Contested Curriculum Don Romesburg,2025-04-15 Today many states have proposed so called Don t Say Gay bills that prohibit public school teachers from mentioning LGBTQ topics in the classroom But a few states like California have taken decisive steps in the other direction They mandate inclusive education that treats LGBTQ history as essential to the curriculum At once a history of an evolving movement and an activist handbook Contested Curriculum navigates the rocky path to LGBTQ inclusive K 12 history education in the United States and recounts the fight for a curriculum that recognizes the value of queer and trans lives What began in fits and starts in activism and educational materials across the late twentieth century led to the passage of California's landmark FAIR Education Act in 2011 ensuring that LGBTQ history has a place in the K-12 classroom Historian Don Romesburg the lead scholar who worked with advocacy organizations to pass the act recounts the decades-long struggle to integrate LGBTQ content into history education policy textbooks and classrooms Looking at California and states that followed its lead he assesses the challenges and opportunities presented by this new way of teaching history Romesburg's powerful case for LGBTQ inclusive education is all the more urgent in this era of anti-gay book bans regressive legislation and attempts to diminish the vital role that inclusive and honest history education should play in a democratic nation Urban Spaces and Gender in Asia Divya Upadhyaya Joshi, Caroline Brassard, 2020-04-29

Exploring the relationship between place and identity this book gathers 30 papers that highlight experiences from throughout the Asia Pacific region The countries profiled include China India Japan Indonesia and Thailand Readers will gain a better understanding of how urbanization is affecting gender equity in Asian Pacific cities in the 21st century The contributing authors examine the practical implications of urban development and link them with the broader perspective of urban ecology They consider how visceral experiences connect with structural and discursive spheres Further they investigate how multiple interconnected relations of power shape gender in equity in urban ecologies and address such issues as construction of Kawaii as an idealized femininity diversity among homosexuals in urban India and single women and rental housing In turn the authors present hitherto unexplored sub themes from historiography and existentialist literary perspectives and share a vast range of multi-disciplinary views on issues concerning gendered dispossession due to the impact of urban policy and governance The topics covered include socio-spatial and ethnic segregation in urban spaces intersections of gender race ethnicity nationality religion and caste in urban spaces and identity-based marginalization including that of LGBT groups Overall the book brings together perspectives from the humanities and the social sciences and represents a valuable contribution to the vital theoretical and practical debates on urbanism and gender equity The
