Look at the Lights, My Love Annie Ernaux, 2023-04-04 A revelatory meditation on class and consumer culture from 2022 Nobel laureate Annie Ernaux A dryly charming look at the way the French live now through the sharp eyes of its most acclaimed chronicler Kirkus Reviews For half a century the French writer Annie Ernaux has transgressed the boundaries of what stories are considered worth telling what subjects worth exploring In this probing meditation Ernaux turns her attention to the phenomenon of the big box superstore a ubiquitous feature of modern life that has received scant attention in literature Recording her visits to a store near Paris for over a year she captures the world that exists within its massive walls Through Ernaux's eyes the superstore emerges as a great human meeting place a spectacle a flashy technologically advanced incarnation of the ancient marketplace where capitalism cultural production and class converge dictating our rhythms of desire With her relentless powers of observation Ernaux takes the measure of a place we thought we knew calling us to question the experiences we overlook and to gaze more deeply into ordinary life Musical Record and Review Dexter Smith, Lorin Fuller Deland, Philip Hale, Thomas Tapper, 1879
