Ricordi Things Remembered:

Ricordi, Things Remembered C. Dino Minni, 1989 Deals with the theme the Italian experience in Canada Ricordi, Things Remembered C. Dino Minni, 1989 Sanctioned Ignorance Paul Martin, 2013-11-15 There is no such thing as the ivory tower Rather there sit side by side numerous windowless towers of knowledge each seeming to have only a small entrance and no discernable exit Paul Martin Multilingual multicultural and vast Canada enjoys a rich diversity of literatures So why does Canadian Literature as it has been taught fail to encompass a common geography history and government yet reveal the diverse experiences of its immigrants long term residents and original peoples Martin s research interviews with 95 professors in 27 universities maps the institutional chasms in communication and the nature of their persistence His own example of venturing out from his tower to dialogue with colleagues shows a way toward cultivating a conception of the literatures of Canada that is expansive and inclusive Canadianists professors of English French Postcolonial and Comparative Literatures and leaders in education will profit from Martin s frank investigations Difference and Community , 2022-03-07 This volume brings together essays which suggest that the relationship between Canada and Europe is a two way process as historically the traffic between them has been either may have something to offer the other Europe too acknowledges situations today in which difference and community are hard terms to reconcile Difference refers to gender sexuality race nationality or language Community is the collective understanding which must continually be renegotiated and reconstructed among these factors The Canadian European connection is one in which it seems especially appropriate to explore such circumstances The topics covered include pioneer women s writing transcultural women s fiction canonical taxonomy of the contemporary novel the city poem in Confederate Canada poetry of the Great War various ethno cultural perspectives Jewish South Asian Italian Native reappropriations Quebec cinema literature and the media and small press publishing Some of the authors treated Sandra Birdsell Nicole Brossard Jack Hodgins Henry Kreisel Robert Kroetsch Janice Kulyk Keefer Archibald Lampman Malcolm Lowry Lesley Lum Daphne Marlatt Susanna Moodie Bharati Mukherjee Alice Munro Frank Paci and Susan Swan F.G. of a wild and brilliant painter in an ancient Sicilian hill town All four are looking for the miraculous The miraculous for the three men is love in all its aspects for the young woman it is the search of love in the time of the dirty war The painter in Sicily hovers over them all and retells the story of how he saved the young woman Jeanne from the mysterious killer who kills whenever a comet appears in the sky once every ten years Toni Fiorella De Luca Calce, 1990 Cold hands clamped around my neck From the corner of my eye something clicked and glinted like a knife Sure as hell was not going to find out The hands became an arm I sank my teeth into the skin He let go I made for the door did not look back My chest burned as my legs scaled the wall The dead taste of blood in my mouth made me gag Contrasts Joseph Pivato, 1991 This historic collection the first of its kind is devoted to the discussion of Italian Canadian writers publishing in English in French or in Italian These critical essays include analyses of some important writing F G Paci's Black Madonna the poetry of Mary di Michele and Pier Giorgio Di Cicco the plays of Marco Micone Gens du Silence and Addolorata the novels of Maria Ardizzi and many other titles The ten contributors make significant additions to the study of Canadian literature D C Minni examines the short story Alexandre Amprimoz and Sante Viselli consider Italian Canadian poetry Roberta Sciff Zamaro analyses Black Madonna Robert Billings fathoms di Michels's verse Frank Paci considers the task of the novelist Fulvio Caccia's essay on the literary languages of Quebec is controversial as are Filippo Salvatore's arguments on the writer and politics Antonio D Alfonso speculates on future developments among the more than one hundred Italian Canadian writers In addition to editing the collection Joseph Pivato introduces the volume with a long essay on ethnic history and literary criticism in Canada includes another essay on Italian language writers and concludes with a detailed bibliography and an index Caterina Edwards Joseph Pivato, 2000 With the publication of The Lion's Mouth in 1982 Caterina Edwards made her mark as a novelist Edward's works include short stories novellas and a play and explore questions of identity for men and women This is the first book on her literary achievement Echo Joseph Pivato, 2003 This collection of essays explores the literature of Italian immigrants in Canada and their children by focusing on the central role that themes of migration hold in their work Addressing topics such as the oral roots of Canadian immigrant writing the changing place of women in works of the Italian diaspora and the persistent difficulties of translation this work provides an international perspective on some of the most pressing questions in the study of literature today In addition to Canadian works the work of immigrant writers from Australia and other countries is also considered producing nuanced observations of cultural differences and affinities

Mamma Mia! Maria McLean, 2004-05-27 Growing up a second generation Italian woman in Canada is not as easy as it looks In fact it requires the keeping of secrets the telling of lies the casting of curses and the patience of a saint Here 20 Italian Canadian women share their stories some comic some tragic some nostalgic all true about living a double life with a private public split personality Intimate inspiring brave and confessional these tales reveal women old enough to reminisce yet young enough to revolutionize Balancing between the Old Country and the new a respect for tradition and the need to break with it this collection is a rare and surprising blend of humour and candor that promises the perfect conversation starter Mamma mia what will they dare say next

The Power of Allegiances Marino Tuzi,1997 The Power of Allegiances explores contemporary social reality in Canada from a cultural perspective It proposes that ideas about being Canadian are not culturally neutral Such ideas are influenced by specific historical and cultural traditions that differ from those found in anglophone and francophone communities By examining the fictional work of several writers of Italian heritage Marino Tuzi demonstrates that one's cultural and gender identity is a product of conflicting factors factors which are located in mainstream society and in a given ethnic group The book shows that this particular representation of Canadian experience by minority writers is conveyed in ways which underline a unique cultural perspective Marino Tuzi makes use of cultural studies social history and the sociology of ethnicity and literary criticism This interdisciplinary study of culture and society will be of interest to a variety of readers from specialists in the fields of cultural studies literature and sociology to general readers who are curious about the multicultural nature of contemporary Canadian life

Maude Suzanne Jacob,1997 Maude is an artist Bruno looks after her Or does he sponge off her Is he her lover or her housekeeper Is she an artist because he organises her life or does her art defy her fussy inventions What is he to her What is she to him Are they simply insane Suzanne Jacob's Maude develops two complex characters caught in a kind of prolonged irresponsible adolescence This intense novella explores the dynamics of this odd couple a dynamics that transcends the otherwise pervasive apathy depression and sense of powerlessness
