consent by considering the ways in which authors playwrights and directors participated in responded to and resisted the construction of Cold War discourses The book argues that a fugitive resistance to the status quo emerged as writers and activists variously fled into exile went underground or grudgingly accommodated themselves to the new spirit of the times To this end Redding examines work by a wide swath of creators including essayists W E B Du Bois and F O Matthiessen novelists Ralph Ellison Patricia Highsmith Jane Bowles and Paul Bowles playwrights Arthur Miller poets Sylvia Plath and filmmakers Elia Kazan and John Ford The book explores how writers and artists created works that went against mainstream notions of liberty and offered alternatives to the false dichotomy between capitalist freedom and totalitarian tyranny These complex responses and the era they reflect had and continue to have profound effects on American and international cultural and intellectual life as can be seen in the connections Redding makes between past and present
