Traditional Music Britta Sweers provides an illuminating history and fascinating analysis of the unique features of the electric folk scene exploring its musical styles and cultural implications Drawing on rare historical sources contemporary music journalism and first hand interviews with several of electric folk s most prominent artists Sweers argues that electric folk is both a result of the American folk revival of the early 1960s and a reaction against the dominance of American pop music abroad Young British folk rockers such as Richard Thompson and Maddy Prior turned to traditional musical material as a means of asserting their British cultural identity Yet unlike many American and British folk revivalists they were not as interested in the purity of folk ballads as in the music s potential for lively interaction with modern styles instruments and media The book also delves into the impact of the British folk rock movement on mainstream pop American rock music and neighboring European countries Ultimately Sweers creates a richly detailed portrait of the electric folk scene as cultural phenomenon commercial entity and performance style

Electric Eden Rob

Young,2011-05-10 A Kirkus Reviews Best Nonfiction of 2011 title In the late 1960s with popular culture hurtling forward on the sounds of rock music some brave musicians looked back instead trying to recover the lost treasures of English roots music and update them for the new age The records of Fairport Convention Pentangle Steeleye Span and Nick Drake are known as folk rock today but Rob Young s epic electrifying book makes clear that those musicians led a decades long quest to recover English music and with it the ancient ardor for mysticism and paganism for craftsmanship and communal living It is a commonplace that rock and R B came out of the folk and blues revivals of the early 1960s and Young shows through enchanting storytelling and brilliant commentary that a similar revival in England inspired the Beatles and Pink Floyd Led Zeppelin and Traffic Kate Bush and Talk Talk Folklorists notated old songs and dances Marxists put folk music forward as the true voice of the people Composers like Benjamin Britten and Ralph Vaughan Williams devised rich neo traditional pageantry Today the pioneers of the acid folk movement see this music as a model for their own Electric Eden is that rare book which has something truly new to say about popular music and like Greil Marcus s LipstickTraces it uses music to connect the dots in a thrilling story of art and society of tradition and wild idiosyncratic creativity

Singing Out David Burke,2015-03-01 The Life And Work Of 3 Female Folk Icons David Burke takes the lives of three of British folk music s best known and best loved women and intertwines their stories Why these three As David explains Maddy Prior June Tabor and Linda Thompson have both endured and evolved The people s relationship with its heritage may be capricious but Maddy June and Linda have remained resolutely committed to it while concurrently contemporising it They all began in the folk clubs of the second folk revival in the 1960s but whilst staying true to their roots have never been afraid to try new things sometimes to the horror of traditional folkies Maddy Prior MBE is best known as being the singer with Steeleye Span though she has done many different things including the Silly Sisters with

June Tabor June tried to juggle being a librarian and a singer until singing thankfully won out Elvis Costello said If you don't like listening to June Tabor you should stop listening to music To a large extent Linda Thompson's later career has been blighted by hysterical dysphonia a condition that has stopped her singing for long periods For this book all three women kindly provided interviews but Linda could only communicate via e-mail her condition which comes and goes was so bad at the time However her albums with ex-husband Richard Thompson are classics as are her own solo albums it is just sad that illness has deprived her and us of more of them In addition to the three subjects David has interviewed amongst others Ian Anderson Martin Carthy Christy Moore Martin Simpson Rufus Wainwright and even the creator of the Wombles pop group Mike Batt who produced Steeleye Span
