Riches and Renunciation James Laidlaw, 1995 The Jains of India are a flourishing and prosperous community but their religion is focused on the teaching and example of ascetic renouncers whose austere regime is actually dedicated to ending worldly life and often culminates in a fast to death This book which draws upon a detailed study of Jainism in the city of Jaipur shows how renunciation and ascetism play a central part in the life of a thriving business community and how world renunciation combines for Jain families with the pursuit of worldly happiness Loving the Poor, Saving the Rich Helen Rhee, 2012-11-01 The issue of wealth and poverty and its relationship to Christian faith is as ancient as the New Testament and reaches even further back to the Hebrew Scriptures From the beginnings of the Christian movement the issue of how to deal with riches and care for the poor formed an important aspect of Christian discipleship This careful study shows how early Christians adopted appropriated and transformed the Jewish and Greco Roman moral teachings and practices of giving and patronage As Helen Rhee illuminates the early Christian understanding of wealth and poverty she shows how it impacted the formation of Christian identity She also demonstrates the ongoing relevance of early Christian thought and practice for the contemporary church Ethical Life in South Asia Anand Pandian, Daud Ali, 2010 Outgrowth of an international workshop on the subject of South Asian ethical practices held in Vancouver Canada in September 2007 Celibacy and Religious Traditions Carl Olson, 2008 For an educated general readership and for use in college courses this text introduces the role of celibacy or a lack of it in various religious traditions and the contributors present the rationale for its observance or not within the context of each tradition Jewels, Jewelry, and Other Shiny Things in the Buddhist Imaginary Vanessa R. Sasson, 2021-09-30 Renunciation is a core value in the Buddhist tradition but Buddhism is not necessarily austere Jewels along with heavenly flowers rays of rainbow light and dazzling deities shape the literature and the material reality of the tradition They decorate temples fill reliquaries are used as metaphors and sprout out of imagined Buddha fields Moreover jewels reflect a particular type of currency often used to make the Buddhist world go round merit in exchange for wealth Regardless of whether the Buddhist community has theoretically transcended the need for them or not jewels and the paradox they represent are everywhere Scholarship has often looked past this splendor favoring the theory of renunciation instead but in this volume scholars from a wide range of disciplines consider the role jewels play in the Buddhist imaginary putting them front and center for the first time Following an introduction that relates the colorful story of the Emerald Buddha one of the most famous jewels in the world chapters explore the function of jewels as personal identifiers in Buddhist and other Indian religious traditions Buddhaghosa's commentary on the Jewel Sutta the paradox of the Buddha's bejeweled status before and after renunciation and the connection in early Buddhism between jewels magnificence and virtue The Newars of Nepal are the focus of a chapter that looks at their gemology and associations between gems and celestial deities Contributors analyze the Fifth Dalai Lama's reliquary known as the sole ornament of the world the transformation of relic jewels into precious substances and their connection to the Piprahwa stupa in Northern India and the Nanjing Porcelain Pagoda Final chapters offer detailed studies of ritual engagement with the deity known as Wish Fulfilling Jewel Avalokite vara and its role in the new Japanese lay Buddhist religious movement Shinnyo en Engaging and accessible Jewels Jewelry and Other Shiny Things in the Buddhist Imaginary will provide readers with an opportunity to look beyond a common misconception about Buddhism and bring its lived tradition into wider discussion

Art of Personality Hazrat Inayat Khan,2020-09-28 It is never too soon in the life of a child for it to receive education The soul of an infant is like a photographic plate which has never been exposed before and whatever impression falls on that photographic plate covers it No other impressions which come afterwards have the same effect Therefore when the parents or guardians lose the opportunity of impressing an infant in its early childhood they lose the greatest opportunity In the Orient there is a superstition that an undesirable person must not be allowed to come near an infant If the parents or relatives see that a certain person should not be in the presence of an infant that person is avoided for the very reason that the infant is like a photographic plate The soul is negative fully responsive and susceptible to every influence and the first impression that falls on a soul takes root in it In the first place an infant brings with it to the earth the spirit with which it is impressed from the angelic spheres and from the plane of the jinn it has also inherited from the earth qualities from both its parents and of their families After coming on earth the first impression that an infant receives is from the environment the surroundings from those who touch it and move and work in its surroundings And the impression after coming to earth is so strong that very often it erases the impressions that an infant has inherited from the higher spheres and also the heritage from its parents This happens because the mind that has been formed of the impressions which the infant has brought from the higher spheres is not yet positive It is just like a pot of clay which has not yet gone through the fire it has not yet developed

The Letters of St. Augustine William John Sparrow-Simpson,1919 The Beginnings of Gospel Story Benjamin Wisner Bacon,1909 The Biblical Tour of Hell Matthew Ryan Hauge,2013-08-15 It is difficult to underestimate the significance of the story of the Rich Man and Lazarus in Luke 16 19 31 within the biblical tradition Although hell occupies a prominent position in popular Christian rhetoric today it plays a relatively minor role in the Christian canon The most important biblical texts that explicitly describe the fate of the dead are in the Synoptic Gospels Yet among these passages only the Lukan tradition is intent on explicitly describing the abode of the dead it is the only biblical tour of hell Hauge examines the story of the Rich Man and Lazarus in Luke 16 19 31 uniquely the only parable that is set within a supernatural context The parables characteristically feature concrete realities of first century Mediterranean life but the majority of Luke 16 19 31 is narrated from the perspective of the tormented dead This volume demonstrates that the distinctive features of the story of the Rich Man and Lazarus are the result of a strategic imitation creative transformation and Christian transvaluation of the descent of Odysseus into the house of Hades in Odyssey Book 11 the literary model par excellence of postmortem revelation in antiquity Asceticism and Exegesis in Early Christianity Hans-Ulrich Weidemann,2013-03-13 From the beginning many of the early Christian communities led an ascetic lifestyle although a good number of New Testament texts do not seem suitable for justifying radical ascetic and encratite practice The question thus arises how the different forms of asceticism could be justified on the basis of those scriptures The articles of the volume focus on the interpretation and application of New Testament texts in various ascetic milieus and in the works of several early Christian authors and on the reception history of New Testament texts either supporting or resisting an ascetic relecture Mission Between the Times C. René Padilla,2010-10-04 Ren Padilla was one of the premier representatives of orthodox evangelicalism in Latin America He consistently championed integral mission a holistic understanding of Christian mission in which there is no artificial barrier between evangelization and social responsibility Biblical faithful to Scripture contemporary and inspirational the core message of this updated classic remains just as urgent as when it was first published twenty five years ago This revised version includes a new essay on the contemporary history of integral mission a history that began with the Latin American Theological Fellowship progressed within the Lausanne Movement is bearing fruit globally through the Micah Network and challenges evangelicals to address the major issues of our day The Esoteric Hiram Erastus Butler,1896
