graduate student residence at Oxford University in the early 1990s Kevin an Irish Montrealer meets Leon a London Jew from a Communist family and Alex a Soviet defector's son brought up in Toronto When Alex begins to tutor a charming yet troubled upper class English undergraduate the dynamics in their conflicted three way friendship culminate in Kevin and Leon playing a prank on Alex The act's disastrous outcome binds the three young men together emotionally even as it dispatches them on separate courses through the 1990s Ranging from a precisely and ironically evoked Oxford which parodies that of Evelyn Waugh's Brideshead Revisited to post Referendum Montreal war ravaged former Yugoslavia London Moscow Poland and Berlin The World of After depicts the 1990s as an interlude of freedom and confused but enriching self discovery between the rigidity of the Cold War and the stark divisions of the post September 11 2001 world Kevin struggles to find love recover a friendship he has betrayed and chart a world he no longer understands as Leon dodges his past and Alex descends into a criminal culture that leads to a confrontation with his own values A Grave in the Air Stephen Henighan, 2007 Sweeping from Nazi Germany in 1939 to the war in Bosnia in the 1990s Stephen Henighan's A Grave in the Air is a masterful sequence of stories In these tales dominated by Central and Eastern European themes readers are transported across borders and into the lives of characters who have something serious at stake people enmeshed in acts of destruction and people redeemed through honour and grace These narratives bear Henighan's cosmopolitan stamp but they do not take place in a sanitized global village There are no stereotypes on which to hang a plot no filtered sense of the human condition There are stories of betrayal such as Beyond Bliss where a young British woman uses sex duplicity and her connections to an Eastern European exile to become a partner in a Canadian literary press luminous studies of introspection and character such as Freedom Square in which a Romanian photographer's desire to escape her mother country yields to surrender to it and ironic stories of historical displacement such as A Sense of Time in which an erotic memory takes life for a Canadian expatriate in England and Duty Calls where a Hungarian Montrealer experiencing divorce becomes the unsuspecting catalyst for another couple's commitment The two long stories which bracket the collection summarize its themes In the opening story a British businessman relies on the sporting spirit to try to avert the onset of the Second World War in the title story a weary foreign correspondent shaken by his encounter with a band's disturbing groupie must face his own truth about ethnic cleansing in Bosnia Whether moving readers to reflection or providing engaging entertainment Henighan's prose is sharp and clean Once again he is as instructive in his understanding of peoples and cultures as he is instinctive in taking us inside the worlds that shape them The Book Review Digest, 2003 Romania & Moldova, 2007 The Language of the Moldovans Matthew H. Ciscel, 2007-06-07 Who are the Moldovans The Language of the Moldovans explores this question from the perspective of debates about the languages spoken by the people of this ex Soviet state Locating language as a central point of both cohesion and conflict in the region's recent history the peculiarities of the Moldovans are illustrated by a survey of language attitudes a series of ethnographic interviews and extensive observations by the author The result is an image of an emerging nation that is at once similar to the experiences of other ex Soviet states and uniquely complex Much of that complexity lies in the population s extensive multilingualism and in uncertainty about the Romanian ness of the official language This cross discipline volume is of great interest to advanced students and researchers of linguistics political science and Eastern European studies Canadian Books in Print.
