Workers, Capital, and the State in British Columbia Rennie Warburton, David Coburn, 2011-11-01 This collection of essays offers a comprehensive examination of the working class experience in British Columbia and contains essential background knowledge for an understanding of contemporary relations between government labour and employees It treats workers relationship to the province s resource base the economic role of the state the structure of capitalism the labour market and the influence of ethnicity and race on class relations Using different analytical categories and based on primary research the individual studies provide new assessments of the development of capitalist relations of production the way new economic developments changed old and traditional cultures the connection between the demand for labour and the immigration policy the impact of technology on work relations and the various responses of labour to the policies of the state and capital groupings Articles focusing on episodes from the 1870s to the present deal with major staple industries such as the early fur trade fishing mining and forestry and with the struggle of labourers against their employers in communities such as New Westminster and Fraser Mills and in specific sectors such as telecommunications and education Many of the analyses show that ethnicity acts both as a focus of integration and resistance against external forces in the larger society and as a point of division and antagonism internal to the working class The activities of the working class and its relationships to other parts of society are of primary importance in explaining social and economic change in the province and in the country Workers Capital and the State in British Columbia will be of interest to students of class labour and community relations

Philip Timms' Vancouver Fred Thirkell, Philip T. Timms, Bob Scullion, 2006 In Philip Timms Vancouver the city s golden age has been captured with spirit and style by one of British Columbia s foremost photographers Philip Timms was a man of many accomplishments but one of the most notable was his photographic record of Vancouver and the Lower Mainland created between 1900 and 1910 As Vancouver evolved from a colonial outpost to a modern centre of industry and tourism Timms sought to preserve views of the maturing city and its people from landmark buildings to street scenes to children and families James B Stanton a former curator of history at the Vancouver Museum wrote All of Timms photographs have a certain recognizable quality about them much of the kindness and gentleness of the man himself comes through His shots are candid and uncluttered and capture dramatically the feeling and mood of the time Fortunately Vancouver s adolescence coincided with the golden age of postcards when billions of them were being sent exchanged and hoarded all over the world By 1910 numerous photographers were producing postcards in the Vancouver area but Philip Timms stood well above the others This sampling of Timms best work is full of life people in action on the streets in the parks on the waterfront and on ships Growing Up British in British Columbia Jean Barman,2011-11-01 During the first half of this century about fifty non Canadian private boys schools existed in British Columbia virtually all of them founded on the principles of private education in Britain and intended to serve the offspring of British settlers In this book Jean Barman explains the appeal of the British model of education re creates the ethos of private school life and analyzes the effect of these schools on the social fabric of the province Canadiana ,1989 Fraser's Magazine ,1870 Fraser's Magazine for Town and Country James Anthony Froude,John Tulloch,1830 Fraser's Magazine for Town and Country ,1830 History of the Roush Family in America Lester Le Roy Roush,1928 Ancestors of Clifford Earl McAllister Vol 2 Family Groups Diana Jean Muir,2018-06-22 Vol 2 of the Ancestors of Clifford Earl McAllister includes the family groups of the first 50 of 58 generations The McAllister family goes back almost 2000 years to ancient Wales and Ancient Ireland and the Sea Kings of Norway Related to Prince Henry Sinclair and Winston Churchill the lines also go back to the Merovingian Kings of Normandy France and the Welsh Kings in 100 AD You might find discrepancies the further back you get as spellings vary dates are estimated and sometimes a title is included in the name While original research was done for the first 8 generations you should use information past that as a guide and not an absolute Front cover photo Top The Hills of Tara in Ancient Ireland and a Welsh castle from the 1300s Rear cover photo The Jarls Earls of Orkney as they travel throughout the northern Atlantic Encyclopedia of Biopharmaceutical Statistics - Four Volume Set Shein-Chung Chow,2018-09-03 Since the publication of the first edition in 2000 there has been an explosive growth of literature in biopharmaceutical research and development of new medicines This encyclopedia 1 provides a comprehensive and unified presentation of designs and analyses used at different stages of the drug development process 2 gives a well balanced summary of current regulatory requirements and 3 describes recently developed statistical methods in the pharmaceutical sciences Features of the Fourth Edition 1 78 new and revised entries have been added for a total of 308 chapters and a fourth volume has been added to encompass the increased number of chapters 2 Revised and updated entries reflect changes and recent developments in regulatory requirements for the drug review approval process and statistical designs and methodologies 3
