

A black and white photograph of a man sitting in a workshop. The man is wearing a light-colored shirt and dark pants, and is sitting on a workbench. He is looking towards the camera. The workshop is filled with various tools and equipment, including a large workbench with drawers, a saw, and a drill press. There are also some antlers hanging on the wall in the background.

New Burlington The Life And Death Of An American Village:

New Burlington John Baskin,1976 In the early 1970s the quiet Ohio village of New Burlington was abandoned to allow construction of a dam New Burlington Ken Jenkins,1990 New Burlington Ken Jenkins,1977* The Sociologist's Eye Kai T. Erikson,2017-08-22 A masterful introduction to and appreciation of sociology as a window into our world The culmination of a distinguished career this fascinating exploration into the nature of human social life describes the field of sociology as a way of looking at the world rather than as a simple gathering of facts about it Kai Erikson notes that sociologists look out at the same human scenes as poets historians economists or any other observers of the vast social landscape spread out before them but select different aspects of that vast panorama to focus on and attend to Erikson s lively and accessible volume considers how sociology became a field of study and how it has turned its attention over time to new areas of study such as race and gender and what Erikson calls social speciation This book provides readers with new ways of thinking about human culture and social life an exhilarating sense of what the world looks like when viewed with a sociologist s eye Napa Lauren Coodley,2007-09-12 With roots set deep in California history Napa s story reaches back to the Bear Flag Rebellion and earlier to the first contact between Spanish explorers and the Wappo Indians Through the founding of Spanish missions and the grants of ranchos by the Mexican government Napa flourished under the various cultures that helped it become one of the west coast s most dynamic cities As it bloomed into one of the most recognizable names on the American landscape Napa s residents confronted issues of war and peace of open space and sprawl Doing Documentary Work Robert Coles,1998 Investigates the nature of documentary work arguing that the work of an observer is not only to represent but also to interpret reality and uses examples from literature and photography to show how the observers personal frame of reference has influenced his or her work When They Blew the Levee David Todd Lawrence,Elaine J. Lawless,2018-05-30 Winner of the 2019 Chicago Folklore Prize In 2011 the Midwest suffered devastating floods Due to the flooding the US Army Corps of Engineers activated the Birds Point New Madrid Floodway one of the flood prevention mechanisms of the Mississippi Rivers and Tributaries Project This levee breach was intended to divert water in order to save the town of Cairo Illinois but in the process it completely destroyed the small African American town of Pinhook Missouri In When They Blew the Levee Race Politics and Community in Pinhook Missouri authors David Todd Lawrence and Elaine J Lawless examine two conflicting narratives about the flood one promoted by the Corps of Engineers that boasts the success of the levee breach and the flood diversion and the other gleaned from displaced Pinhook residents who in oral narratives tell a different story of neglect and indifference on the part of government officials Receiving inadequate warning and no evacuation assistance during the breach residents lost everything Still after more than six years displaced Pinhook residents have yet to receive restitution and funding for relocation and reconstruction of their town The authors research traces a long history of discrimination and neglect of the rights of the Pinhook community beginning with their migration from the Deep South to southeast Missouri through purchasing and farming the land and up to the Birds Point levee breach nearly eighty years later The residents stories relate what it has been like to be dispersed in other small towns living with relatives and friends while trying to negotiate the bureaucracy surrounding Federal Emergency Management Agency and State Emergency Management Agency assistance programs Ultimately the stories of displaced citizens of Pinhook reveal a strong African American community whose bonds were developed over time and through shared traditions a community persisting despite extremely difficult circumstances Triumph at the falls Leland R. Johnson,2007 The Past is a Foreign Country David Lowenthal,1985-11-14 Lowenthal looks at the benefits and burdens of the past how we study the past and how we change it At the Crossroads Richard J. Margolis,1980 The Automobile in American History and Culture Michael L. Berger,2001-07-30 This comprehensive reference guide reviews the literature concerning the impact of the automobile on American social economic and political history Covering the complete history of the automobile to date twelve chapters of bibliographic essays describe the important works in a series of related topics and provide broad thematic contexts This work includes general histories of the automobile the industry it spawned and labor management relations as well as biographies of famous automotive personalities Focusing on books concerned with various social aspects chapters discuss such issues as the car s influence on family life youth women the elderly minorities literature and leisure and recreation Berger has also included works that investigate the government s role in aiding and regulating the automobile with sections on roads and highways safety and pollution The guide concludes with an overview of reference works and periodicals in the field and a description of selected research collections The Automobile in American History and Culture provides a resource with which to examine the entire field and its structure Popular culture scholars and enthusiasts involved in automotive research will appreciate the extensive scope of this reference Cross referenced throughout it will serve as a valuable research tool The Pursuit of Local History Carol Kammen,American Association for State and Local History,1996 In this work readers can discover the role local historians play find out what the experts see as the values of the local history while exploring their theories and see how local history has been practised by those who have dedicated their lives to it The Ohio River Division, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers Leland R. Johnson,1992 Places Lost and Found Ronald Koury,2021-05-10 The Hudson Review has always had an international focus Travel and reports from abroad have figured prominently in the journal including essays on exotic and picturesque locales as well as accounts from war torn areas and the experiences of exiles Many of these are pilgrimages others are harrowing memoirs What unites even the most devastating of these accounts are intellectual curiosity and a spirit of adventure Places Lost and Found is a treasury of distinctive and compelling essays selected from six decades of the Hudson Review From a description of the gardens of Kyoto and a portrait of Syria just before its civil war to reflections on Veblen and the Mall of America these essays explore an array of places that are deeply layered with history and meaning The stunning cover photo of the Semper Opera House in Dresden encapsulates many of the themes of the book war and its aftermath the importance of the built environment in any discussion of place the endurance of civilization and resilience and of course the romance of travel Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1977 Ohio and Its People George W. Knepper,2003 The bicentennial edition of this publication has been revised and updated and includes an additional chapter which examines Ohio through to the end of the 20th century George W Knepper presents contemporary information on the national and state political arenas the economy and the environment Middletown Dwight W. Hoover,1992 Inspired by the immensely influential 1937 sociological study Middletown A Case Study in Cultural Conflicts by Robert and Helen Lynd Peter Davis s six documentary films about Muncie Indiana set out to examine the lives of Munsonians in the early 1980s The disputes and conflicts accompanying the filming revealed more about American values and customs than the films themselves While attempting to transform the data from the Middletown studies into a meaningful and interesting visual form the filmmakers were constantly distracted by the pressures decisions and perils of government and corporate funded documentary filmmaking Dwight W Hoover a Muncie historian and collaborator in the Middletown film project describes why the films were made and how they changed the lives of everyone involved Newsweek ,1976 Cincinnati Magazine ,1977-02 Cincinnati Magazine taps into the DNA of the city exploring shopping dining living and culture and giving readers a ringside seat on the issues shaping the region The Critic ,1976
