The Cambridge Global History of Fashion: Volume 2

Christopher Breward, Beverly Lemire, Giorgio Riello, 2023-08-17 Volume II surveys the history of fashion from the nineteenth century to the present day. Covering the period beginning with mass industry and ending with calls for sustainability, this volume challenges the meaning of modernity and modernism from a global perspective and reflects on important scholarship that has changed our understanding of the relationship between fashion and colonialism. Empires shifted and new powers rose with fashion marking and contending with this change. The volume concludes with a critical view of fashion and globalisation and explores the deep connections between the fashion industry, the global economy and the politics of production and wearing in the contemporary world.

"Textiles, Fashion, and Design Reform in Austria-Hungary Before the First World War"

Rebecca Houze, 2017-07-05 Filling a critical gap in Vienna 1900 studies, this book offers a new reading of fin de siècle culture in the Austro-Hungarian Monarchy by looking at the unusual and widespread preoccupation with embroidery, fabrics, clothing and fashion both literally and metaphorically. The author resurrects lesser-known critics, practitioners and curators from obscurity while also discussing the textile interests of better-known figures, notably Gottfried Semper and Alois Riegl. Spanning the 50-year life of the Dual Monarchy, this study uncovers new territory in the history of art history, insists on the crucial place of women within modernism and broadens the cultural history of Habsburg Central Europe by revealing the complex relationships among art history, women and Austria-Hungary. Rebecca Houze surveys a wide range of materials from craft and folk art to industrial design and includes overlooked sources from fashion magazines to World's Fair maps from exhibition catalogues to museum lectures from feminist journals to ethnographic collections. Restoring women to their place at the intersection of intellectual and artistic debates of the time, this book weaves together discourses of the academic, scientific and commercial design communities with middle-class life as expressed through popular culture.

Embodied Histories Katya Motyl, 2024-04-29 In Embodied Histories, historian Katya Motyl explores the everyday acts of defiance that formed the basis for new unconventional forms of womanhood in turn-of-the-century Vienna. The figures Motyl brings back to life dressed, however they pleased, defied gender conformity, behaved brashly and expressed themselves freely, overturning assumptions about what it meant to exist as a woman. Motyl delves into the ways in which these women inhabited and reshaped the urban landscape of Vienna, an increasingly modern cosmopolitan city. Specifically, she focuses on how easily overlooked quotidian practices such as loitering outside cafés, striking up conversations with strangers and taking dogs for walks helped create novel conceptions of gender. Exploring the emergence of a new womanhood, Embodied Histories presents a new account of how the gender, the body and the city merge with and transform each other, showing how our modes of being are radically intertwined with the spaces we inhabit.

A Century of Austrian Design Tulga Beyerle, Karin Hirschberger, 2013-03-04 A Century of Austrian Design offers a highly accessible overview of Austrian design culture from 1900 to the present against the background of the country's extremely turbulent industrial history. In the process, the key aspects are explained in essays by celebrated experts. The book attempts to delineate a specifically Austrian formal language, citing as examples specific achievements in historical and contemporary design. As it does so, it also sheds light on other defining moments of Austria's design culture, including the enormous potential of its inventors, the phenomenon of semi-industrial manufacturing, and the innovative design solutions advanced by the Austrian sporting goods industry. A yellow pages section with selected design addresses rounds off the volume. Jews in Suits Jonathan C.

Kaplan-Wajselbaum, 2023-05-04 Shortlisted for the Leslie and Sophie Caplan Award for Jewish Non-Fiction. Surviving photographs of Jewish Viennese men during the fin de siècle and interwar periods: both the renowned cultural luminaries and their many anonymous coreligionists all share a striking sartorial detail: the tailored suit. Yet until now, the adoption of the tailored suit and its function in the formation of modern Jewish identities remains under-researched. Jews in Suits uses a rich range of written and visual sources, including literary fiction and satire, ego documents, photography, trade catalogues, invoices, and department store culture, to propose a new narrative of men's fashion and their Jewish identities. It reveals that dressing in a modern manner was not simply a matter of assimilation, but rather a way of developing new models of Jewish subjectivity beyond the externally prescribed notion of the Jew. Drawing upon fashionable dress, folk costume, religious dress, avant-garde, oppositional dress typologies, which are often considered separate from one another, it proposes a new way of reading men and clothing cultures within an iconic cultural milieu, offering insights into the relationship of clothing and grooming to the understanding of the self.

La moda come motore economico: innovazione di processo e prodotto, nuove strategie commerciali, comportamento dei consumatori / Fashion as an economic engine: process and product innovation, commercial strategies, consumer behavior Giampiero Nigro, 2022-05-03 The study of the textile sector has always been central to economic history, from reconstructions of the dynamic growth in the medieval wool industry to the rise of silk and light and mixed fabrics in the modern era, to the driving role of cotton in the industrialisation process. Although the dynamics of textile manufacturing are closely linked to the transformations of fashion, economic history has long neglected its role as a factor in economic change, treating it primarily as a kind of exogenous catalyst. This book makes a decisive contribution to the understanding of a fundamental transformation, the consequences of which are projected into contemporary society, but which matured in pre-industrial times: the advent of fashion. Tracing Wiener Werkstätte Textiles Régine Bonnefoit, Marie-Eve Celio-Scheurer, 2023-09-05 Wiener Werkstätte Textiles and their design. This book presents new research and archival findings on the textile and fashion designs of the Wiener Werkstätte movement, 1903-1932. Textile specialists, art and design historians offer insights into the most important collections and archives in Austria, Switzerland, and the US. The publication explores works by lesser-known female textile artists, the influence of Eastern European folk art, Japanese patterns, and ornamentation, textbooks on textile designs, applications in fashion, interior design, film, theater, and marketing.

strategies used to enter new markets in the US It includes numerous illustrations of textile samples many drawn from the Cotsen Textile Traces Study Collection George Washington University Museum Textile Museum one of the largest collections of Wiener Werkst tte fabrics in the US New research and archival findings on the Wiener Werkst tte textile design International project by the University of Neuch tel the George Washington University Museum Textile Museum exhibition from July 8 to November 5 2023 and the University of Applied Arts Vienna Contributions by Susan Brown Caitlin Condell Rebecca Houze Janis Staggs and others Fashioning Jews Leonard J. Greenspoon, 2013-10-15 This volume presents papers delivered at the 24th Annual Klutznick Harris Symposium held at Creighton University in October 2011 The contributors look at all aspects of the intimate relationship between Jews and clothing through case studies from ancient medieval recent and contemporary history Papers explore topics ranging from Jewish leadership in the textile industry through the art of fashion in nineteenth century Vienna to the use of clothing as a badge of ethnic identity in both secular and religious contexts From Traditional Attire to Modern Dress Constanța Vintilă-Ghițulescu, 2011-07-12 The essays in this volume discuss the visible elements such as clothing jewellery the opulence of the elite fashion and styles but they also inform the reader about the manner in which these were connected to political and social developments The articles in this volume highlight important themes regarding the history of textiles the shifting of trading and manufacturing centres the professionalization of the various fields in the history of fashion and the connection with the introduction and proliferation of steam powered machines and later of electrical equipment Clothes and garments are also part of the social and political transformations brought about by the multiple modernisations of the various Balkan societies Fabrics colours threads barrels and buttons lace and jewellery are marvellous documents that bring to life details of the remote worlds of our ancestors helping us understand the complex meanings of sartorial appearances The Balkans and the Orient are regions that offer promising avenues of multidisciplinary research concerning clothes and fashion as indicators of social status and political change
