Planning in Eastern Europe (Routledge Revivals) Andrew H. Dawson,2017-12-22 Planning is particularly important in Eastern Europe since most spatial change and economic planning are the products of centralised decision making which in turn is the product of a systematic socio political ideology Planning is therefore an important key to understanding society economy and spatial change in Eastern Europe This book which was first published in 1987 provides a comprehensive overview of planning in Eastern Europe Each chapter discusses the nature of planning in the country in question and the changes which have taken place since 1945 and examines regional economic land use environmental protection and urban design policies and their achievements in the post 1945 period Introductory chapters discuss the physical economic and political background of the area and a conclusion considers overall successes and failures and discusses likely future developments This book is ideal for students of geography Transformation and Migration in Central and Eastern Europe International Labour Office,2002 Summarizes issues covered by the Informal Network on International Migration in Central and Eastern Europe since its establishment in 1996 Highlights international migration

trends in CEE countries in the 1990s      Trends in International Migration 1997 Continuous Reporting System on Migration OECD,1997-06-01 This annual publication describes the recent trends in international migration the magnitude of flows the different channels for immigration and the nationality of the immigrants concerned      Trends in International Migration 1998 Continuous Reporting System on Migration OECD,1998-10-09 This analysis of the recent trends of migration movements and policies covers all OECD countries and certain non member countries It provides a comprehensive description of these flows the different channels of immigration and the nationalities of the migrants concerned      The Economy of East Central Europe, 1815-1989 David Turnock,2004-03 From an expert in the field this major survey includes new research and recent changes in the region and reviewing two centuries of modernization examines the history of Eastern European economies within a wider political and ideological context      Trends in International Migration 1999 Continuous Reporting System on Migration OECD,1999-12-20 This report presents an analysis of recent trends in migration movements and policies in OECD countries as well as in certain non member countries It includes a detailed description of the flows the different channels of immigration and the      The Migration Turn and Eastern Europe Attila Melegh,2023-02-22 Using Marxist and Polanyian frameworks this book examines the structural and discursive transformation that can explain the polarization of migration debates and within the rise of nationalist anti migrant discourses in Europe with a special attention to Eastern Europe and Hungary It goes beyond the mainstream explanations of these phenomena that uses nationalist propaganda as causal factors and instead argues that the rise of anti immigration currents cannot be understood without a dialectical and historical analysis of the material and discursive transformations most importantly marketization and related reification Drawing from thinkers such as Luk cs Polanyi and Gramsci as well as diverse empirical sources including demographic studies historical modelling and discourse analyses Migration Turn and Eastern Europe is a unique and rigorous study of one of the most pressing and puzzling political and sociological questions of our time

International Migration and the Future of Populations and Labour in Europe Marek Kupiszewski,2013-02-11 The changes of populations are determined by fertility mortality and migration On the national level international migration is a factor of increasing demographic economic social and political importance This book addresses the debate on the impact of international migration and economic activity on population and labour force resources in future It presents a study conducted for 27 European countries looking 50 years ahead 2002 2052 An extended discussion of theories and factors underlying the assumed evolution of the components of change and economic activity is included as well as a detailed analysis of the historical trends These theoretical and empirical considerations lead to defining scenarios of future mortality fertility economic activity and international migration which have been fed into a projection model producing various future population dynamics and labour force trajectories In addition simulations have been made to estimate the size of replacement migration needed to maintain selected demographic and labour market parameters in the countries of Europe

The results presented in this book allow researchers governments and policy makers to evaluate to what extent various migration and labour market policies may be instrumental in achieving the desired population and labour size and structures The secondary purpose of this volume is to reveal the methodology and argumentation lying behind a complex population forecasting and simulation exercise which is not done frequently but is critical for the assessment of the forecasts and also valuable from a purely didactic point of view European Populations Van der Kaa,2012-12-06 The changing demographic landscape which Europe is facing today and in the next decades reflects the past These changes constitute important challenges to European populations and societies Shifts in fertility and family formation in health morbidity and mortality in internal and international migration as well as changes in age structures in households in labour forces and in population growth and decline will influence the living conditions and well being of Europe s population directly or indirectly The demographic challenge also concerns the environment local regional and national developments education production and consumption patterns economic competitiveness social security housing employment and transport and health and social care provisions These issues their mechanisms determinants and consequences also challenge the scientific study of population As a major forum and market place for scientific demographic debate the 1999 European Population Conference EPC99 was organized to take up this challenge On the threshold of the third millennium European populations are united in diversity and face major demographic issues Labour migrants from Central and Eastern Europe in the Nordic countries Jon Horgen Friberg,2013-12-04 This report presents the results from a project that has aimed to generate new comparative knowledge about labour migration from Central and Eastern Europe to the Nordic countries the factors that shape wage and working conditions for labour migrants and recruitment processes and practices In the report we Describe and compare patterns of labour migration between Central and Eastern Europe and the Nordic countries Compare the working conditions of Polish labour migrants in in Oslo Copenhagen and Reykjavik and analyse how their labour market situation is shaped by variations in national regulations systems of collective bargaining and local labour market structures Analyse the particular role of recruitment agencies in introducing new migrants to the Nordic labour markets The research has been conducted by a team of researchers from Fafo Norway FAOS Denmark CIRRA MIRRA Iceland CMR Poland and SOFI Sweden
