Los Hombres De Papelthe Paper Men:

The Mexican Filmography, 1916 through 2001 David E. Wilt,2024-10-17 Mexican cinema has largely been overlooked by international film scholars because of a lack of English language information and the fact that Spanish language information was difficult to find and often out of date This comprehensive filmography helps fill the need Arranged by year of release and then by title the filmography contains entries that include basic information film and translated title production company genre director cast a plot summary and additional information about the film Inclusion criteria a film must be a Mexican production or co production feature length one hour or more silent films excepted fictional documentaries and compilation films are not included unless the topic relates to Mexican cinema some docudramas and films with recreated or staged scenes are included and theatrically released or intended for theatrical release The Logic of Fetishism James J.

Pancrazio,2004 Cuban author Alejo Carpentier 1904 1980 was a key figure in the foundation of contemporary Latin American fiction By taking a critical position vis a vis the restitutionary current in Latin American studies James Pancrazio provides a highly innovative re reading of Carpentier s work Bilingual Language Acquisition Carmen Silva-Corvalán,2014-02-06 How do children develop bilingual competence Do bilingual children develop language in the same way as monolinguals Set in the context of findings on language development this book examines the acquisition of English and Spanish by two brothers in the first six years of their lives Based on in depth and meticulous analyses of naturalistic data it explores how the systems of both languages affect each other as the children develop and how different levels of exposure to each language influence the nature of acquisition The author demonstrates that the children s grammars and lexicons follow a developmental path similar to that of monolinguals but that cross linguistic interactions affecting lexical semantic and discourse pragmatic aspects arise in Spanish when exposure to it diminishes around the age of four The first of its kind this original study is a must read for students and researchers in bilingualism child development language acquisition and language contact Track of the Bengal Charles Ryan,2011-11 EYE OF THE TIGER The Bengal set sail from a teeming Singapore harbor but its precious cargo comes from the heart of the war torn Middle East The freighter is traveling under the flag of Cameroon headed for an unknown destination Deep in its hull the ship carries one of the deadliest devices ever invented which silently waits for the perfect moment to detonate EYE OF THE STORM The intelligence forces of the world discover that a red bomb an anti personnel mercury based nuclear device is on board the missing freighter But one man a veteran of the international killing game is prying loose the information tracking clues in the twisting alleys of Cairo and across the blood stained streets of Northern Ireland that will expose the conspirators Meanwhile a former Special Forces officer is on board the hellbound vessel itself Now analysts and soldiers spies and strategists scramble in Washington the Middle East and even Castro s crumbling Cuba in a frantic search to find the Bengal But only the terrorists themselves know where they are going to strike and how their weapon will launch the next war Jewish Writers of Latin America Darrell B. Lockhart,2013-08-21 Jewish writing has only recently begun to be recognized as a major cultural phenomenon in Latin American literature Nevertheless the majority of students and even Latin American literary specialists remain uninformed about this significant body of writing This Dictionary is the first comprehensive bibliographical and critical source book on Latin American Jewish literature It represents the research efforts of 50 scholars from the United States Latin America and Israel who are dedicated to the advancement of Latin American Jewish studies An introduction by the editor is followed by entries on 118 authors that provide both biographical information and a critical summary of works Argentina Brazil and Mexico home to the largest Jewish communities in Latin America are the countries with the greatest representation but there are essays on writers from Venezuela Chile Uruguay Peru Colombia Costa Rica and Cuba

Queer Ricans Lawrence La Fountain-Stokes,2009-07-13 Exploring cultural expressions of Puerto Rican queer migration from the Caribbean to New York Philadelphia Chicago and San Francisco Lawrence La Fountain Stokes analyzes how artists have portrayed their lives and the discrimination they have faced in both Puerto Rico and the United States Highlighting cultural and political resistance within Puerto Rico s gay lesbian bisexual and transgender subcultures La Fountain Stokes pays close attention to differences of gender historical moment and generation arguing that Puerto Rican queer identity changes over time and is experienced in very different ways He traces an arc from 1960s Puerto Rico and the writings of Luis Rafael S nchez to New York City in the 1970s and 1980s Manuel Ramos Otero Philadelphia and New Jersey in the 1980s and 1990s Luz Mar a Umpierre and Frances Negr n Muntaner and Chicago Rose Troche and San Francisco Erika L pez in the 1990s culminating with a discussion of Arthur Avil s and Elizabeth Marrero s recent dance theater work in the Bronx Proposing a radical new conceptualization of Puerto Rican migration this work reveals how sexuality has shaped and defined the Puerto Rican experience in the United States

Intersected Identities Erica Segre,2007 There has always been an important visual element to the construction and questioning of national identity in post Independence Mexico though one that has not always been given its due outside of the celebrated and much studied muralists Ranging from the early nineteenth century to the present from the vogue for the picturesque illustrated periodicals and the influential writings of Altamirano to a wealth of twentieth century graphic artists filmmakers and photographers this book re examines the complex variety of ways in which that visual element has operated In particular it looks at the ways in which discourses concerning ethnicity and cultural hybridity have been echoed and transformed in Mexican visual culture resulting in fields of visual discourse which are eclectic and increasingly self reflexive

Starmaker Milan Hain,2023-08-07 David O Selznick 1902 1965 was one of the most prominent film producers of the Hollywood studio era responsible for such artistic and commercial triumphs as King Kong David Copperfield Anna Karenina A Star Is Born Gone with the Wind Rebecca Spellbound and The Third Man However film production was not his only domain Starting in the late 1930s he built an impressive stable of stars within his own independent company including Ingrid Bergman Vivien Leigh Joan Fontaine Jennifer Jones and Gregory Peck In Starmaker David O Selznick and the Production of Stars in the Hollywood

Studio System author Milan Hain reveals the mechanisms by which Selznick and his collaborators discovered and promoted new stars and describes how these personalities were marketed whether for financial gain or symbolic recognition and prestige Using a wide range of archival materials the book significantly complements and reshapes our understanding of Selznick's celebrated career by focusing on heretofore neglected aspects of his creative and business activities It also sheds light on the US film industry during the Golden Age of Hollywood studios and in the postwar period when the established order began to break down By structuring the book around Selznick and his role as a starmaker Hain demonstrates that star production and development in the Hollywood studio system was a highly organized and systematic activity though the respective strategies and procedures were often hidden from the public eye Bowker's Complete Video Directory, 1999
