Richard Burton David Jenkins, 1993 The Complete Works of Richard Burton Richard Francis Burton, 2022-12-10 The Complete Works of Richard Burton presents a remarkable collection that encapsulates the multifaceted genius of one of the Victorian era's most intriguing figures Spanning travel writing poetry translation and ethnography Burton's literary style is characterized by vivid prose keen observation and an unflinching exploration of diverse cultures The anthology situates Burton within the context of 19th century colonial discourse revealing his complex relationship with the then emerging field of anthropology and the intricacies of cultural representation His narratives are often laced with personal anecdotes transporting readers to distant lands while his pioneering translations most notably of The Arabian Nights showcase his linguistic prowess and deep appreciation for the literatures of the East Richard Francis Burton was a British explorer soldier and linguist whose life was marked by extensive travels across Africa the Middle East and beyond His insatiable curiosity and audacity often pushed social boundaries leading him to delve into the unknown which in turn shaped his literary output His experiences of cultural immersion and his often controversial perspectives on colonialism provide a rich backdrop for the themes explored in this comprehensive collection Readers seeking an expansive look into the mind of a true Renaissance man and an exploration of the complex dynamics of culture and identity will find The Complete Works of Richard Burton indispensable His writings invite contemplation and challenge readers to engage with the rich tapestry of human experience through a lens that is as enlightening as it is provocative

Rogue Males: Richard Burton, Howard Marks and Sir Richard Burton Rob Walters, 2006-12-12 Sir Richard Burton is best known as an explorer and translator of Arabian and Indian books many of them sexually explicit He was known as Ruffian Dick and led a life well beyond the pale of the typical Victorian Richard Burton was a very famous actor with a brilliant voice and the looks to accompany it Sometimes known as Beer Burton he married Elizabeth Taylor twice and led a life which was often as dramatic as the characters that he played Howard Marks became famous as a cannabis smuggler He used the alias Mr Nice and adopted this as the title of a book that describes his exploits and ultimate incarceration in an American jail Each of these men has a roguish streak to their character but they also have a number of other things in common one of which is that they each began their adult life at Oxford University In fact they attended three colleges which stand cheek by jowl on Oxford's Broad Street Exeter Balliol and Trinity Each was a master of disguise though for rather different ends Each was a great traveller Howard for the drug trafficking Richard for the film sets and Sir Richard for exploration and consular duties They were all writers Two of them were Welsh two shared a name two are dead and all three are famous in their different ways Finally they were all iconoclasts mould breakers in different times and in different worlds This book illuminates the fascinating lives of each of these interesting men but also speculates on how they might react to each other It recreates the Oxford that bred them traces their subsequent lives and then leads them back to the city so that they can meet and discourse upon American hegemony the freedom to consume drugs the role of feminism and the value of education These topics are exposed to the soaring intellectuality and conservatism of the older Burton the articulation of the younger Burton and the liberality of Marks The results are sometimes shocking always interesting and often edifying

The Life of Sir Richard Burton Thomas Wright,1906

The Richard Burton Diaries Richard Burton,2012-10-15 The irresistible candid diaries of Richard Burton published in their entirety Just great fun and written out of an engaging often comical bewilderment How did a poor Welshman become not only a star but a player on the world stage that was Elizabeth Taylor s fame Hilton Als NewYorker com Of real interest is that Burton was almost as good a writer as an actor read as many as three books a day haunted bookstores in every city he set foot in bought countless books on every conceivable subject and evaluated them rather shrewdly Apt writing abounds John Simon New York Times Book Review Irresistibly magnetic on stage mesmerizing in movies seven times an Academy Award nominee Richard Burton rose from humble beginnings in Wales to become Hollywood s most highly paid actor and one of England s most admired Shakespearean performers His epic romance with Elizabeth Taylor his legendary drinking and story telling his dazzling purchases enormous diamonds a jet homes on several continents and his enormous talent kept him constantly in the public eye Yet the man behind the celebrity fa ade carried a surprising burden of insecurity and struggled with the peculiar challenges of a life lived largely in the spotlight This volume publishes Burton s extensive personal diaries in their entirety for the first time His writings encompass many years from 1939 when he was still a teenager to 1983 the year before his death and they reveal him in his most private moments pondering his triumphs and demons his loves and his heartbreaks The diary entries appear in their original sequence with annotations to clarify people places books and events Burton mentions From these hand written pages emerges a multi dimensional man no mere flashy celebrity While Burton touched shoulders with shining lights among them Olivia de Havilland John Gielgud Claire Bloom Laurence Olivier John Huston Dylan Thomas and Edward Albee he also played the real life roles of supportive family man father husband and highly intelligent observer His diaries offer a rare and fresh perspective on his own life and career and on the glamorous decades of the mid twentieth century

Richard Burton, T.E. Lawrence and the Culture of Homoerotic Desire Feras Alkabani,2024-09-19 In the 19th and early 20th centuries the Arabic speaking regions of the Ottoman Empire saw a crucial change in attitudes towards sexuality Notions of respectability propriety and sexual morality were being transformed in literary and cultural discourses a shift that was related to the gradual rise in anti Ottoman Arab nationalism However contemporary Orientalists such as Sir Richard Burton and T E Lawrence were oblivious to certain aspects of this process of cultural reconfiguration While accounts of male love poetry ghazal al mudhakkar were being gradually expurgated from the Arab literary heritage elaborate narratives of Oriental homoerotic desire distinctively characterise the encounters of both Burton and Lawrence with the Arab East By comparing their literary and autobiographical accounts of the Arab Orient with contemporary Arabic literature Feras Alkabani is able to expose this critical disparity in cross cultural portrayals of sexual morality and homoerotic desire Alkabani relates the conflicting agendas of contemporary Orientalists and Arab scholars to the shifts in international imperial power relations and the eventual collapse of the Ottoman Empire His detailed comparative study reveals the significance of homoerotic desire within Orientalist and Arab literary discourses at a time when the meaning and connotations of poetic male love were undergoing a critical change in Arab culture and literature It will prove invaluable for those researching Orientalism nationalism imperialism and manifestations of homoerotic desire in the fin de si cle Middle East
