Rocks Life In Early Sydney:

Rocks Grace Karskens, 2013-04-18 The Rocks is Sydney's earliest surviving neighbourhood. Grace Karskens builds up a vivid picture of the lives of its earliest white inhabitants. A wealth of historical documents, pictures, maps and archaeological evidence allows her to recover the words and gestures, tastes and habits, aspirations and fears of the dealers, publicans, labourers, artisans, watermen, washerwomen, servants and prostitutes who lived there. What sort of town did these people make? What did it look like? How did they treat their neighbours? And what of other human relations: how did men and women behave sexually? What did they think was moral behaviour? What were their marriages like? How did they bring up their children? Grace Karskens shows it was a place very different from the usual images of a brutal gaol colony; it was rather a preindustrial town, a face-to-face society marked more by movement and opportunity, dialogue and negotiation than by coercion, discipline and punishment.

The Art of Time Travel Tom Griffiths, 2017-07-03 No matter how practised we are at history, it always humbles us. No matter how often we visit the past, it always surprises us. Winner of the Ernest Scott Prize and shortlisted for the NSW Premier's Literary Award for Non-fiction. A rare feat of imagination and generosity. Mark McKenna. With every sentence they write, historians must walk the tightrope between discipline and imagination, empathy and evidence. In this landmark work, eminent historian and award-winning author Tom Griffiths shares his passion for the fascinating, complex craft of history, or as he calls it, the art of time travel. In fourteen portraits, Griffiths illuminates how historians such as Inga Clendinnen, Judith Wright, Geoffrey Blainey and Henry Reynolds have approached their craft. In prose both earthy and elegant, he shows the new insights they have brought to Australian history and, in so doing, reshapes our shared knowledge of this continent. The Art of Time Travel is an exhilarating book that will forever change the way you think of Australia's past. If the past is a foreign country, Tom Griffiths makes the perfect travelling companion. Let him be your eyes and ears on our shared history. Most of all, follow his heart. Clare Wright.

Chiselled Horizons: A Multi-Cultural Approach to Visual Literacy Taina Brown, Alejandro Mises Castellanos, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Interdisciplinary Press in 2016. Shaping visual literacy has been at the forefront of contemporary discourse as images have increasingly surpassed words in becoming the primary vehicles to persuade our emotions. Visually encoded domains of symbols and signs inform the educational public and entertainment industries increasingly as an undifferentiated whole, aided by globalizing media forces in various forms. Whether top-down, peer-to-peer, one-to-many or many-to-many, this volume attempts to derive sets of rules used to visually decode patterns present in certain media formats: press, cinema, television and maps, among others, and the place of the spectator in their respective dynamics. The topics discussed transition through various approaches to deconstruct mass media influences to engage critical thinking skills, and ending with a collection of chapters dedicated to exploring their effects upon children and the capacity to be implemented to foster collaboration-based creative learning environments.

Site Ewen McDonald, 2012 An Archaeology of Australia Since 1788 Susan

Lawrence, Peter Davies, 2010-10-21 This volume provides an important new synthesis of archaeological work carried out in Australia on the post contact period It draws on dozens of case studies from a wide geographical and temporal span to explore the daily life of Australians in settings such as convict stations goldfields whalers camps farms pastoral estates and urban neighbourhoods The different conditions experienced by various groups of people are described in detail including rich and poor convicts and their superiors Aboriginal people women children and migrant groups The social themes of gender class ethnicity status and identity inform every chapter demonstrating that these are vital parts of human experience and cannot be separated from archaeologies of industry urbanization and culture contact The book engages with a wide range of contemporary discussions and debates within Australian history and the international discipline of historical archaeology The colonization of Australia was part of the international expansion of European hegemony in the eighteenth and nineteenth century The material discussed here is thus fundamentally part of the global processes of colonization and the creation of settler societies the industrial revolution the development of mass consumer culture and the emergence of national identities Drawing out these themes and integrating them with the analysis of archaeological materials highlights the vital relevance of archaeology in modern society Pictorial History Eastern Suburbs Alan Sharpe, Joan Lawrence, 1999 The Harbour

Scott Bevan, 2017-11-01 The finest harbour deserves the finest book A colourful fascinating and enduring account of the greatest waterway in the hemisphere Simon Winchester This book is a joy to read And essential for anyone who loves Sydney Harbour And who doesn't Ken Done In the bestselling tradition of Peter Ackroyd's The Thames a celebration of one of the world's great waterways Everyone knows Sydney Harbour At least we think we do Everyone can see the harbour whether we have ever been to Sydney or not By as little as a word or two the harbour floats into our mind's eye The Bridge The Opera House Fireworks on New Year's Eve When we see those images we feel a sense of belonging No matter who we are or where we're from we see the harbour and we feel good In this beautiful authoritative and meditative journey Scott Bevan takes us from cove to cove by kayak yacht and barge to gather the harbour's stories past and present from boat builders ship captains and fishermen to artists divers historians and environmentalists from signs of ancient life to the submarine invasion by the Japanese and the natural beauty that inspires people every day This is the ultimate story of Sydney Harbour a city's heart and a country's soul Chinese Market Gardening in Australia and New Zealand Joanna Boileau, 2017-07-27 This book offers a fresh perspective on the Chinese diaspora It is about the mobilisation of knowledge across time and space exploring the history of Chinese market gardening in Australia and New Zealand It enlarges our understanding of processes of technological change and human mobility highlighting the mobility of migrants as an essential element in the mobility and adaptation of technologies Truly multidisciplinary Chinese Market Gardening in Australia and New Zealand incorporates elements of economic agricultural social cultural and environmental history along with archaeology to document how Chinese market gardeners from subtropical southern China adapted their horticultural techniques and technologies to novel environments and the demands of European consumers It shows that they made a significant contribution to the economies of Australia and New Zealand developing flexible strategies to cope with the vagaries of climate and changing business and social environments which were often hostile towards Asian immigrants Chinese Market Gardening in Australia and New Zealand will appeal to students and scholars in the fields of the Chinese diaspora in particular the history of the Chinese in Australasia the history of technology horticultural and garden history and environmental history as well as Asian studies more generally

Girls' Violence Christine Alder, Anne Worrall, 2010-03-18 This critical collection brings together some of the best contemporary research on the perceived increase in girls violence With perspectives from the United States Canada Australia and the United Kingdom the work challenges official definitions and media representations of girls and violence Contributors discuss whether violence by girls has actually increased what kind of behavior by girls is classified as violent how attitudes toward girls behavior have changed in what contexts girls behave violently and look at the links between girls violence and the broader issues of the social construction and social control of adolescent femininities With diverse essays representing different geographical and disciplinary perspectives this book offers at times contradictory evidence and conflicting views However common concerns are clear and the reader is rewarded with a rich exploration of the struggles of girls and young women to take control of their lives in material and ideological conditions that continue to restrict their options and opportunities

The Wreck Meg Keneally, 2020-09-01 In 1820 Sarah McCaffrey fleeing arrest for her part in a failed rebellion thinks she has escaped when she finds herself aboard the Serpent bound from London to the colony of New South Wales But when the mercurial captain's actions drive the ship into a cliff Sarah is the only survivor Adopting a false identity she becomes the right hand woman of Molly Thistle who has grown her late husband's business interests into a sprawling real estate and trade empire As time passes Sarah begins to believe she might have found a home until her past follows her across the seas
