these narrative arts from previous aesthetic orthodoxies to draw on foreign sources for inspiration and to free individuals from social conformity. Although these consistencies seem readily apparent with a sharper focus, the distinguished contributors to this volume reveal that in many ways discontinuity, not continuity, prevails. Their analysis illuminates the powerful meeting place of language, imagery, and narrative with politics, history, and ideology in twentieth century China. Drawing on a wide range of methodologies, from formal analysis to feminist criticism, from deconstruction to cultural critique, the authors demonstrate that the scholarship of modern Chinese literature and film has become integral to contemporary critical discourse. They respond to Eurocentric theories, but their ultimate concern is literature and film in China's unique historical context. The volume illustrates three general issues preoccupying this century's scholars: the conflict of the rural search for roots and the native soil movement versus the new strains of urban exoticism; the diacritics of voice, narrative mode, and intertextuality; and the reintroduction of issues surrounding gender and subjectivity.

From May Fourth to June Fourth will he warmly welcomed. It should be of great interest to all concerned with literary developments in the contemporary world, on the one hand, and on the other, with the enigmas surrounding China's alternating attempts to develop and to destroy herself as a civilization.

Milestones on a Golden Road
Richard King, 2013-01-15
In Milestones on a Golden Road, Richard King presents pivotal works of fiction produced in four key periods of Chinese revolutionary history: the civil war (1945-49), the Great Leap Forward (1958-60), the Cultural Revolution (1966-76), and the post-Mao catharsis (1979-80). Taking its cues from the Soviet Union's optimistic depictions of a society liberated by Communism, the official Chinese literature of this era is characterized by grand narratives of progress. Addressing questions of literary production, King looks at how writers dealt with shifting ideological demands, what indigenous and imported traditions inspired them and how they were able to depict a utopian Communist future to their readers even as the present took a very different turn Early red classics were followed by works featuring increasingly lurid images of joyful socialism and later by fiction exposing the Mao era as an age of irrationality arbitrary rule and suffering a Golden Road that had led to nowhere Historical Dictionary of Modern Chinese Literature Li-hua Ying, 2021-11-15 Modern Chinese literature has been flourishing for over a century with varying degrees of intensity and energy at different junctures of history and points of locale An integral part of world literature from the moment it was born it has been in constant dialogue with its counterparts from the rest of the world As it has been challenged and enriched by external influences it has contributed to the wealth of literary culture of the entire world In terms of themes and styles modern Chinese literature is rich and varied from the revolutionary to the pastoral from romanticism to feminism from modernism to post modernism critical realism psychological realism socialist realism and magical realism Indeed it encompasses a full range of ideological and aesthetic concerns This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Modern Chinese Literature presents a broad perspective on the development and history of literature in modern China It offers a chronology introduction bibliography and over 400 cross referenced dictionary entries on authors literary and historical developments trends genres and concepts that played a central role in the evolution of modern Chinese literature Maoist Laughter Ping Zhu, Zhuoyi Wang, Jason McGrath, 2019-08-01 WINNER 2020 Choice s Outstanding Academic Title During the Mao years laughter in China was serious business Simultaneously an outlet for frustrations and grievances a vehicle for socialist education and an object of official study laughter brought together the political the personal the aesthetic the ethical the affective the physical the aural and the visual The ten essays in Maoist Laughter convincingly demonstrate that the connection between laughter and political culture was far more complex than conventional conceptions of communist indoctrination can explain Their sophisticated readings of a variety of genres including dance cartoon children s literature comedy regional oral performance film and fiction uncover many nuanced innovations and experiments with laughter during what has been too often misinterpreted as an unrelentingly bleak period In Mao s China laughter helped to regulate both political and popular culture and often served as an indicator of shifting values alliances and political campaigns In exploring this phenomenon Maoist Laughter is a significant correction to conventional depictions of socialist China Maoist Laughter brings together prominent scholars of contemporary China to make a timely and original contribution to the burgeoning field of Maoist literature and culture One of its main strengths lies in the sheer number of genres covered including dance traditional Chinese performance visual arts film and literature The focus on humor in the Maoist period gives an exciting new perspective from which to understand cultural production in twentieth century China Krista Van Fleet University of South Carolina An illuminating study of the culture of laughter in the Maoist period Focusing on much neglected topics such as satire jokes and humor this book is an essential contribution to our understanding of how socialist culture actually worked as a coherent dynamic and constructive life experience The chapters show that traditional culture could almost blend perfectly with revolutionary mission Xiaomei Chen University of California Davis 张其成, 1945-1992 Kam Louie, Louise P. Edwards, 1993

Marxism and the Chinese Experience Arif Dirlik, Maurice Meisner, 2016-09-16 These essays consider the implications for Chinese socialism of the repudiation of the Cultural Revolution and the legacy of Mao Zedong as well as the meaning of the new definition and direction Mao's successors have given socialism The themes have been selected for conceptual coherence within a socialist problematic of social change Representing anthropology art history economics history literature and politics various inquiries point in a twofold direction the meaning of socialism for China and the meaning of Chinese Socialism for socialism as a global phenomenon meaning not in some abstract sense but rather as it is constituted in the process of political ideological activity which articulates and defines social relationships within China as well as China's relationship to the world

Enchanted Revolution Xiaofei Kang, 2023 The theoretical methodological and comparative frameworks for the discussion of religion gender and revolutionary propaganda in China It then places this discussion in the historical context of wartime Communist headquarters of Yan'an where the Party launched its first mass campaign against superstition in 1944-45 The campaign illustrates how Mao's mass line principle compelled propaganda workers to engage with the rural culture in order to create new meanings from old knowledge

Rewriting Chinese Edward Gunn, 1991-07-01 Everyone who has studied the upheavals of modern China knows that one of them has taken place in Chinese writing Anyone who has read Chinese texts has also eventually pondered the possible significance of this upheaval for understanding the text and vice versa By analyzing formal features and speculating about their relevance to the construction of a modern Chinese culture this book intends to show why the Chinese have come to write the way they do in this century Drawing on linguistic and rhetorical descriptions of language in writing as features of style the author reviews the innovations that have been introduced into modern Chinese prose from both Chinese and foreign sources The social history of these features the attempts by various writers to assert cultural political and aesthetic principles through them and the resulting tensions and conventions that arise all form the critical framework for a study of Chinese prose literature and its most innovative authors in this century The study is introduced and informed throughout by a succinct review of scholarly research from a wide range of disciplines relevant to the question of style as an object of study in contemporary criticism The book begins its approach to style with an Introduction that draws on Gestalt theory information theory and linguistics to develop a nuanced concept of what style is one that gives adequate weight to the complex interplay of psychological formal and historical features at work Two chapters then examine various aspects of convention necessarily a historical phenomenon The fourth chapter by contrast discusses the aesthetic prescriptions by which modern Chinese writers sought consciously to introduce innovation and points out the limitations of a prescriptive approach The final two chapters study the strategies of specific writers Almost half the book is an Appendix that consists of a rich catalog of rhetorical and stylistic examples drawn from a wide range of twentieth century Chinese literary writing These hundreds of examples identified by the nomenclature of grammar rhetoric and sentence cohesion constitute a veritable handbook of modern Chinese prose The book also contains a Glossary of terms draw from rhetoric and linguistics Snuff-bottles and Other Stories Youmei Deng,1986 Old Stories Retold G. Andrew Stuckey,2010-01-01 Old Stories Retold delves into intertextual resonances cultivated with traditional literature in modern Chinese fiction from both the mainland and Taiwan These resonances develop alternative historical sensibilities which reveal the effects of modernization on Chinese culture The Vicissitudes of Satire in Contemporary Chinese Fiction Margaret Holmes Decker,1987
