

The background of the book cover is a photograph of a French-style outdoor setting. It features a building with light blue horizontal siding and a terracotta roof. A window with white shutters is visible, with a white classical bust placed on the sill. Various dried herbs and plants are hanging from the shutters and the wall. In the foreground, a rustic wooden table is set with several woven baskets containing fresh produce like mushrooms and herbs, along with some bread. The overall atmosphere is one of traditional French country life.
