Commemoration of the 100th Anniversary of the Birth of Franklin Delano Roosevelt United States Congress, Senate, Committee on Rules and Administration, 1980 Arts in America: Photography, film, theater, dance, music, serials and periodicals, dissertations and theses, visual resources Bernard Karpel, 1979 The 1931-1940: American Film Institute Catalog of Motion Pictures Produced in the United States American Film Institute, 1993 The entire field of film historians awaits the AFI volumes with eagerness. Eileen Bowser, Museum of Modern Art Film Department, comments on previous volumes: "The source of last resort for finding socially valuable films that received such scant attention that they seem lost until discovered in the AFI Catalog." Thomas Cripps, "Endlessly absorbing as an excursion into cultural history and national memory." Arthur Schlesinger Jr., Philosophical Perspective on Cinema Pedro Blas González, 2022-05-17 The main premise of Philosophical Perspective on Cinema is simple: Can a visual medium such as cinema put in greater perspective diverse aspects of human experience? Films are usually sorted by genres but by applying metaphysical/existential categories to cinema, the author enables readers to reflect on the nature and essence of existence by making life appear less transparent to itself. Undoubtedly, the connection between sensual reality and philosophical reflection is often glossed over when the emphasis is placed on theoretical abstractions and not life itself. While this work is a reflection on the philosophy of existence, the author embraces a practical approach to the metaphysical/existential foundation of human existence. The Concise Routledge Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film Ian Aitken, 2013-01-04 The Concise Routledge Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film is a fully international reference work on the history of the documentary film from the Lumière brothers' Workers Leaving the Lumière Factory (1885) to Michael Moore's Fahrenheit 9/11 (2004). Previously published in three volumes, entries have been edited and updated for the new concise edition and three new entries have been added on India, China, and Africa. The Concise Routledge Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film discusses individual films and filmmakers, including little-known filmmakers from countries such as India, Bosnia, China, and others. Examines the documentary filmmaking traditions within nations and regions or within historical periods in places such as Iran, Brazil, Portugal, and Japan. Explores themes, issues, and representations in documentary film, including human rights, modernism, homosexuality, and World War I, as well as types of documentary film such as newsreels and educational films. Elaborates on production companies, organizations, festivals, and institutions such as the American Film Institute, Ceylon Tea Propaganda Board, Hot Docs Toronto, and the World Union of Documentary. Describes styles, techniques, and technical issues such as animation, computer imaging, editing techniques, IMAX, music, and spoken commentary. Bringing together all aspects of documentary film, this accessible, concise edition provides an invaluable resource for both scholars and students. With film stills from key films, this resource provides the decisive entry point into the history of an art form. Film Study Frank Manchel, 1990-10 The four volumes of Film Study

include a fresh approach to each of the basic categories in the original edition Volume one examines the film as film volume two focuses on the thematic approach to film volume three draws on the history of film and volume four contains extensive appendices listing film distributors sources and historical information as well as an index of authors titles and film personalities

Adaptations Deborah Cartmell, Imelda Whelehan, 2013-06-17 Adaptations considers the theoretical and practical difficulties surrounding the translation of a text into film and the reverse process the novelisation of films Through three sets of case studies the contributors examine the key debates surrounding adaptations whether screen versions of literary classics can be faithful to the text if something as capsulated as Jane Austens irony can even be captured on film whether costume dramas always of their own time and do adaptations remake their parent text to reflect contemporary ideas and concerns Tracing the complex alterations which texts experience between different media Adaptations is a unique exploration of the relationship between text and film

"Better Living" William L. Bird, 1999 Better Living Advertising Media and the New Vocabulary of Business Leadership 1935 1955 is a history of how big business learned to be both entertaining and persuasive when talking to the public Examining the years from the Depression to postwar prosperity Better Living follows the dissemination of a politically competitive claim of more new and better in industry and in life Beginning with the changes in business government relations during the New Deal this study looks at the ways in which politically active corporations and their leaders learned how to speak at a time when speaking was not enough Using archival sources such as the NBC Ford Motor Company DuPont and Franklin Delano Roosevelt collections William L Bird Jr establishes the importance of industrial films and their role in public relations and employee relations as well as the use of dramatic radio productions in corporate public relations The author examines the interplay between general mass radio and print advertising radio program sponsorship and scriptwriting sponsored motion pictures and television entertainment as well as exhibitions and industrial fairs and the role these media played in shaping ideas about American business and political and cultural institutions in this country for the decades to come Book Jacket
