Richmond In World War II:

Richmond in World War II, Francis Earle Lutz, 1951 World War II Richmond, Virginia Walter S. Griggs, 2013 Discover the history of Richmond Virginia during World War II World War II Richmond, Virginia Walter S. Griggs Jr., 2013-10-15 The effects of the war raging across Europe were visible in Richmond as early as 1939 and Richmonders are always ready to fight for their cause In that year the city saw its first parking meters on the streets and began to collect aluminum scrap for use in war industries In 1940 pursuant to the new draft law Richmond's sons between the ages of twenty one and thirty five registered for the draft While bomb shelters were put up all over the town dances were held to maintain local morale Even as local German families faced discrimination Richmonders strived for a sense of unity and solidarity Author and historian Walter Griggs Jr revives this conflicted spirit memorializing the sorrow and celebrating the triumphs of a resilient southern city through world war Ships of the Esso Fleet in World War II, Standard Oil Company, 1946

Office of Information, 1946 American World War II Orphans Network, 2005-03 Virginia in the War Years, 1938-1945 Joseph P. Freitus, 2014-07-18 Although World War II began as a war in Europe many in the United States foreseeing the inevitable began to prepare for war putting no faith in the Neutrality Act Preparations for war essentially ending the Great Depression affected the entire country with Virginia particularly playing a major role More than one million service men and women came to Virginia The sheer scope of the military development in Virginia of the Army Navy Coast Guard and Air Force providing training bases and support facilities underscores the national resolve to be prepared The book includes the Civil Air Patrol wartime industry POW camps U boat attacks the Beach Patrol and other Virginia related topics Sexuality, Politics, and Social Control in Virginia, 1920-1945 Pippa Holloway, 2007-09-06 In the first half of the twentieth century white elites who dominated Virginia politics sought to increase state control over African Americans and lower class whites whom they saw as oversexed and lacking sexual self restraint In order to reaffirm the existing political and social order white politicians legalized eugenic sterilization increased state efforts to control venereal disease and prostitution cracked down on interracial marriage and enacted statewide movie censorship Providing a detailed picture of the interaction of sexuality politics and public policy Pippa Holloway explores how these measures were passed and enforced The white elites who sought to expand government's role in regulating sexual behavior had like most southerners a tradition of favoring small government so to justify these new policies they couched their argument in economic terms a modern progressive government could provide optimum conditions for business growth by maintaining a stable social order and a healthy docile workforce Holloway's analysis demonstrates that the cultural context that characterized certain populations as sexually dangerous worked in tandem with the political context that denied them the right to vote This perspective on sexual regulation and the state in Virginia offers further insight into why white elite rule mattered in the development of southern
