Gothic Subjects Sian Silyn Roberts,Siân Silyn Roberts,2014-06-09 Beginning in the 1790s North American readers developed an appetite for the gothic novel as imported reprinted and pirated editions of British and European romances flooded the market alongside homegrown works In Gothic Subjects Si n Silyn Roberts accounts for the sudden and considerable appeal of the gothic during this period by contending that it prepared a culturally diverse American readership to think of itself as part of a transatlantic world through which goods people and information could circulate By putting gothic literature in dialogue with the writings of Locke Hume Reid Smith Rousseau and other major figures of the European Enlightenment Silyn Roberts shows how the early American novel participated in the process of revising and transforming the figure of the modern individual for a fluid contingent Atlantic population Exploring works of fiction by Charles Brockden Brown Leonora Sansay Sally Sayward Barrell Keating Wood Edgar Allan Poe Robert Montgomery Bird Nathaniel Hawthorne and William Wells Brown among others Silyn Roberts argues that the gothic helped post Revolutionary readers to think of themselves as political subjects By reading the emergence of a national literary style in terms of its appropriation and reinterpretation of British cultural forms Gothic Subjects situates itself at the crux of several important issues in American literary history transatlantic literary relations the connection between literature and political philosophy the paradoxes of sovereign power and the form of the novel In doing so Gothic Subjects powerfully rethinks some of our previous assumptions about the cultural work of the American gothic tradition Transgression and Redemption in American Fiction Thomas J. Ferraro,2020 A critical study of classic American novels Transgression and Redemption explores Catholicism in The Scarlet Letter The Great Gatsby The Professor s House The Awakening and The Sun Also Rises Letters and Memorials Richard Chenevix Trench,1888 Life and Letters ,1928 Lost in the Customhouse Jerome Loving,2005-08 In this spirited challenge to dominant American literary criticism Jerome Loving extends the traditional period of American literary rebirth to the end of the nineteenth century and argues for the intrinsic value of literature in the face of new historicist and

deconstructionist readings Bucking the trend for prophetic and revisionist interpretations Loving discusses the major work of the last century's canonized writers as restorative adventures with the self and society From Washington Irving to Theodore Dreiser Loving finds the American literary tradition filled with narrators who keep waking up to the central scene of the author's real or imagined life They travel through a customhouse of the imagination in which the Old World experience of the present is taxed by the New World of the utopian past where life is always cyclical instead of linear and ameliorative Loving argues that the central literary experience in nineteenth century America is the puritanical desire for the time before the loss of innocence that endless chance of coming into experience anew Lost in the Customhouse begins with a discussion of Irving Hawthorne Melville Poe Thoreau and Emerson and finds these seminal Renaissance writers waking up primarily to psychological facts which blossomed into the fiction of a self begotten out of the nothingness of experience In part 2 Loving shifts his attention to the urbanization of the American imagination and discusses Whitman Twain Dickinson James Chopin and Dreiser Here the dream driven impulse is more clearly influenced by social history abolition women's suffrage industrialization and the growth of professionalism Loving focuses upon the role of the woman who finds herself on the same frontier as her male precursors with nothing but a carpetbag that is to say the American ego Throughout the study Loving challenges the notion that American literature is preponderately cultural work In the epilogue he packs up his own carpetbag and passes through the European customhouse to find that American writers are more readily perceived as literary geniuses outside of their culture than within it

Anna Karenina and Others Liza Knapp, 2016-07-31 Liza Knapp offers a fresh approach to understanding Tolstoy's construction of his novel Anna Karenina and how he creates patterns of meaning Her analysis draws on works that were critical to his understanding of the interconnectedness of human lives including The Scarlet Letter Middlemarch and Blaise Pascal's Pensées Knapp concludes with a tour de force reading of Mrs Dalloway as Virginia Woolf's response to Tolstoy's treatment of Anna Karenina and others

The Scarlet Letter "Annotated and Illustrated

Book" For Children Nathaniel Hawthorne,2020-03-22 The Scarlet Letter opens with a long preamble about how the book came to be written The nameless narrator was the surveyor of the customhouse in Salem Massachusetts In the customhouse s attic he discovered a number of documents among them a manuscript that was bundled with a scarlet gold embroidered patch of cloth in the shape of an A The manuscript the work of a past surveyor detailed events that occurred some two hundred years before the narrator s time When the narrator lost his customs post he decided to write a fictional account of the events recorded in the manuscript The Scarlet Letter is the final product The story begins in seventeenth century Boston then a Puritan settlement A young woman Hester Prynne is led from the town prison with her infant daughter Pearl in her arms and the scarlet letter A on her breast A man in the crowd tells an elderly onlooker that Hester is being punished for adultery Hester s husband a scholar much older than she is sent her ahead to America but he never arrived in Boston The consensus is that he has been lost at sea While waiting for her husband Hester has apparently had an affair as she has given birth to a child She will not reveal her lover s identity however and the scarlet letter along with her public shaming is her punishment for her sin and her secrecy On this day Hester is led to the town scaffold and harangued by the town fathers but she again refuses to identify her child s father The elderly onlooker is Hester s missing husband who is now practicing medicine and calling himself Roger Chillingworth He settles in Boston intent on revenge He reveals his true identity to no one but Hester whom he has sworn to secrecy Several years pass Hester supports herself by working as a seamstress and Pearl grows into a willful impish child Shunned by the community they live in a small cottage on the outskirts of Boston Community officials attempt to take Pearl away from Hester but with the help of Arthur Dimmesdale a young and eloquent minister the mother and daughter manage to stay together Dimmesdale however appears to be wasting away and suffers from mysterious heart trouble seemingly caused by psychological distress Chillingworth attaches himself to the ailing minister and eventually moves in with him so that he can provide his patient with round the clock care Chillingworth also suspects that there may be a connection between the minister s torments and Hester s secret and he begins to test Dimmesdale to see what he can learn One afternoon while the minister sleeps Chillingworth discovers a mark on the man s breast the details of which are kept from the reader which convinces him that his suspicions are correct Dimmesdale s psychological anguish deepens and he invents new tortures for himself In the meantime Hester s charitable deeds and quiet humility have earned her a reprieve from the scorn of the community One night when Pearl is about seven years old she and her mother are returning home from a visit to a deathbed when they encounter Dimmesdale atop the town scaffold trying to punish himself for his sins Hester and Pearl join him and the three link hands Dimmesdale refuses Pearl s request that he acknowledge her publicly the next day and a meteor marks a dull red A in the night sky Hester can see that the minister s condition is worsening and she resolves to intervene
