Popular Struggles For Democracy In Africa:

Popular Struggles for Democracy in Africa Peter Anyang' Nyong'o, 1987 Democracy in Africa by Harry Goulbourne

Popular Struggles in South Africa Robin Cohen, William Cobbett, 2024-04-01 Popular Struggles or One Struggle

Originally published in 1988 shortly after the miners strike in South Africa of 1987 this book begins with a strongly argued and seminal discussion of this question by William Cobbett and Robin Cohen The book had an urgency and relevance at its time of original publication but many of the themes it discusses remain as relevant today Nearly all the contributors were close to the sites of encounter and resistance they described but at the same time they and the editors place the individual cases within the historical context Africa's Contemporary Challenges Carlos Lopes, 2013-09-13 This book reviews Cabral's intellectual contribution to current debates on race identity nation building democracy leadership and ethics The key leader of the national liberation movements of former Portuguese African colonies is considered to be one of their foremost intellectuals the continent has produced This rare combination of freedom fighter operational campaigner and astute political scientist justifies the academic interest in his contribution Africa's Contemporary Challenges reviews the impact of Amílcar Cabral's thinking and its relationship with contemporary debates about race identity nation building democracy leadership or ethics The complexity of Cabral's vision and hopes for Africa continues to incite curiosity and interest Cabral's tragic assassination in 1973 has removed the possibility of analysing his impact on post independent Lusophone Africa but his thoughts continue to be the most important reference This book was published as a special issue of African Identities

People Power in an Era of Global Crisis Barry K. Gills, Kevin Gray, 2013-10-31 A quarter of a century has now passed since the historic popular uprising that led to the overthrow of the Ferdinand Marcos dictatorship in the Philippines The mass movement known as the People Power Revolution was not only pivotal to the democratic transition within the Philippines but it also became an inspiration for subsequent mass movements leading to further democratic transitions throughout the Third World and in the former Communist bloc in Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union However the neoliberal economic policies subsequently pursued by newly democratic governments throughout the Third World led all but the most celebratory observers to note the constrained and limited nature of these formal political transitions This volume poses the question of the extent to which people power has been able to play an active role resisting neoliberalism and deepen substantive democracy and social justice Through a series of case studies of the regions and individual countries of Asia Africa Latin America and Eastern Europe the contributions in the volume provide a new set of original and in depth critical assessments of the nature of the longer term impact of the democratic transitions commencing in the 1980s and continuing until the present and questioning their impact and potential influence on human dignity freedom justice and self determination and thus opening new avenues of enquiry into the future of democracy This book was originally published as a special issue of Third World Quarterly The Politics of Opposition in Contemporary Africa Adebayo O. Olukoshi, 1998 In South Africa

Michael Neocosmos The Concept of Human Rights in Africa G. Shiyji, 1989-06-15 Hitherto the human rights debate in Africa has concentrated on the legal and philosophical The author Professor of Law at the University of Dar es Salaam here moves the debate to the social and political planes He attempts to reconceptualise human rights ideology from the standpoint of the working people in Africa He defines the approach as avoiding the pitfalls of the liberal perspective as being absolutist in viewing human rights as a central question and the rights struggle as the backbone of democratic struggles The author maintains that such a study cannot be politically neutral or intellectually uncommitted Both the critique of dominant discourse and the reconceptualisation are located within the current social science and jurisprudential debates

Guarding the Guardians Mathurin C. Hounnikpo, 2016-04-22 The relationship between civil society and the armed forces is an essential part of any polity democratic or otherwise because a military force is after all a universal feature of social systems Despite significant progress moving towards democracy among some African countries in the past decade all too many African militaries have yet to accept core democratic principles regulating civilian authority over the military This book explores the theory of civil military relations and moves on to review the intrusion of the armed forces in African politics by looking first into the organization and role of the army in pre colonial and colonial eras before examining contemporary armies and their impact on society Furthermore it revisits the various explanations of military takeovers in Africa and disentangles the notion of the military as the modernizing force Whether as a revolutionary force as a stabilizing force or as a modernizing force the military has often been perceived as the only organized and disciplined group with the necessary skills to uplift newly independent nations The performance of Africa's military governments since independence however has soundly disproven this thesis As such this study conveys the necessity of new civil military relations in Africa and calls not just for civilian control of the military but rather a democratic oversight of the security forces in Africa Marxism's

Retreat from Africa (RLE Marxism) Arnold Hughes, 2015-04-24 The collapse of Marxism in much of the Third World as well as Europe was so sudden and spectacular that it is hard to believe that in the space of seven years The Journal of Communist Studies could bring out special issues both on the creation of Military Marxist Regimes in Africa and on their demise and the wider collapse of Marxist governments on the continent This volume first published in 1992 derives from a roundtable on the theme of The Retreat from Moscow African and Eastern European Experiences of Disengagement from Marxism held at the University of Birmingham in September 1991 The conference examined the recent experiences of African countries in transition from Marxism and Marxist influenced ideologies to an uncertain future based on the market economy and a plural political system Issues in the Contemporary Politics of Sub-Saharan Africa G. Harrison, 2002-06-19 Graham Harrison investigates contemporary African politics by privileging the dynamics of political struggle and resistance Through the analysis of peasant politics debt and structural adjustment democratization and identity politics the author shows the importance of resistance and agency Detailed studies of Mozambique Nigeria and Burkina Faso demonstrate how political organization and resistance have been closely ingrained in particular post colonial trajectories An original and refreshing approach to the study of African politics this will be a useful textbook for upper level undergraduates and postgraduate students

Democratic Experiments in Africa Michael Bratton,Nicolas Van de Walle,1997-08-13 Appendix The Data Set

Africa Peter Lewis,2018-02-20 This book focuses on the historical construction of African states the modes of political control in the region and the character of political elites It examines the nature of political legitimacy and the avenues of participation or withdrawal pursued by various popular sectors

The Dialectics of Transformation in Africa E. Bongmba,2006-03-15 A discussion of political and religious crisis in Africa this book covers such topics as democratic transition good governance civil society and the African renaissance Elias K Bongmba proposes humanistic interventions centred on the recovery of interpersonal relations and seeks to understand the ongoing struggles in Africa

International Environmental Law and Policy in Africa B. Chaytor,K.R. Gray,2013-11-11 C O OKID11 I welcome the opportunity to prepare a Foreword to the book on Environmental Policy and Law in Africa edited by Kevin R Gray and Beatrice Chaytor It is a pleasure to do that because the book is a contribution to the cause of capacity building for development and implementation of environmental law in Africa a goal towards which I have had an undivided focus over the last two decades There is still some belief in and outside Africa that for developing countries in general and Africa in particular development and implementation of environmental law is not a priority This belief prevails strongly in many quarters of the industrialised countries In fact the view is held either out of blatant ignorance or by some renegade industrialists who fail to appreciate Michael Royston s 1979 thesis that Pollution Prevention Pays 2 That group for obvious reasons must have their correspondent counterparts in Africa to provide hope that industries rejected as derelict in the West or inoperable due to rigorous environmental regulation can find homes to which they can escape and dump their polluting industries

Power in Africa Patrick Chabal,2016-07-27 This book will rightfully head many a reading list C Allen British Book News Power in Africa casts a fresh look at contemporary Black African politics It reviews the merits and failings of existing interpretations of Africa s post colonial society and offers a new approach to its understanding It has two main aims First to present a comparative conceptual framework which places Africa s politics within its appropriate historical context Second to offer an explanation of what is actually happening in Africa beyond the clichés of a dark continent perennially in crisis

Reconstructing the Authoritarian State in Africa George Kieh, Jr.,Pita Agbese,2013-10-01 This work seeks to examine the nature and dynamics of authoritarianism in Africa and to suggest ways in which the states covered in the book can be democratically reconstituted In 1990 a wave of euphoria greeted the third wave of democratization that swept across the African Continent The repression wearied subalterns were hopeful that the third wave would have set into motion the process of democratically reconstituting the authoritarian state on the continent More than two decades thereafter although some progress has been made by and large the authoritarian state remains the dominant construct in the region Even in some of the countries in which democratic transitions have taken place the process of democratic consolidation remains an elusive quest as these states are sandwiched between authoritarianism and democracy Against this background the purpose of this book is to examine the travails of the authoritarian state in Africa including the Herculean task to democratically reconstruct it In order to do this six of Africa's perennial authoritarian states Cameroon the Democratic Republic of the Congo Egypt Liberia Rwanda and Uganda are used as the case studies The book has two major objectives First the various chapters probe the nature and dynamics of authoritarianism in Africa Second the chapters suggest ways in which the various authoritarian states covered in the book can be democratically reconstituted

Human Rights NGOs in East Africa Makau Mutua, 2013-05-29 Human rights nongovernmental organizations NGOs are by definition not part of the state Rather they are an element of civil society the strands of the fabric of organized life in countries and crucial to the prospect of political democracy Civil society is a very recent phenomenon in East African nations where authoritarian regimes have prevailed and human rights watchdogs have had a critical role to play While the state remains one of the major challenges to human rights efforts in the countries of the region other problems that are internal to the human rights movement are also of a serious nature and they are many What are the social bases of the human rights enterprise in transitional societies What mandate can human rights NGOs claim and in whose name do they operate Human Rights NGOs in East Africa critically explores the anatomy of the human rights movement in the East African region examining its origins challenges and emergent themes in the context of political transitions In particular the book seeks to understand the political and normative challenges that face this young but vibrant civil society in the vortex of globalization The book brings together the most celebrated human rights thinkers in East Africa enriched by contributions from their colleagues in South Africa and the United States To date very little has been written about the struggles and accomplishments of civil society in the nations of East Africa This book will fill that gap and prove to be an invaluable tool for understanding and teaching about human rights in this complex and vital part of the world

Poverty Reduction Strategies in Africa Mike Odey, Toyin Falola, 2017-09-08 A fundamental question about contemporary Africa is why does Africa remain so poor long after the departure of the European Colonial domination and in the midst of so many natural resources Poverty Reduction Strategies in Africa provides new understandings of the persistent issue of poverty in Sub Saharan Africa and makes recommendations for policy frameworks to help African governments alleviate poverty Each chapter uses case studies to review the old strategies for resolving the problem of poverty in the continent and make the case for new initiatives to address poverty The contributors focus on practical and day to day issues as the best approach to formulate and implement poverty reduction strategies in contemporary Africa This book is invaluable reading for students and scholars of African politics and development

Regime Hegemony in Museveni's Uganda J. Rubongoya, 2007-01-08 This is a study of the struggle for the restoration of legitimate power in Uganda following the 1986 National Resistance Army Movement NRA's liberation battle led by President Yoweri Museveni It addresses the empirical consequences of legitimacy on power relations and how this affects democratization and economic progress Africa's Elusive Quest for Development M. Hounnikpo, 2006-02-18 Matt Hounnikpo examines how domestic conflict economic stagnation political instability poverty and underdevelopment have plagued Africa for decades He argues that a reversal of the political economic and social plight of Africa lies in better policies good governance and more importantly a new type of African leader and citizen Africa After the Cold War Adebayo Oyeade, Abiodun Alao, 1998 Although it is widely recognised that Africa's security problems are acute it has never been a subject of much intellectual inquiry This lack of scholarly discourse on the many dimensions of the problems of African security is the major consideration of this book The approach to the questions of security differ markedly from the traditional approach that gives primacy to the threat of military aggression as sole factor in state security A departure must be made from this dominant preoccupation in a new global order that has seen profound changes
