Rice In The Storm Faith In Struggle In The Philippines:

Study Guide for Rice in the Storm Wilma More Tye, 1989 Jesus Of Asian Women (the) Muriel Orevillo-Montenegro, 2010 Toward a Theology of Struggle Eleazar S. Fernandez, 2009-02-01 The Theology of Struggle is a genuinely popular Filipino theology rooted in the history and culture of a people who have endured colonial oppression at the hands of Spain North America and Japan as well as neo colonialism and home grown dictatorship Because Christianity has played a role in assisting the history of oppression in the Philippines a theology of struggle must include a struggle in theology to wrest Christian symbols from the hands of the oppressors and return them to the poor This theology which is otherwise expressed in articles poems art and action receives its first systematic treatment in Toward a Theology of Struggle In Part One Fernandez establishes the historical and cultural context out of which the Theology of Struggle has emerged Part Two represents Fernandez's own constructive work in which he shows how a theology of struggle must address the quest for identity and peoplehood In Part Three Fernandez explores the question of theological method outlining the areas of convergence and distinction between the Theology of struggle and other Third World theologies as well as setting forth the distinctive challenge that this theology of the Philippines poses to the authority and dominance of Western theology as a whole Rice in the Storm Rebecca C. Asedillo, 1989 "Why We Can't Wait" Punsalan-Manlimos, Catherine, Sayuki Tiemeier, Tracy, Vasko, Elisabeth T., 2023-05-04 CTS volume 68 explores questions of race and racism in the Church

Gustavo Gutierrez Robert McAfee Brown, 2013-03-01 Here is a definitive introduction to liberation theology through the life and work of its most significant proponent Gustavo Gutierrez Robert McAfee Brown draws extensively on Gutierrez's own writings some never published in English and on personal conversations with him Brown clearly and compellingly presents the basics of liberation theology and the differences between North American and Latin American theologies The form of Gustavo Gutierrez is that of a drama Brown's initial program notes introduce and situate the author the actors the critics He sets the stage with a history of church and state in Latin America and introduces its definitive figures themes and milestones A collective biography of Gutierrez's spiritual predecessors is followed by a biography of Gutierrez himself which takes critical account of his works Then we are ready dramatically and theologically to move to the first act that of commitment to the poor The second act in two scenes explores first liberation theology's method of critical reflection on praxis and also its content nothing less than the Word of God Brown delves next into the controversies and criticisms Gutierrez faces especially the challenges from authorities in Rome Finally in act three readers discover that in this particular drama they too are on stage and must take part by reflecting on what this drama really means for them Asian Christian Theologies:
