catastrophic events in New Orleans following Hurricane Katrina The wetlands had been disappearing at an ever increasing rate over fifty years America s demand for oil combined with a mismanaged levee system had finally dealt a mortal blow to the defenses of New Orleans The city lay open to the wrath of a 20 foot wall of tidal surge We could not let this happen again Little was being done It was important that someone step up Someone did The audacious idea was that a guy on a motorcycle traveling 16 500 miles around the perimeter of the United States talking about coastal erosion just might call attention to the issue If this rider was also a trained public speaker with a passion for his message perhaps he could be the catalyst needed to raise awareness in the rest of the country There was no way to predict success There was risk as well as reward The author took the risk and discovered a nation genuinely concerned for New Orleans but with little understanding of the importance of the wetlands to the country s economy and security The wetlands are still endangered but one man stepped up and made his voice heard This is his story While many serve the cause of saving America s WETLAND Terry Forrette takes his show on the road mile by mile enlisting supporters These personal and sincere acts of advocacy are seldom recognized in a time of media hype but they are the backbone of our efforts to show that America cannot not afford to lose coastal Louisiana Valsin A Marmillion Managing Director America s WETLAND Foundation President and Founder Marmillion Company Renegade Champion Richard R. Rust,2008-08-22 If you buy that horse you re buying your daughter s death warrant Jane Pohl s father was warned at the army barracks in the spring of 1941 But the potential that his teenage daughter Jane saw in the small temperamental Thoroughbred was enough to convince him otherwise Earlier that year when Fitzrada arrived at the army base where Jane s family lived the horse was stubborn unpredictable and dangerous Any man who dared addle him up soon found himself face down in the dirt Jane excited to ride any horse and up for the challenge had the most success with Fitz She was patient and consistent and the horse responded well at last showing a great affinity for jumping Then inexplicably a terrible riding accident resulted in serious injuries for both Jane and Fitz and the army decide that it was time to destroy the horse Heartbroken Jane pleaded with her reluctant father the only way to save Fitz was to buy him from the army Jane Pohl s foresight proved to be correct Jane and Fitz went on to take the Virginia show jumping circuit by storm winning 37 jumper and 6 hinter championships At a time when women were rarely seen in jumping classes at horse shows and were not taken seriously by male competitors Jane and Fitz helped to break down barriers against women riders competing in the Olympics In 1946 Jane and Fitz found themselves at the Jumper Championship at the prestigious National Horse Show in Madison Square Garden the highest jumping title in North America The road there for horse and rider was a five year test of faith patience and understanding friendship Riding and Driving Edward Lowell Anderson,Price Collier,1905
