Howard, 2015-02-12 These early works by Robert E Howard were originally published in the early 20th century and we are now republishing them with a brand new introductory biography The Tale of Sailor Steve Costigan is a compilation of Howard s short stories in the Sailor Steve Costigan series and include The Pit of the Serpent Breed of Battle Sailors Grudge and many more Robert Ervin Howard was born in Peaster Texas in 1906 During his youth his family moved between a variety of Texan boomtowns and Howard a bookish and somewhat introverted child was steeped in the violent myths and legends of the Old South At fifteen Howard began to read the pulp magazines of the day and to write more seriously The December 1922 issue of his high school newspaper featured two of his stories Golden Hope Christmas and West is West In 1924 he sold his first piece a short caveman tale titled Spear and Fang for 16 to the not yet famous Weird Tales magazine Howard s most famous character Conan the Cimmerian was a barbarian turned King during the Hyborian Age a mythical period of some 12 000 years ago Conan featured in seventeen Weird Tales stories between 1933 and 1936 which is why Howard is now regarded as having spawned the sword and sorcery genre The Conan stories have since been adapted many times most famously in the series of films starring Arnold Schwarzenegger The Sailor's Magazine ,1845 The Sailor's Magazine, and Naval Journal ,1845 "King of Critics" Dorothy Richardson Jones, 1992 An early advocate of art for art s sake George Saintsbury became for the English reader of the 1880s the interpreter of all French literature and later a pioneer in comparative literature and historian of English prosody and prose rhythm His early years at Oxford shaped his literary attitudes for life After a decade as a schoolmaster he was for many years a leading London journalist then professor of English at the University of Edinburgh Eighteen more years saw a steady flow of prefaces and essays and a history of the French novel In King of Critics one meets a man of myriad literary tastes who wished to know the whole history of European literature and share it all with readers He loved equally the purest lyrics of Shelley and the complexity of Donne the richness of Rabelais the panorama of Scott and medieval romance and the profound depths of irony in Swift and Ecclesiastes and always urged upon the reader the joys of minor writers King of Critics is a fascinating study not only of Saintsbury but of the literary world of Victorian Edwardian England It will appeal to a wide variety of readers particularly those interested in biography and literary history and criticism

Untying the Knot Galit Hasan-Rokem, David Shulman, 1996-11-28 This book collects eighteen previously unpublished essays on the riddle a genre of discourse found in virtually every human culture Hasan Rokem and Shulman have drawn these essays from a variety of cultural perspectives and disciplines linguists anthropologists folklorists and religion and literature scholars consider riddling practices in Hebrew Finnish Indian languages Chinese and classical Greek The authors seek to understand the peculiar expressive power of the riddle and the cultural logic of its particular uses they scrutinize the riddle s logical structure and linguistic strategies as well as its affinity to neighboring genres such as enigmas puzzles oracular prophecy proverbs and dreams In this way they begin to answer how riddles relate to the conceptual structures of a particular culture and how they come to represent a culture s cosmology or cognitive map of the world More importantly these essays reveal the human need for symbolic ordering riddles being one such form of cultural ritual

Ireland, Literature, and the Coast Nicholas Allen, 2020-11-05 The island of Ireland is home to one of the world s great literary and artistic traditions This book reads Irish literature and art in context of the island s coastal and maritime cultures beginning with the late imperial experiences of Jack and William Butler Yeats and ending with the contemporary work of Anne Enright and Sinéad Morrissey It includes chapters on key historical texts such as Erskine Childers s The Riddle of the Sands and on contemporary writers including Eilís Ní Chuilleanáin and Kevin Barry It sets a diverse range of writing and visual art in a fluid panorama of liquid associations that connect Irish literature to an archipelago of other times and places Situated within contemporary conversations about the blue and the environmental humanities this book builds on the upsurge of interest in seas and coasts in literary studies presenting James Joyce Elizabeth Bowen John Banville and many others in new coastal and maritime contexts In doing so it creates a literary and visual narrative of Irish coastal cultures across a seaboard that extends to a planetary configuration of imagined islands

Philosophical Essays O. K. Bouwsma, 1965-01-01 The essays in this collection are not confined to any one period or any one subject Nearly every one in the author's words is an attempt to understand some short passage from the work of some philosopher teasing the passage with analogies of sense If one were to describe the method as Descartes described his method the method of doubt perhaps it might best be described as the method of failure

Gods (The Complete Series) Pablo Andrés Wunderlich Padilla, The enemy has infiltrated the empire and gained enough political and military influence to subvert it from within The venom of darkness spills from the heart of the kingdom Politicians and civilians alike have been tamed and subdued rendered incapable of recognizing right from wrong good from evil Evil spreads like a terminal disease unchallenged unhindered and unrestrained In a small village on the outskirts of the kingdom an innocent young shepherd tends to his sheep and helps on the family farm His family s estate is hastening toward economic ruin due to the untimely death of his grandfather It all falls on him to honor his family s legacy When the young shepherd sets off on a seemingly dull journey to a nearby village he encounters a terrible darkness His quest will become an epic battle of survival love and ultimate sacrifice As he accepts the call to arms his innocence will be lost He must save his country and awaken his people from slumber Will he be in time to save them all
