Orthodox Visions Of Ecumenism:

Orthodox Visions of Ecumenism Gennadios Limouris, 1994 Orthodox Visions of Ecumenism Statements Messages Reports on the Ecumenical Movement 1902 1992 Does Ethics Divide Or Unite?, 1996 The Ecumenical Movement Thomas E. FitzGerald, 2004-04-30 What is Ecumenism How and when did it start What are its goals and how will they affect the future of the Christian churches This book answers these questions and examines the remarkable story of new encounters between Orthodox Roman Catholic Anglican Old Catholic and most Protestant churches Most of these churches have been divided for centuries over issues of theology faith and practice Ecumenism seeks to reconcile these differences and to bring the churches together into a new unity based on their commonalities and their understanding of Christian faith Here FitzGerald traces the history of the churches and their divisions and focuses on the ways in which the Ecumenical movement began and the efforts that have been made to assist the churches in overcoming age old strife animosity and misunderstanding For centuries Christian churches have remained divided over their doctrinal differences but beginning in the late nineteenth century churches and their members slowly began to emerge from their isolation They began to abandon competition mistrust and misunderstanding in an effort to seek out their common interests and faith through meetings and organizations meant to bring them together The encounters between the churches led to proposals for common prayers for unity and for common witness in society While not without difficulty these encounters have fostered a renewal in Christian theology worship and witness affecting all levels of church life The process has touched Christians all over the world in various ways FitzGerald carefully traces the history of the movement and its impact on the churches themselves as well as the believers who attend them making this important reading for all Christians and anyone interested in learning more about church division and efforts to restore unity Wounded Visions Jonas Jonson, 2013-01-07 Jonas Jonson who was directly involved with the ecumenical movement for forty years offers in this book an inside perspective on an ever changing global Christianity Reviewing developments in ecumenism from the 1960s to the present Jonson discusses the decolonization of mission interreligious relations God's preferential option for the poor and unity in diversity He also maps the global ecumenical landscape and presents the Fourth Church comprising charismatic Pentecostal and evangelical movements of the twentieth century How did the ecumenical movement respond to the fall of communism the opening of China and the globalization of financial markets Why did so many big churches caught in the whirlwind of change retreat from their ecumenical commitments in order to promote and protect their own interests Jonson addresses these questions and more in this comprehensive review of global Christianity and the ecumenical movement The Witness of Bartholomew I, Ecumenical Patriarch William G. Rusch, 2013-06-13 In this volume several theologians from different Christian traditions examine how Bartholomew I as Ecumenical Patriarch has influenced the contemporary European scene the various dialogues between Orthodox churches and Reformed and Roman Catholic churches the ongoing work of the World Council of Churches and the Cold War, 1945-91 Lucian Leustean, 2010-01-21 Despite widespread persecution Orthodox churches not only survived the Cold War period but levels of religiosity in Orthodox countries remained significant This book examines the often surprising relations between Orthodox churches and political regimes It provides a comprehensive overview of the dynamics between Eastern Christianity and politics from the end of the Second World War to the fall of communism covering 40 Orthodox churches including diasporic churches in Africa Asia America and Australia Based on research from recently opened archives and publications in a wide range of European languages it analyses church state relations on both sides of the Iron Curtain It discusses the following key themes the relationship between Orthodox churches and political power religious resistance to communism the political control of churches religion and propaganda monasticism and theological publications religious diplomacy within the Orthodox commonwealth and religious contacts between East and West The Patristic Witness of Georges Florovsky Georges Florovsky, 2019-09-19 Georges Florovsky 1893 1979 was one of the most prominent Orthodox theologians and ecumenists of the twentieth century His call for a return to patristic writings as a source of modern theological reflection had a powerful impact not only on Orthodox theology in the second half of the twentieth century but on Christian theology in general Florovsky was also a major Orthodox voice in the ecumenical movement for four decades and he is one of the founders of the World Council of Churches This book is a collection of major theological writings by George Florovsky It includes representative and widely influential but now largely inaccessible texts many newly translated for this book divided into four thematic sections Creation Incarnation and Redemption The Nature of Theology Ecclesiology and Ecumenism and Scripture Worship and Eschatology A foreword by Metropolitan Kallistos Ware presents the theological vision of Georges Florovsky and discusses the continuing relevance of his work both for Orthodox theology and for modern theology in general The introduction by the Editors provides a theological and historical overview of Florovsky theology in the context of his biography The book includes explanatory notes translation of patristic citations and an index The Ecumenical Movement and the Making of the European Community Lucian Leustean, 2014 A study that assesses the political history of religious dialogue in the European Community detailing close relations between churchmen and high ranking officials in European institutions immediately after the 1950 Schuman Declaration Orthodox Christian Perspectives on War Perry T. Hamalis, Valerie A. Karras, 2017-12-15 Many regions of the world whose histories include war and violent conflict have or once had strong ties to Orthodox Christianity Yet policy makers religious leaders and scholars often neglect Orthodoxy's resources when they reflect on the challenges of war Through essays written by prominent Orthodox scholars in the fields of biblical studies church history Byzantine studies theology patristics political science ethics and biology Orthodox Christian Perspectives on War presents and examines the Orthodox tradition's nuanced and unique insights on the meaning and challenges of war with an eye toward their contemporary relevance This volume is structured in three parts Confronting the Present Day Reality Reengaging Orthodoxy's Tradition and Constructive Directions in Orthodox Theology and Ethics Each exemplifies the value of interdisciplinary reflection on war and the potential for the Eastern Orthodox tradition to enhance ecumenical and interfaith discussions surrounding war in both domestic and international contexts The contributors do not advance a single account of the meaning of war or a comprehensive and normative stance purporting to be the Orthodox Christian teaching on war Instead this collection presents the breadth and depth of Orthodox Christian thought in a way that engages Orthodox and non Orthodox readers alike In addition to offering fresh resources for all people of good will to understand prevent and respond faithfully to war this book will appeal to Christian theologians who specialize in ethics to libraries of academic institutions and to scholars of war peace studies international relations and Orthodox thought Contributors Peter C Bouteneff George Demacopoulos John Fotopoulos Brandon Gallaher Perry T Hamalis Valerie A Karras Alexandros K Kyrou Aristotle Papanikolaou Elizabeth H Prodromou Nicolae Roddy James C Skedros Andrew Walsh and Gayle E Woloschak

Church as Communion Philip Kariatlis, 2020-03-20 This book innovatively explores the notion of koinonia for understanding the nature and function of the Church Since the Scriptures assert that the Church is the Church of God God's communal mode of existence is looked at namely God who is a communion of three hypostases relating to one another in an interpenetrating koinonia of infinite love as a way of understanding the very being of the church as communion Such a notion of koinonia far from having anything to do with socio political understandings suggests that it is a foundational gift bestowed from above to the world as the solution par excellence to the impasse of isolationism More often than not however such an ecclesiology of communion has not taken seriously the historical reality of the Church living within the fallen world along with its ceaseless temptations divisions and even sins in history In this way it becomes apparent that a dialectic needs to be acknowledged in the notion of communion as both foundational gift from God and yet one still to be fully realised Accordingly this work shows that the Church is not only as the gift of God's miraculous presence here on earth The Church is also constantly striving to exist epiclestically until such time as it will fully experience the final consummation in God's eschatological kingdom An examination of this double dimensionality of the Church is undertaken in order to assess if this is in line with the Scriptural witness of the ekklesia Having established the gift goal dialectic in the notion of koinonia in the New Testament Church the study then traces the trajectory of this dynamic approach to koinonia in the Church's worship and authoritative structures This promises to cast both a deeper light on and a more realistic solution to ecclesiological problems within the life of the Church today allowing for the Church's constant renewal
