difficult to understand the position they are coming from and for readers to understand clearly how Europe made the transition from merely one of many developing civilizations to the world's first industrial power In this volume Jonathan Daly introduces us to the main interpretations of Europe's rise that have been proposed over the past half century and presents the views of these historians and schools of scholarship advocating for each point of view and letting each author speak for him or herself through the inclusion of brief textual selections Also included are interesting biographical details for each scholar as well as a list of further reading for each chapter and a collection of maps An ideal introduction for students of world history

The Practices of Happiness Ian Steedman, John R Atherton, Elaine Graham, 2010-08-03 A PDF version of this book is available for free in open access via www.tandfebooks.com as well as the OAPEN Library platform www.oapen.org It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 3.0 license and is part of the OAPEN UK research project There is growing evidence that rising levels of prosperity in Western economies since 1945 have not been matched by greater incidences of reported well being and happiness Indeed material affluence is often accompanied instead by greater social and individual distress A growing literature within the humanities and social sciences is increasingly concerned to chart not only the underlying trends in recorded levels of happiness but to consider what factors if any contribute to positive and sustainable experiences of well being and quality of life Increasingly such research is focusing on the importance of values and beliefs in human satisfaction or quality of life but the specific contribution of religion to these trends is relatively under examined This unique collection of essays seeks to rectify that omission by identifying the nature and role of the religious contribution to wellbeing A unique collection of nineteen leading scholars from the field of economics psychology public theology and social policy have been brought together in this volume to explore the religious contribution to the debate about happiness and well being These essays explore the religious dimensions to a number of key features of well being including marriage crime and rehabilitation work inequality mental health environment participation institutional theory business and trade They engage particularly closely with current trends in economics in identifying alternative models of economic growth which focus on its qualitative as well as quantitative dimensions This unique volume brings to public notice the nature and role of religion's contribution to wellbeing including new ways of measurement and evaluation As such it represents a valuable and unprecedented resource for the development of a broad based religious contribution to the field It will be of particular relevance for those who are concerned about the continuing debate about personal and societal well being as well as those who are interested in the continuing significance of religion for the future of public policy

Diversity in America Peter H. Schuck, 2003 America is the first society in history to make ethno racial diversity an affirmative social ideal rather than viewing it as a fearful menace as almost all other societies still do Since the 1960s America has pursued this ideal in many forms not only to remedy past discrimination against minorities but also to increase diversity for its own sake It is high time for an accounting How diverse are we now and what can we expect in the future Why do we unlike the rest of the world think that diversity is desirable and that more of it is better What risks does diversity pose What are the roles of law politics and informal social controls in promoting diversity How can we manage diversity better In this magisterial book Peter H Schuck explains how Americans have understood diversity how we came to embrace it how the government regulates it now and how we can do better He mobilizes a wealth of conceptual historical legal political and sociological analysis to argue that diversity is best managed not by the government but by families ethnic groups religious communities employers voluntary organizations and other civil society institutions Analyzing some of the most controversial policy arenas where politics and diversity intersect immigration multiculturalism language affirmative action residential neighborhoods religious practices faith based social services and school choice Schuck reveals the conflicts trade offs and ironies entailed by our commitment to the diversity ideal He concludes with recommendations to help us manage the challenge of diversity in the future

Genoa's Freedom Matteo Salonia, 2017-02-24 This book investigates the economic intellectual and political history of late medieval and early modern Genoa and the historical origins of the Genoese presence in the Spanish Atlantic Salonia describes Genoa s late medieval economic expansion and commercial networks through several case studies from the Black Sea to southern England and briefly compares it to the state run military expansion of Venice s empire The author links the adaptability and entrepreneurial skills of Genoese merchants and businessmen to the constitutional history of the Genoese commune and to the specific idea of freedom progressively protected by its constitutions and embodied by institutions like the Bank of St George Moreover this book offers an unprecedented account of the actions with which Ferdinand the Catholic protected Genoese merchants in his dominions and of the later mutual understanding between the Genoese community and emperor Charles V during the Italian Wars and in particular during the 1520s These developments in Hispanic Genoese diplomatic and economic relations are of great significance The sixteenth century Hispanic Genoese alliance is important to understand the characteristics of Habsburg governance and the resilience of Genoa s republican conservatism Genoa s republicanism based on private wealth and private arms contradicts historiographical narratives that assume the inevitability of the emergence of the modern militarized and centralized state It also shows the inadequacy of Tuscan centric historical accounts of Renaissance republicanism The last chapter of the book reveals the consequences of the 1528 Hispanic Genoese alliance by considering case studies that illustrate the Genoese presence in the Spanish Americas from Chile to Mexico since the early stages of conquest and settlement

Defence Diplomacy in the Long War Patrick Blannin, 2017-08-28 One of the most dominant security issues of the twenty first century has been the US led battle against transnational terrorism the aptly named Long War Over the past fifteen years the Long War has been examined using multiple perspectives However one central mechanism is missing in current Long War analyses defence diplomacy Defence diplomacy enhances the diplomatic and security capacity of a state providing the only link between executive office and the ministries of foreign affairs and defence two vital institutions in the Long War Using a case study of US defence diplomacy in Afghanistan from 2001 to 2014 the paper argues simply that the practice of defence diplomacy far outweighs current theories on what it is how it works and why it matters The paper aims to generate a more nuanced understanding of defence diplomacy as well as identify it as a key component of the US CT COIN strategy to achieve their Long War policy objectives

The Concert of Civilizations Jeremy Kleidosty, 2016-03-09 Are Western and Islamic political and constitutional ideas truly predestined for civilizational clash In order to understand this controversy The Concert of Civilizations begins by deriving and redefining a definition of constitutionalism that is suitable for comparative cross cultural analysis The rule of law reflection of national character and the clear delineation and limitation of governmental power are used as lenses through which thinkers like Cicero Montesquieu and the authors of The Federalist Papers can be read alongside al Farabi ibn Khaldun and the Ottoman Tanzimat decrees Bridging the civilizational divide is a chapter comparing the Magna Carta with Muhammad's Constitution of Medina as both documents can be seen as foundational within their traditions For the first time in political theory this text also provides a sustained detailed analysis of Khayr al Din al Tunisi's book The Surest Path which explains his fusion of Muslim and Western ideas in his writing of Tunisia's first modern constitution which is also the first constitution for a majority Muslim state Finally the book discusses the Arab Spring through a brief overview of the revolutions in Egypt Libya and Tunisia and offers some early thoughts about Tunisia's uniquely successful revolution
