The Devil and Mr. Casement Jordan Goodman, 2025-10-16 THE STORY OF AN IMPERIAL TRAGEDY THAT SENT SHOCKWAVES AROUND THE WORLD In September 1910 the activist Roger Casement arrived in the Amazon jungle on a mission for the British government to investigate reports of widespread human rights abuses in the forests along the Putumayo River Accusations against the Peruvian rubber baron Julio Cesar Arana had been making their way back to London and the rumors were on everybody's lips Arana was enslaving torturing and murdering the local Indians Arana's Peruvian Amazon Company with its headquarters in London's financial heart was responsible Casement was outraged by what he uncovered nearly 30 000 Indians had died to produce 4 000 tons of rubber When Casement's 700 page report of the violence was published in London in 1912 it set off reverberations throughout the world People were appalled that murderous acts were being carried out under the cloak of British respectability The Peruvian Amazon Company was forced into liquidation and its board of directors was publicly shamed From the Amazonian rain forests to the streets of London and Washington D C Jordan Goodman recounts a tragedy whose exposure in 1912 drew back the curtain on exploitation and the wholesale abuse of human rights Drawing on a wealth of original research The Devil and Mr Casement is a haunting story of modern capitalism with enormous contemporary political resonance

Hodge, 2007-11-30 In 1800 Europeans governed about one third of the world's land surface by the start of World War I in 1914 Europeans had imposed some form of political or economic ascendancy on over 80 percent of the globe The basic structure of global and European politics in the twentieth century was fashioned in the previous century out of the clash of competing imperial interests and the effects both beneficial and harmful of the imperial powers on the societies they dominated This encyclopedia offers current detailed information on the major world powers and their global empires as well as on the people events ideas and movements both European and non European that shaped the Age of Imperialism

Modern Literature and the Death Penalty, 1890-1950 Katherine Ebury, 2021-02-10 This book examines how the cultural and ethical power of literature allowed writers and readers to reflect on the practice of capital punishment in the UK Ireland and the US between 1890 and 1950 It explores how connections between high and popular culture seem particularly inextricable where the death penalty is at stake analysing a range of forms including major works of canonical literature detective fiction plays polemics criminological and psychoanalytic tracts and letters and memoirs The book addresses conceptual understandings of the modern death penalty including themes such as confession the gothic life writing and the human animal binary It also discusses the role of conflict in shaping the representation of capital punishment including chapters on the Easter Rising on World War I on colonial and quasi colonial conflict and on World War II Ebury s overall approach aims to improve our understanding of the centrality of the death penalty and the role it played in major twentieth century literary movements and historical events Irish Political Prisoners 1848-1922 Professor Sean McConville,2005-08-19 This is the most wide ranging study ever published of political violence and the punishment of Irish political offenders from 1848 to the founding of the Irish Free State in 1922 Those who chose violence to advance their Irish nationalist beliefs ranged from gentlemen revolutionaries to those who openly embraced terrorism or even full scale guerilla war Se n McConville provides a comprehensive survey of Irish revolutionary struggle matching chapters on punishment of offenders with descriptions and analysis of their campaigns Government s response to political violence was determined by a number of factors including not only the nature of the offences but also interest and support from the United States and Australia as well as current objectives of Irish policy Roger Casement Séamas Ó Síocháin,2008 Drawing on a trove of official and personal sources the author shows how what began as an ordinary career in the British consular service for Roger Casement became a singular crusade on three continents against exploitation cruelty and injustice Masculinity and Power in Irish Nationalism, 1884-1938 Aidan Beatty,2016-09-23 This book is a comparative study of masculinity and white racial identity in Irish nationalism and Zionism It analyses how both national movements sought to refute widespread anti Irish or anti Jewish stereotypes and create more prideful and highly gendered images of their respective nations Drawing on English Irish and Hebrew language archival sources Aidan Beatty traces how male Irish nationalists sought to remake themselves as a proudly Gaelic speaking race rooted both in their national past as well as in the spaces and agricultural soil of Ireland On the one hand this was an attempt to refute contemporary British colonial notions that they were somehow a racially inferior or uncomfortably hybridised people But this is also presented in the light of the general history of European nationalism nationalist movements across Europe often crafted romanticised images of the nation s past and Irish nationalism was thus simultaneously European and postcolonial It is this that makes Irish nationalism similar to Zionism a movement that sought to create a more idealized image of the Jewish past that would disprove contemporary anti Semitic stereotypes Yeats's Mask Margaret Mills Harper,Warwick Gould,2013-12-20 Yeats s Mask Yeats Annual No 19 is a special issue in this renowned research level series Fashionable in the age of Wilde the Mask changes shape until it emerges as Mask in the system of A Vision Chronologically tracing the concept through Yeats s plays and those poems written as texts for exposition of his occult thought which flowers in A Vision itself 1925 and 1937 the volume also spotlights The Mask before The Mask numerous plays including Cathleen Ni Houlihan The King's Threshold Calvary The Words upon the Window pane A Full Moon in March and The Death of Cuchulain There are excursions into studies of Yeats's friendship with the Oxford don and cleric William Force Stead his radio broadcasts the Chinese contexts for his writing of Lapis Lazuli His self renewal after The Oxford Book of Modern Verse and the key occult epistolary exchange Leo Africanus edited from MSS by Steve L Adams and George Mills Harper is republished from the elusive Yeats Annual No 1 1982 The essays are by David Bradshaw Michael Cade Stewart Aisling Carlin Warwick Gould Margaret Mills Harper Pierre Longuenesse Jerusha McCormack Neil Mann Emilie Morin Elizabeth Mller and Alexandra Poulain with shorter notes by Philip Bishop and Colin Smythe considering Yeats's quatrain upon remaking himself and the pirate editions of The Land of Heart's Desire Ten reviews focus on various volumes of the Cornell Yeats MSS Series his correspondence with George Yeats and numerous critical studies Yeats Annual is published by Open Book Publishers in association with the Institute of English Studies University of London
