

10 QUICK HOME IMPROVEMENT TIPS

A home typically reflects the personality of the residents. Everyone wants to renovate and upgrade their home quickly, easily and in affordable way. Here are quick and easy home improvement tips to get you started.

Clean your House

Clean every nook and cranny for a cheap way to improve the feel of your home.

Get rid of Clutter

Clean out every room and closet to give your home a more spacious feeling. Put in some hangers and shelving to store your clothes and get rid of any clothes that you no longer wear.

Pay Attention to the Ceiling

The ceiling in your home makes up a big percentage of space. Be creative with the plenty of options on the market and articulate your ceiling as a centerpiece in your home rather than just a structure.

Replace Windows

Windows are an essential part of your home. If your home feels chilly and uncomfortable in cold weather or awkwardly warm in warmer weather, you need to consider buying new windows. Replacing your windows can give your home a whole new look.

Paint a Wall

Paint is an easy and fast way to give your home a new look. No matter how old your home is, a fresh coat of paint can make a big difference.

Decorate the Walls

No need to spend tons of money on expensive prints. Instead display some of your favorite pictures in frames.

Frames if you're feeling creative.

you find at discount stores. Or add a personal touch to the

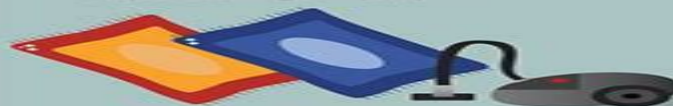

Add some Greenery

Adding some nice potted plants on your porch can really make your home come alive.

Clean the Carpets

Simply shampooing the carpets and rugs can make them look brand new again. You can either do them yourself or hire a carpet cleaning company.

Throw Pillows

Use some throw pillows to add new colors to the room.

Remodel your Bathroom

Start with a thorough cleaning of the floor and walls to remove any mold, and then make a few changes in color. You can also change the shower curtain or add different towels.

The ideas can be endless just by adding a little creativity and imagination.
