Buying Into the World of Goods Ann Smart Martin, 2008-03-14 Cowinner 2008 Fred Kniffen Book Award Pioneer America Society Association for the Preservation of Landscapes and Artifacts How did people living on the early American frontier discover and then become a part of the market economy How do their purchases and their choices revise our understanding of the market revolution and the emerging consumer ethos Ann Smart Martin provides answers to these questions by examining the texture of trade on the edge of the upper Shenandoah Valley between 1760 and 1810

Reconstructing the world of one country merchant John Hook Martin reveals how the acquisition of consumer goods created and validated a set of ideas about taste fashion and lifestyle in a particular place at a particular time Her analysis of Hook's account ledger illuminates the everyday wants transactions and tensions recorded within and brings some of Hook's customers to life a planter looking for just the right clock a farmer in search of nails a young woman and her friends out shopping on their own and a slave woman choosing a looking glass This innovative approach melds fascinating narratives with sophisticated analysis of material culture to distill large abstract social and economic systems into intimate triangulations among merchants customers and objects Martin finds that objects not only reflect culture they are the means to create it

Virginia Cavalcade, 1994 Robert E. Lee in War and Peace Donald A. Hopkins, 2013-10-19 Robert E Lee is well known as a Confederate general and as an educator later in life but most people are exposed to the same handful of images of one of America's most famous sons It has been almost seven decades since anyone has attempted a serious study of Lee in photographs and with Don Hopkins s painstakingly researched and lavishly illustrated Robert E Lee in War and Peace the wait is finally over Dr Hopkins a Mississippi surgeon and lifelong student of the Civil War and Southern history with a recent interest in Robert E Lee s from life photographs scoured manuscript repositories and private collections across the country to locate every known Lee image 61 in all in existence today The detailed text accompanying these images provides a sweeping history of Lee s life and a compelling discussion of antique photography with biographical sketches of all of Lee s known photographers The importance of information within the photographer s imprint or backmark is emphasized throughout the book Hopkins offers a substantial amount of previously unknown information about these images how each came to be and the mistakes in fact and attribution other authors and writers have made describing photographs of Lee to the reading public Many of the images in this book are being published for the first time In addition to a few rare photographs and formats that were uncovered during the research phase of Robert E Lee in War and Peace the author offers for the first time definitive and conclusive attribution of the identity of the photographer of the well known Lee in the field images and reproduces a startling imperial size photograph of Lee made by Alexander Gardner of Washington D C Students of American history in general and the Civil War in particular as well as collectors and dealers who deal with Civil War era photography will find Hopkins s outstanding Robert E Lee in War and Peace a true contribution to the growing literature on the Civil War About the Author Born in the rural South Donald A Hopkins has maintained a fascination with Southern history since he was a child In addition to published papers in the medical field he has written several Civil War articles and The Little Jeff The Jeff Davis Legion Cavalry Army of Northern Virginia for which he received the United Daughters of the Confederacy s Jefferson Davis Historical Gold Medal Dr Hopkins served as Battalion Surgeon for the 1st Battalion 9th Marines better known as The Walking Dead in Vietnam He was awarded the purple heart and the Bronze Star with combat V Dr Hopkins is a surgeon in Gulfport Mississippi where he lives with his wife Cindy and their golden retriever Dixie
