Hayes, 1992 This volume is devoted to the paintings in the National Gallery Washington DC that were produced from the fifteenth to the nineteenth century by British artists or by foreign artists who spent the greater part of their working lives in Britain Composed mainly of paintings acquired by such wealthy nineteenth century industrialists as Andrew Mellon and P A B Widener the core of this important collection is a series of portraits by such eighteenth century artists as Gainsborough Lawrence Raeburn and Romney who represent the golden age of British painting Arranged alphabetically by artist each work is accompanied by a full catalogue entry in which the history style and content is fully detailed The volume also contains short biographies of each artist as well as a pertinent and up to date bibliography Degas Landscapes Richard Kendall, Edgar Degas, 1993-01-01 Biografi om Degas landskaber set i relation til andre kunstneres behandling af landskabet som motiv English Accents Christiana Payne, 2018-01-18 In the century following the foundation of the Royal Academy in 1768 British art had an international reputation prints spread knowledge of the work of British artists around the globe and it was widely seen as the product of a modern commercial society and much admired by artists as diverse as Goya in Spain Delacroix in France and Bierstadt in America In recent years scholars working on this period have become increasingly aware of the international context of their subject but there has been no systematic analysis of the reception of British art abroad This collection of essays looks at the uses made of the paintings of Reynolds Hogarth Lawrence and their contemporaries on the continent of Europe and in the colonies and ex colonies of Australia and America The authors go beyond the simple issue of influence to consider how ideas and artistic conventions originating in the British Isles were adapted appropriated or resisted in these new environments In the process some surprising views of British art emerge demonstrating how a multi faceted view from the outside can correct and enrich the narrative produced within a national school and revealing some of the important connections that are obscured when art is studied as it so often is within narrow national boundaries Paul Delaroche Stephen Bann,Paul Delaroche,1997 Paul Delaroche s works were heralded as masterpieces in the nineteenth century and the man himself was lauded in 1853 by one Italian critic as at the summit of all living painters But while his paintings themselves are still familiar to many Delaroche the artist fell into almost total obscurity during the twentieth century Stephen Bann addresses this lacuna in art scholarship presenting an in depth examination of Delaroche s career Bann situates Delaroche and his wide ranging oeuvre in the context of early nineteenth century visual culture From his early historical paintings to experimental pieces influenced by photography the book analyzes each stage of Delaroche s artistic development as well as his major masterpieces such as The Execution of Lady Jane Grey and The Princes in the Tower Bann also analyzes the numerous reproductions of Delaroche s works in a variety of visual mediums including engravings by Mercuri and Henriquel Dupont lithographs popular prints and the photographs that illustrated Delaroche s first retrospective catalog An unparalleled and lushly illustrated study Paul Delaroche restores a neglected master to his rightful place in nineteenth century European art
